Male Quartet In Sacred Concert At Bethlehem Church

One of the most talented musical groups from North Central College, Naperville, Ill.—a male quartet—will present a full musical program of sacred and semi-classical numbers at the monthly vesper service at Bethlehem Evangelical church, 815 Rosemary terrace, Deerfield, on Sunday, March 2, at 4:30 o'clock.

The quartet numbers will be interspersed by several duets and solos and a reader in the person of Miss Rosemary Heiser of Chicago. Two of the members of the quartet were on the traveling squad this summer which covered over 15,000 miles throughout the mid-western states.

The quartet will be met at the church by a larger group of students who will be returning from Wisconsin where they are scheduled to present a college program on Saturday evening, March 1. This larger group will provide the program for the Sunday Evening Fellowship at Bethlehem church which follows the concert.

Visitors at Bethlehem church's monthly vesper services have been coming from all North Shore towns and from Chicago. The present series has been more widely acclaimed than any of the two preceding seasons. As usual the community is invited to the coming program one week from next Sunday. A free-will offering is received to cover the expenses involved in bringing this talent to Deerfield.

Luncheon-Bridge Nets British War Relief Society $1,317

The proceeds from the Luncheon-Bridge given at the Exmoor Country club on Wednesday, February 12, for the benefit of the British War Relief Society, were $1,317 after all expenses were paid. This amount has been turned over to Headquarters of British War Relief at 30 North Michigan avenue, and will be used immediately for the use of civilian sufferers of Great Britain.

The white bonnet used by Miss Lilian Gish in the scene where she is leaving for church in "Life with Father," was won by Mrs. Robert Cobb, and the screen, another valuable prize, was won by Mrs. Geo. Strecker. There were 103 other prizes which delighted all the lucky winners. Mrs. George Childs and Miss Helen Bergstrom were co-chairmen for Highland Park, and Mrs. Charles Timson and Mrs. C. B. Gwyn were co-chairmen for Deerfield and Bannockburn.

Brotherhood To Hear Dr. B. E. Christiansen

The Bethany Brotherhood of the Bethany Evangelical church will meet at the home of Mr. George Bray, 607 Homewood avenue, Tuesday at 7:45 p.m. Dr. B. E. Christiansen will relate some of the interesting experiences that he and several other men had on a recent hunting and fishing trip. He will show moving pictures of interesting events which took place on their trip. All men interested are invited to attend.
