"Arise, My Love," On Deerpath Program

Filling the current audience demand for comedy, "Hullabaloo" not only gives Frank Morgan the fullest opportunity he has ever had as a comedian, but reveals a new angle to his many-sided talents. As an impersonator, this new Morgan is heralded as hitting an all-time high in hilarity, his role being that of an ex-vaudevillian who manages to land himself and his "one-man show" on a large radio hook-up. The supporting cast includes Donald Meek, Reginald Owen and Nydia Westman. Playing at the Deerpath theatre Friday and Saturday, January 17 and 18.

Take two capable and ingratiating handlers of comedy lines and situations, Claudette Colbert and Ray Milland, add romantic complications and play both against the backdrop of contemporary European scene and you have the ingredients of "Arise, My Love." The supporting cast includes Walter Abel, Dick Powell, and Dennis O'Keefe. Playing at the Deerpath theatre Sunday, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, January 19, 20, 21 and 22.

Junior Chess Club

Members of the Junior Chess Club are urged to attend the next regular chess practice from 4 to 6 Friday afternoon. A challenge has just been received from the Junior Chess Club of Evanston to set a date for a tournament contest.

In order to be successful in this contest, members of the club must prepare for the conflict by studying up on some of the fine points in chess strategy. A young member of the Evanston group, whose name is Hathaway, is a member of the 6th grade of the Evanston Public school, and is captain of the Junior Chess team of four members. Hathaway's father is engineering professor at Northwestern university and a member of the Adult Evanston Chess club, so these Juniors have a very good sponsor for their team. Four of the best local chess players will be chosen to compose the Junior team, from the best answers to the Chess problems at the next meeting. Only two girls are members, and more are invited to participate.
