"Love Thy Neighbor" At Deerpath Theatre

Romance wreathed in gunsmoke, in a story of the exploits of the Texas Rangers as they fight to sweep the purple sage free of outlaws, will be seen in "Texas Rangers Ride Again", which will be shown at the Deerpath theatre on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, February 20, 21 and 22. Boasting a cast of notable players including John Howard, Ellen Drew, Broderick Crawford, Akim Tamiroff, May Robson and Charley Grapewin, the film tells the story of what happens when a couple of modern Texas Rangers collide with a ruthless gang of present-day cattle rustlers.

Musical hits are heard all through "Love Thy Neighbor," that mad and merry musical comedy which plays at the Deerpath Theatre Sunday, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, February 23, 24, 25 and 26, co-starring those two great comedians, Jack Benny and Fred Allen, as well as Mary Martin.

A thrilling mystery film that will send chills up and down your spine will be presented Thursday and Friday, February 27 and 28. The picture, called "The Case of the Black Parrot," is the exciting story of the search for a dangerous international criminal who has successfully outsmarted the police of two continents.

Deerfield Stagers Present Melodrama Friday Evening

"Pure as the Driven Snow", or "A Working Girl's Secret," is the comedy melodrama which will be presented by the "Stagers" of Deerfield at 8:15 p.m. Friday, February 21, in the Deerfield Grammar school auditorium.

In this modern version of the old-time "mellow dramma" the audience is invited to hiss the villain and cheer the manly hero. "Pure as the Driven Snow" is a very funny and entertaining play by Paul Loomis.

"The Stagers" is the drama group of the Deerfield Presbyterian church, with Kenneth Hunter as director of the following cast: Shirley Clark, John Tibbetts, Robert Jordan, John Tibbetts, Robert Jordan, Elizabeth Turner, James Tibbetts, Josephine Allsbrow, Dorothy Davis, Forence Russell, Doris Endebroke, Lois Clark, Nora M. Russell, Adelaide Alexander, and Donald Paulsen.

Two Injured In Truck-Car Crash

Two men were injured Monday morning when an automobile and dairy truck crashed at the intersection of Greenbay road and Highland place.

Robert McMurray, 911 Central St., Evanston, driver for the Cream Crest Dairy truck received a hip injury when his truck skidded into the path of a north bound car driven by John Ricci, 901 Agatite St., Chicago. McMurray's truck was headed west into Greenbay Rd. Ray Reyer, 53, 6042 Woodlawn Ave. Chicago, a passenger in Ricci's car was sustained a cut on his forehead. He was attended at the Highland Park hospital by Dr. H. B. Roberts, and later released. McMurray was to be taken care of by the dairy companies physician.
