"Queen Of Destiny" At Deerpath Theatre

"Third Finger, Left Hand," comical romance of a marriage mix-up, brings Myrna Loy teamed with Melvyn Douglas for the first time, to the Deerpath theatre, Friday, Saturday, Sunday, Monday, January 10, 11, 12 and 13, and a rapid-fire series of trials and tribulations that keep the audience in an uproar of mirth.

Historical pomp, dignity and scenic grandeur have been combined with sincere romantic heart-appeal in "Queen of Destiny," the great dramatic presentation of the intimate lives of Queen Victoria of England and the Prince Consort. Playing at the Deerpath theatre Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, January 14, 15 and 16, together with "The World in Flames." The story behind the blitzkreig, the spectacle of nations of the world careening madly along the road to war, comes to the screen in Paramount's challenging, sensational fact picture, "The World in Flames." Produced entirely from newsreels made in the period from 1929 to 1940, "The World in Flames" accomplishes what few motion pictures have ever attempted before.

H. S. Basketeers To Meet Old Rivals Here Friday Night

This Friday night on their home floor, the local high school basketball teams will engage their old rival, New Trier, in two games.

The local ponies are at present tied with Morton for second place in the Suburban League, each team having won three games while losing one. Evanston is the league leader with four wins and one loss.

The members of the local varsity will be out to win their first Suburban League game, and as always when New Trier is their opponent, an exciting contest is assured.

The first game is scheduled to start at 7:30 p.m.

TEN PINS

In a red hot bowling match last Saturday evening the Central Tire bowling team defeated Frank Goffo's All Stars at the Highland Ten Pin Alleys. Tom Peters and Rich. Mau paced the Tire men while Paul Chambers and Ray Shupe were high for the All Stars.
