Prints for Judging at Camera Club

At the next meeting of the Highland Park Camera club on Wednesday, Feb. 26, members of the club will submit several prints on winter. These prints will be judged by Stephen J. Heiser, a prominent professional photographer, whose home is in Ravinia.

The pictures accepted are to be made up into a portfolio of prints which will be sent to other camera clubs for display.

Volunteers for Leadership

The Community Center is rapidly working out a schedule for volunteer help, and plans to use them once per week.

Especially needed are the following:

Boys' Craft class leader.

Those interested in any type of volunteer work should call Mr. X, Highland Park 2442.

Make Plans for Athletic Dep't.

The temporary Athletic committee of the Community Center met February 16 and made plans for the opening of the department. This unit is to be for women as well as men. Membership rates are very moderate, and include use of squash court, exercise room, and locker room.

The committee is anxious to get more equipment for the exercise room, and will appreciate any gifts or contributions.

The opening of the new unit is expected to be about March 1.

Y.M.C. Board Meets; Plan Year's Work

Hugo Schneider Jr., executive vice president of the Highland Park Young Men's club was appointed to lead a special gifts finance committee at a board of directors meeting held Monday. He will be assisted by Dr. Baker M. Hamilton, chairman of the board and James E. Golden, treasurer of the club.

The board of directors reviewed the written reports presented by the heads of committees serving during the past year and prepared the budget and program schedule for the coming months.

A motion was passed making the meetings of the organization open to members and their guests only, effective with the April meeting.

Detailed arrangements were presented by Joseph W. Cameron, vice-president athletics for the operation of the clubs hardball baseball team this summer.

The next meeting of the club will be Thursday evening, March 13 and will feature a Hawaiian program and setting according to William R. Larson, vice-president in charge of social events.

Deerfield Will Hold Non-Partisan Caucus

A non-partisan caucus for the Village of Deerfield will be held Wednesday, Feb. 26th at 8 p.m. in the Deerfield Grammar school to select a village ticket including a village president, four trustees and a clerk. The caucus is being called by a group of civic organizations who are not sponsoring any candidates but desire to see the ticket filled in a democratic way.

Lions To Discuss Morale of Democracy At Meeting Today

The members of the H. P. Lions club in their weekly meeting to be held this noon (Thursday) at 12:15 in the Sunset Valley Golf club will discuss the Socratic league outline arranged by Steven Lane titled the "Morale of Democracy."

The program is suggested by the Department of activities of Lions International and will be presented by L. W. Nieter, Dr. Baker M. Hamilton and Robert Roeber under the direction of W. J. Seguin, chairman of the meeting.

The subject arranged in the form of a panel discussion followed by open debate will be centered around certain constructive and destructive influences tending to influence democratic peoples, and the part Lions clubs can play in guiding and controlling these influences.

Colored motion pictures of tropical flowers and scenery were presented at last week's meeting by Bob Slayback. Mr. Slayback's presentation was preceded by a viewing of the motion-pictures taken at one of the local Lion's clubs steak fries last summer.

Miss Eliza Clampitt Aged 78, Passes On

Miss Eliza J. Clampitt, 78, died Sunday at her home, 125 S. Green Bay road, following a two months illness.

Born in Devonshire, England, Miss Clampitt came to this country when eight years old, and has lived in Highland Park ever since. She was at one time leading seamstress in this community. For many years she was a member of the Baptist church which disbanded several years ago. Since she had attended the Presbyterian church.

Miss Clampitt is survived by a brother, Joseph, of Glendale, Calif., who was with her at the time of her death.

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Kelley chapel, with the Rev. Louis W. Sherwin, pastor of the Presbyterian church, officiating. Burial was in Rosehill cemetery.

A TRIBUTE

Miss Clampitt lives no more on this earth. But has gone to God who granted her birth. As dignified, sweet, serene and kind. She is remembered by friends left behind. God knew her well for Christian was her life.

And holy her conversation 'midst earth's strife.

That kindly smile—the smile of a friend—The gentle word: the nod of her head: The kindly eyes with their spiritual glow All these we knew—we, who were privileged to know.

Miss Clampitt while she was with us still Before she ascended Eternity's Hill.
