His lecture will be on wild flowers of America which is to be achis science of botany in recording our native wild flowers in color.

Among the flower pictures to be presented in his lecture before the Woman's Club will be those he has entitled "Glimpses of the Rockies," which is a series much praised among naturalists. These pictures he made when granted a fellowship to the Rocky Mountain Workshop of the Progressive Education Association at Denver in 1938. This series also includes glimpses of the Bad Lands, Yellowstone Park, the Black Hills and Pikes Peak.

The versatile Mr. Cunningham teaches manual arts at the Elm Place school.

Hostess for the day will be Mrs. Earl Fritch with Mrs. A. V. Mc-Phee, Mrs. Clara Lloyd and Mrs. John Bell as co-hostesses. Mrs. O. Lawrence Olesen is chaiman of the Garden class and Mrs. John Marietta program chairman. Members, may bring guests to this meeting.

In preference to the big home in the Suburbs, several men and many couples now spend the 2 or 3 months of Winter here on Chicago's Near North Side in one of our lovely one- or two-room suites.

Delightful surroundings; cultural atmosphere; restricted clientele. Within walking distance of Downtown; transportation nearby; handy to shops and theatres.

> Rentals are from:-$62.50—Single $80.00-Double

2 room suites: $120-Single $140-Double

Many tenants make this their home between visits to other climes and relatives; also their voting residence.

A group of Deerfield, Highland Park and Lake Forest women meet each Monday in the homes of the members to sew and knit. Their work is for refugee children of all nations and this work is carried on through Les Amities Feminines de la France, which has its headquarters in New York City. There is a need for more workers and anyone interested in aiding children by joining this sewing group may call Mrs. Frances McDermott, Deerfield 144, Mrs. Friedel Fuller, Deerfield 73, Mrs. Kelly Johnson, Saunders Rd., Deerfield, or Mrs. Ames Ross, Highland Park 573.

Les Amities Feminines de la France is a New York organization which until last June sent layettes and children's clothing to Paris. It. maintained there, with funds raised here, a maternity hospital, a creche for new-born infants and a home for lost babies and young children refugees of all nationalities. That was before the German occupation of that city. Now everything is sent to London for charity among the many thousands of refugee children from France and all other na-
