"You'll Find Out" On Deerpath Bill

A comedy melodrama interspersed with the personality and music of America's Number One band organization, headed by Kay Kyser, "You'll Find Out," will be shown at the Deerpath theatre Thursday, Friday and Saturday, January 23, 24 and 25.

In "Little Nellie Kelly," Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's picturization of the original George M. Cohan stage success, Judy Garland emerges as a full-fledged dramatic star. While the picture is a romantic comedy, Miss Garland will have opportunity to prove herself one of the screen's most brilliant young actresses in both comedy and drama, portraying not only "Little Nellie Kelly," by her mother as well. Playing at the Deerpath theatre Sunday and Monday, January 26 and 27.

"The Letter," film version of Somerset Maugham's famous drama, with Bette Davis in the starring role, will be presented at the Deerpath theatre Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, January 28, 29 and 30. Hailed by the newspaper film critics as the greatest of all Miss Davis' roles, "The Letter" presents her as an apparently happily married woman, who murders the man she loves, and ruins the man who loves her.
