APPOINT R. BARD TO U. S. NAVY POST

Nominated as Assistant Secretary To Succeed Compton

Ralph A. Bard, 531 N. St. Johns, was nominated by President Roosevelt, Friday as Assistant Secretary of the Navy. He will succeed Lewis Compton who resigned January 10th.

Ralph A. Bard

Mr. Bard who is 56 years old is president of the investment banking house bearing his name at 208 S. LaSalle St., Chicago and chairman of the board of Wahl Eversharp, Inc. He is also a director of the American Shipbuilding company and the Libby-Owens Ford Glass company.

Born in Cleveland in 1884, Mr. Bard has spent the greater part of his life in and around Chicago. He has been a resident of Highland Park for 30 years, and has taken an active part in all civic enterprises. In 1938 he was chairman of the Highland Park Community Chest. He is a member of the Highland Park Presbyterian church.

Besides his wife, Mr. Bard has four children, Ralph A. Bard Jr., who is in business in Charleston, W. Va., and Mrs. Thomas J. Johnson Jr., of Chicago, Mrs. Martin Manulis of New York and George M. Bard II, who resides with his parents.

Mr. Bard has always had great admiration for the Navy and it's personnel, and feels that it will be an honor to be associated with it. Secretary Frank Knox, who is a friend of Mr. Bard's has been seeking his services for some time.

Three Parties Are Expected To Enter Highwood's Race

With rumors and more rumors coming out of the impending city election to be held in Highwood, April 15, only one ticket has been filed to date. Two tickets are said to be complete with a third in the making. Thomas E. Russell Sr., and his ticket will have first place on the ballot as it was the first to be filed. It was filed Friday, Feb. 14, the first date for filing petitions.

Russell's complete ticket includes himself as candidate for Mayor; Louis Bernardoni, city clerk; Fred Lund, city treasurer; Joseph Ariano, police magistrate; Edward Olson, alderman first ward; John Shelton, alderman second ward; Ricco Ladurini, alderman third ward, and Nello Fabbri, alderman fourth ward.

Mayor Charles Portilia is campaigning for a second term and included on his ticket will be John Ugolini, now city treasurer for city clerk; Edgar Benson, city treasurer; John Lenzini, police magistrate; Henry Carlson, alderman first ward; John Kenry, incumbent second ward; John Castellari, third ward and Gene Focchi, incumbent, fourth ward.

The third ticket is to be headed by Albert Bork, who is now alderman of the second ward. Others on the ticket are Fred Ehrens, city treasurer; Tom Saeilli, city clerk; Nello Ori, police magistrate; George Ahlberg, alderman, first ward; Roy Olson and James Gerardini, alderman, second ward; Calzia, third ward; and Roy Russell, fourth ward.

William J. Schmidt Fatally Injured; Is Buried Tuesday

William J. Schmidt, 56, of 640 Homewood Ave., was fatally injured Saturday, when he slipped and fell on the ice at the railroad junction in Mundelein, as he alighted from an engine pulling a 16 car freight train.

Schmidt, who had been a conductor on the North Shore railroad for 26 years, sustained a fractured skull and internal injuries in the fall. He died about 15 minutes after the accident while awaiting an ambulance and physician. His death was held accidental.

Funeral services were held Tuesday morning at 9:30 a.m. at St. James church, Highwood, with interment in Northshore Garden of Memories.

Besides his wife, Florence, Mr. Schmidt is survived by two sons, Francis and John, three daughters, Florence, Mary and Elizabeth; a brother George; three sisters, Mrs. Francis Fredricks, Mrs. Catherine Koch and Mrs. Maude Marek.

H. P. Merchants Offer Many Fine Dollar Day Values

Rev. D. Falkenberg To Speak Sunday At First U. E. Church

Rev. Don R. Falkenberg, National president of the Bible Meditation league with headquarters in Columbus, Ohio, will speak Sunday evening, Feb. 23 at 7:45 o'clock in the First United Evangelical church, Green Bay road and Laurel Ave. Colored pictures of the CCC camps will be shown following the service and Mrs. D. R. Falkenberg, much loved radio soloist will sing.

Mr. Falkenberg has been appointed from Washington, D.C., to have charge of the distribution of the Bible to the conscription army of 800,000.

The Falkenbergs are guests at the Moody Bible institute this week, speaking several times daily to the students and broadcasting a series of Bible studies each noon over WMBI. They are personal friends of Rev. F. Robinson, pastor of the First United Evangelical church of this city.

Firemen Respond To Several Calls

The Highland Park Fire department responded to several calls during the past week.

A defective chimney caused about $125 damage to the Milton Greenberger residence at 257 Cedar Ave., occupied by the Fenchtwenger family, last Friday afternoon.

An automobile owned by A. L. Bell, caught fire at the corner of St. Johns and Ravine Aves., Saturday. An electric short was responsible for the $5 damage caused. Alcohol boiling over onto a hot engine caused fire which damaged a car belonging to Bill Byder, 365 Bloom St. Sunday. The damage was estimated at $10.

No damage was reported at the home of W. J. Campbell, 625 Bronson Ave., when the pilot light in a gas boiler went out causing an explosion.

City Officers Help Get Cat Out of Tree

A white angora cat owned by Mrs. Lee C. Gatewood, 286 Laurel Ave., disappeared Sunday and was found next day, perched in a tall tree in front of the John A. Clark home at 296 Prospect Ave. When efforts to entice the cat to come down from the tree failed, the Highland Park police and fire departments were summoned to assist in removing "Snow White" from the tree.

Retail Committee Sponsors Semi-Annual Sales Event Today

TODAY, THURSDAY, IS DOLLAR DAY IN HIGHLAND PARK. This is a semi-annual event sponsored by the Retail committee of the Highland Park Chamber of Commerce. Many attractive window displays have been arranged by the merchants, and the outstanding values offered promise one of the most outstanding Dollar Day events ever staged in Highland Park.

In this week's issue of the HIGHLAND PARK PRESS, readers will find a varied selection of unusual bargains. Not just merely bargains with a view to sacrificing quality, but quality merchandise offered at untold savings.

Your needs are realized by your local merchants, who have learned to serve you. Tremendous savings on all household commodities, as well as clothing, food and other individual necessities will be found in the local stores.

Aside from the savings involved your local merchants seek to create good will and to add new patrons to their acquaintances. It is with this thought in mind that they offer these semi-annual selling events.

Look over the advertisements offered in today's issue of the PRESS and note the Dollar Day Bargains they contain. They're worth reading for they offer real values to you. Make your selections and then shop early. This sale is for ONE DAY ONLY—prices will be advanced the following day.

In order that our readers may obtain first hand information regarding this big sales event, and to give them an opportunity to study the advertisements and make selections, the HIGHLAND PARK PRESS is being published a day earlier. THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 20, IS DOLLAR DAY.
