"Here Comes The Navy" At Deerpath Theatre

A thrilling mystery film that will send chills up and down your spine will be presented at the Deerpath theatre Thursday and Friday, Feb. 27 and 28. The picture, called "The Case of the Black Parrot," is the exciting story of the search for a dangerous international criminal who has successfully outsmarted the police of two continents.

When Hedy Lamarr throws a telephone at Clark Gable, tries to part his hair with a chair, and musses him up in general, it is quite a sight, but only one of the many rollicking comedy highlights of "Comrade X," their new co-starring picture, which plays at the Deerpath theatre a Saturday, Sunday and Monday, March 1, 2 and 3.

Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, March 4, 5 and 6, the Deerpath theatre Saturday, Sunday and path theatre will show a return engagement of "Here Comes the Navy," starring James Cagney and Pat O'Brien.

Laughter, tense drama, and thrills of the scientific world mingle in a rapid-fire plot in "Dr. Kildare's Crisis," newest in the medical-mystery series, playing at the Deerpath theatre Friday and Saturday, March 7 and 8. Because of the growing importance of these pictures, the cast was augmented by Robert Young as guest star with Lew Ayres, Lionel Barrymore and Lorraine Day.

H. P. Chess Club

A number of answers to the first chess problem printed in a recent issue of the PRESS have been received. The only correct answer thus far has been submitted by Mr. Posey.

Owing to the dark color of the dark squares, the chess pieces are a little indistinct.

The chess board from which the photograph was made has now been repainted and the following nine problems will be much more legible. The correct answer to each problem will be published in the PRESS one month from the appearance of the problem.

Ann Birk Kuper To Read New Comedy Before Sisterhood

On Monday, March 3, at 2:30, North Shore Congregation Israel Sisterhood will present Ann Birk Kuper, who will read Kaufman and Hart's new comedy, "George Washington Slept Here." Mrs. Benj. Leo Steif is chairman for this meeting.

This play, in which Ernest Truex is now appearing on Broadway, is one of the most amusing of the many comedies written by Kaufman and Hart, and probably had its beginning in the Kaufman family's search for a home in Connecticut. The action details the search for an old house by a man who has set his heart on a place of his own in the country.

All are welcome to attend this reading, for which a slight charge will be made.

Mrs. Milton Grauer is president of the Sisterhood.
