

view. Mrs. Dale Taylor and Mrs. P. F. Johnson will be co-hostesses. Mrs. Bruce Blaine, who underwent a minor operation at the Highland Park hospital Tuesday, is reported as getting along nicely.

Mrs. Cary Wood Thomas of New York City, former resident of this city, is making a midwinter visit with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Macpherson Thomas, 21 E. Elm street, Chicago. At a later date she plans to come to Highland Park for a visit with old friends. While here she will be

DILL'S HOME BARBER SHOP

21 North Second Street
First house north of Central Avenue on East side of Street

HAIRCUTTING

Adults . . . . . 40c
Children . . . . . 35c

15 Years in Highland Park
Telephone H. P. 5435

Phoenix ARIZONA
IN THE VALLEY OF THE SUN

Live joyfully in this oasis of complete release from Winter. Desert and mountain wonderlands. Apache Trail - Cliff dwellings. Inviting inns, fine hotels - "dude" ranching at its best.

Arizona Limited

New Streamlined Luxury Train
December 15, 1940 to March 31, 1941.

Between Chicago and Tucson-Phoenix. All-Pullman, extra fare train, with roomettes, double bedrooms, compartments and drawing rooms. Diner and Buffet-Lounge-Observation Car. Stewardess-Nurse. Evening departures every second day. Daily service on the de luxe GOLDEN STATE LIMITED and economy-luxury CALIFORNIAN - Chicago to Los Angeles through Phoenix. All travel comforts at no extra fare.

TRAVEL ON CREDIT
Go Now - Pay Later

L. H. McCORMICK, A.G.P.A.
Rock Island Lines
179 W. Jackson Blvd., Chicago, Ill.
Phone WA 3200
Send information about:  Phoenix  All-Expense California Tours  Travel on Credit  Shipping My Car.
Name _____
Address _____
City _____ State _____

the guest of her sister-in-law, Mrs. R. Arthur Wood.

Betty Lacy will celebrate her 14th birthday anniversary Saturday by giving a dinner party at Open House tearoom and later returning to the Lacy home for dancing and games.

Mrs. W. F. Knobloch entertained at two tables of 500 last Wednesday for Grandma Elliott of Lincoln place.

Mrs. Carl Crist, who flew to Miami a few weeks ago to attend the national air meet there, arrived home last Friday without her plane.

Mrs. Crist's plane was one of a group of six which left from Waukegan airport one Sunday morning to attend the meet which attracted over 1,000 small craft from all parts of the country. Heavy winds the two days of the meet made the local pilots decide not to enter any of the events and on their return trip the air cavalcade was forced down at Albany, Georgia, by the low ceiling which also kept commercial planes grounded at that time. The fliers are hoping for better luck next year!

Miss Catherine Baird will be hostess to the Ridgewood Drive bridge club at dessert bridge today. The guests of honor are Mrs. Bruce Parson, Mrs. Robert Martin, Mrs. Cyrus Avery and Mrs. Harry Aiston.

Mrs. William Barker has as her house guests her sisters, Mrs. Hilton McGregor and Mrs. Arthur Swinford and Mr. Swinford of Collingwood, Ontario, Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Lewis of Beech lane are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son, Howard William, born January 17 at St. Luke's hospital.

Arthur McDougall Wood has entered his year's service with the United States Army and is stationed with Battery C, 166th Field Artillery, Hattiesburg, Miss.

Miss Greta Leander of Vine avenue, whose marriage to Edward Whalen of Lake Forest will be solemnized Feb. 1, is being feted with many parties this week and next. Among them a surprise miscellaneous shower given Tuesday by Miss Kathryn Haine of Lake Forest. Tomorrow (Friday) Miss Lois Hansen is giving a personal shower and next Wednesday Miss Margaret Whalen, the matron of honor, will entertain at a miscellaneous shower at her home in Lake Forest.

Mrs. Clinton Stryker of Milwaukee, formerly of Highland Park, is visiting friends here this week.

Mr. Fred Karsten, W.O., of Fort Sheridan, visited Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Bohn and son Bobby Phelps at Arlington, Va., while in Washington, D. C., on business last week.

Noted Speaker To Address North Shore ORT Next Monday

Miss Charlotte Carr, head of Hull House, and Miss Mary B. Gilson, associate professor economics at the University of Chicago, will be presented to the community by the North Shore IRT at an open meeting to be held Monday, Jan. 27. The meeting, which is open to the community without charge, will be held at North Shore Congregation Israel, Lincoln and Vernon Aves., Glencoe.

