

Highwood Highlights

LENA GLANDT, Representative Telephone H. P. 53

ANNOUNCE ENGAGEMENT OF LOUISE LEONARDI

Mr. and Mrs. Sante Leonardi have announced the engagement of their daughter Louise to David Perry of Pontiac, Michigan, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. Perry of Tower Hill, Ill. Miss Leonardi received her ring New Year's Eve. Mr. Perry is employed at the General Motors Co. in Pontiac, Mich. No date has been set for the wedding.

Airport Inn. A large group of their friends were there to help them celebrate.

Jacqueline LaCroix, 240 Oakridge avenue, was among one of the fortunate winners in a puzzle contest, who received a ticket to see Jack Benny and Fred Allen in "Love Thy Neighbor" at the Genesee theater.

ANGELINE CHRISTIANO IS ENGAGED

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Christiano of Racine, Wis., announce the engagement of their daughter Angeline to Joseph P. Innocenzi, son of Mr. and Mrs. Pat Innocenzi of Highwood.

The Citizenship Club held a joint business meeting and birthday party last Thursday evening in the Cuore Arte club rooms. Members who were honored with having birthdays in the month of January were Marguerite Azzi, Elvira Nizzi, Rose Ugolini, August Ferrari and Mary Mazzetti. The guests of honor were presented with gifts, and refreshments followed the bunco game.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nelson celebrated their 35th wedding anniversary on Wednesday evening at the

The annual Boy Scout appreciation dinner will be held on Monday, Feb. 24, at North Shore Congregation Israel in Glencoe, as announced by Otto F. Fisher, chairman of the dinner committee.

Noted guest speaker for the evening will be one of America's foremost lecturers, Dr. Preston Bradley, minister of the Peoples church, Chicago.

Mrs. William Webster spent Thursday in Evanston visiting with Mrs. C. Barlett.

With rivalry in basketball running high between Highwood and Highland Park, the Highwood Athletic club Friday night triumphed over the Inman Decorators with a score of 46 to 43. The Decorators had previously been undefeated. The AC's held their lead from the beginning of the game, with Mazzetta scoring highest with 7 baskets and 3 free shots. Rosie was high for the Highland Park team.

The Highwood and Highland Park auxiliaries of the American Legion entertained at a party for the patients at the Veterans' hospital in North Chicago, who celebrate their birthdays in the month of January.

A huge birthday cake, lighted with candles, individual cupcakes, ice cream and cigarets were features of the party. The remainder of the afternoon was spent playing cards.

Reports of threatened strikes at the Fort Sheridan and Great Lakes naval training defense projects were denied last week by Thomas Muzzatto, business agent of Lake county Local 152 of the International Hod Carriers union.

Muzzatto said "There never will be a strike by my union on a defense job while I am business agent. I'd resign first. Besides, our contract calls for arbitration of any possible dispute."

The annual card and bunco party sponsored by the Oak Terrace P. T.A. will be held Tuesday evening, January 21. Door prizes will be donated by the local merchants, and the association will furnish table prizes. There will also be refreshments.

On the committee are Mr. V. Wm. Briddle, ticket chairman; Oscar Ahlberg, refreshment chairman, assisted by Mrs. Lester Smith and Mrs. George Kenry is general chairman of the party. The public is cordially invited to attend.

The Ernest Santis were pleasantly surprised last Thursday evening at a housewarming party by a group of their friends. Mr. and Mrs. Santis' new home is at 334 Palmer avenue. The group presented them with a lovely gift for their home.

Mr. and Mrs. George Kenry were hosts on Thursday to Rev. and Mrs. H. H. Springer of Denver, Colo. Rev. Springer is a well-known evangelist and at the close of his mission in Chicago he and Mrs. Springer will leave on the Clipper on Jan. 21 for Puerto Rico where they will remain for some time.

In the bowling circle, Gus Gaggioli led the Oak Terraces to a two-game triumph over the Old Dutch Cleansers. He pounded the pins for a 650 score.

In the girls' league the Shoreline Mixers beat the Bowlarium team at the O'Farrell alleys with a score of 2371 to 2162. Betty Rich led the Shoreliners with a 533 series.

Tonight (Thursday) the Citizenship club of Highwood will sponsor a public bunco party at the Cuore Arte club rooms. There will be prizes and refreshments. Proceeds will go towards the benefit of the club.

Mrs. Delma Muzzarelli, who has been ill for the past week, is now on the way to recovery.

A bingo party was given at the parish hall by the Catholic Daughters of the St. James church, Highwood, on Wednesday evening. Refreshments were served, and the door prizes awarded were donated by Highwood merchants.

Retired Gardener Is Buried Wednesday

Frederick J. Perryman, a retired gardener, died Monday in the Highland Park hospital following an extended illness. He had made his home with Police Officer John "Paddy" White, and Mrs. White, his niece, and a daughter Mary.

Born in England, Mr. Perryman had been a resident of Highland Park for the past 57 years.

Funeral services were held at two o'clock yesterday (Wednesday) afternoon at Trinity church. Burial was in Northshore Garden of Memories.

Viking Ladies Install

The installation of officers of the Highland Park lodge of the Ladies of Viking took place Thursday evening in Masonic Temple. Those installed were Hilda Johnson, president; Sigrid Anderson, vice president; Anna Johnson and Hilma Kiehl, secretaries, and Clara Anderson, treasurer.

LAUNDRY AND DRY CLEANING

Phone Enterprise 1110

YOU ARE CORDIALLY INVITED TO USE THE CHRISTIAN SCIENCE READING ROOM

43 NORTH SHERIDAN ROAD where the Bible and all the writings of Mary Baker Eddy may be read, borrowed, or purchased

Authorized Christian Science Literature in English, Braille, and foreign languages is also available

MAINTAINED BY FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST, SCIENTIST HIGHLAND PARK, ILLINOIS

The World's News Seen Through THE CHRISTIAN SCIENCE MONITOR

An International Daily Newspaper Published by THE CHRISTIAN SCIENCE PUBLISHING SOCIETY One, Norway Street, Boston, Massachusetts is Truthful—Constructive—Unbiased—Free from Sensationalism—Editorials Are Timely and Instructive and Its Daily Features, Together with the Weekly Magazine Section, Make the Monitor an Ideal Newspaper for the Home.

Price $12.00 Yearly, or $1.00 a Month. Saturday Issue, including Magazine Section, $2.60 a Year. Introductory Offer, 6 Issues 25 Cents.

Obtainable at: Christian Science Reading Room 43 North Sheridan Road Highland Park, Illinois

Buy!

PAY LIKE RENT!

LET OUR HOME LOAN PLAN HELP

The Highland Park Building Loan and Homestead Assn.

21 N. Sheridan Rd. Highland Pk. Tel. H. P. 361 Safe Because Insured Insured Because Safe