These distinguished speakers will participate in a discussion of the maintenance of democratic institutions in our world and concrete steps through which the inner fabric of the social order may be guarded against conquest by social conflict and dictatorship.

Miss Carr's subject will be "Hull House Today" with special emphasis on refugee needs and work and Miss Gilson's subject will be "Work and Psychic Income."

Junior High School Young People Form Group Sunday Evening

An interested group of Junior high young people met at the Bethlehem Evangelical church, Deerfield last Sunday evening in response to an invitation extended by the minister Reverend Earl J. Bruso, and took the first steps toward the organization of a Junior high E.L.C.E.

The program will include devotional, instructional, social and service activities. It was voted to hold subsequent meetings on Friday evening at 7 p.m. Reverend and Mrs. Bruso are the adult counsellors for the group at the present time.

Young People Meet

The Young People's Missionary society will hold their monthly study and social meeting at the home of Genevieve Maurizi, 837 Taylor Ave. Saturday evening, January 25.

HERMANCE MUSTRIC'S BEAUTY SALON

Complete Beauty Service
22 S. First Street
Phone Highland Park 5042

Ahem . . .
by ANNA TAMARRI

Absent from Walgreen's is Peggy Ivey, who has gone home for a two weeks' vacation . . . before she left she was wondering whether she'd make this column . . . "Orf" Ori acquired his nickname when he used to squire a girl by the name of Annie . . . the duo was known as Orf-and-Annie . . . now his heart belongs to Tina Vignocchi, personable young lady . . .

Masks will be the thing on February 8 when the Masonic temple is taken over for a masquerade dance for the young set . . . Mrs. George Van Ess has moved back to these parts . . . from North Chicago to the Highland Park subdivision . . .

Ralph Ori's girl friend has bought herself a trunk and is on her way to California . . . where he is stationed working for national defense. "Students Stunts," annual variety show at Highland Park high, was originated in 1927 by Mrs. Albert Snite, a member of the P.T.A. . . . Tryouts for this year's "Stunts" will begin Jan. 28 . . .

The sun's corona, usually visible only during an eclipse of the sun, was easily seen last Monday morning due to the heavy overcast sky . . . Sewall Truax explains it, saying that the cloud haze absorbs much of the "yellow light" of the sun, thus making it possible for us to see the flames encircling the old fireball . . .

Agnes Daly is scoffing at rumors that she will not conduct her dance classes personally this spring . . . She began a new term yesterday with more energy than ever—if possible . . .

Several couples spend their Saturday evening quietly playing pin-ochle in the basement of one of the stores on East Central avenue . . . Frank Goffo is definitely out of the draft . . . Hy Nichols has 12 hrs. solo flight to his credit at Curtis airport . . .

Seen at the Oak Terrace school game party Tuesday night were Mrs. Fred Bertucci and Millie Pasini . . .

Contributions For Infantile Paralysis Being Made Here

Residents of Highland Park are urgently requested to contribute to the worthy cause of national defense against infantile paralysis.

Contributions in any amount may be addressed or left with this newspaper, at the post office, the city hall, or dropped in any coin container placed in most every store and local place of business for that purpose.

Dime cards may be secured from the post office, this newspaper or from any school teacher. Attractive campaign buttons will be given to any boy or girl on calling at the post office or the business office of this newspaper.

The campaign ends on the President's birthday, Thursday, January 30.

Hi

LENA GLANDT, I

Jacqueline A. Highwood avenue mother, Mrs. M. ed their birthdays urday. It was birthday, and ma came to help her

Mrs. Arthur guest last week seph Jacobs of Mrs. Monroe surprised on Sa a group of frien with well wish happy birthdays.

The Catholic Lake county m at the St. Jame pose of installin brose Cantagell president with being filled as bell, Waukegan social chairman Waukegan, sec Salmon, Wauke seph Cameron chairman and I ference chairm Highland Park.

Other chairm ton, Fox Lake Durkin, Wauke The Catholic Y tee members a Lake Forest; ville, and Vinc

Following t were discussed olic Youth Fede will be held i

JUNIOR ITAL CLUB MEETS

The Junior I perity club m a business m temple.

A Valentine for February held at Labor by El Sherie tra. Tickets may be obtain Highwood or bers.

Rena Piazza were introduc while Ada M so, Mrs. Cor Mordini were bership.

Refreshment freshment cl nini, assisted chini. The held Feb. 20 at which tin mittee will b a slate of meeting, the proceeds of t ed.

Mr. and M the proud p born at the last Wedne 16.