

Heard in Deerfield

RUTH PETTIS, Representative

Telephone Deerfield 485

BAPTISM

Frances Carol Gloden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Gloden of Osterman avenue, born January 18, 1941, was baptized on Sunday, March 9, at St. Paul's Evangelical church with Rev. F. G. Piepenbrok officiating. The sponsors were Hiram Zittergruen and Mrs. James McNeil.

CITIZENS

A two-day naturalization hearing was held on Thursday and Friday at the Lake County Court House where Judge Ralph J. Dady, upon recommendation of the federal naturalization examiner, A. G. Jones, granted final papers to 177 and there were four Deerfield residents. They are Sophia Geist, 750 Osterman avenue; Lydia Barbour, 944 Deerfield road; Margaret Dawson, 161 Telegraph road; and Donato Intranuovo (Dan Drano) 859 Deerfield road. These new citizens will be guests at a patriotic reception on Friday evening at the Legion Home in Waukegan.

Mrs. C. E. Barrette, Mrs. Andrew Decker, Mrs. E. H. Selig, and Mrs. Harry Thomson were hosts at a luncheon on Wednesday at the Thomson home, 1358 Berkley court, for Circle Two of the Presbyterian church. Circle Two divided its members into groups of fours, and each group has conducted a project to raise funds. The luncheon yesterday was the closing event of the circle for the year. The annual meeting of the congregation is March 26, when all circles will give their annual reports.

A marriage license was issued recently to Ernest A. Lemm of Deerfield and Mrs. Elizabeth Per Lee of Skokie.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Lippincott have leased the Horace Neill house at 866 Fair Oaks avenue and will move there the first of April. A staff physician from Fort Sheridan will move into the Wing Apts. at 561 Deerfield road, being vacated by the Lippincotts. The Horace Neills have gone to Washington.

Mrs. Friedel S. Fuller and son, Paul Norman, with the Hvale family of Lake Bluff, spent Sunday with Miss Cecelia Radell of Milwaukee.

John Huhn is remodeling his house at 1111 Deerfield road into apartments.

Mrs. Maurice Miller underwent a goitre operation at the Highland Park hospital last week.

Edward Herrmann has returned from the Park Ridge Convalescent Home to his residence on Wilmot road. Mr. Herrmann suffered a stroke recently.

Mrs. Anne Daniels is entertaining her contract bridge club at luncheon today at her home in Highland Park.

Dr. and Mrs. William J. Davidson will move to Deerfield the first of April. They have purchased the Edward Segert house at 1000 Hazel avenue. The Davidsons are parents of Mrs. H. C. Hawes of Brierhill road.

Deerfield Chamber of Commerce is sponsoring "Dollar Days" on Friday and Saturday, March 21 and 22.

The fifth grade children in the Deerfield Grammar school has a quadruple birthday party on Thursday, March 6. Mrs. Mildred Black have the party for her daughter, Evelyn, who was eleven years old. The children whose birthday anniversaries occurred the same day had candles on their individual cakes. The other fifth graders whose birthdays were celebrated were Billy Notz, Thayer Batt Jr., and Teddy Warner. Teddy is the son of the fifth grade teacher, Mrs. Elizabeth Warner, and he is in that grade in the Northbrook school.

Mrs. Lewis Ashman was hostess at tea last Tuesday for Mrs. W. B. Hanner of Sikeston, Mo., who is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Wendell Goodpasture of Orchard lane.

Mrs. B. F. Reinking will entertain the Mother's club of the Bannockburn school on Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. A. L. Burke of Old Mill road will give an illustrated lecture on "Art."

Mrs. Dewey Deal underwent an appendectomy several weeks ago at the Lake County General hospital in Waukegan. Because of complications she will have to remain in bed for six weeks. The Deals have five children.

Mrs. G. F. Thomas Jr. (Louise Kersten) and son, George, of Evanston, and Mrs. Charles Kersten of Chicago were guests of their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Pettis on Tuesday.

Mrs. B. H. Kress underwent a major operation last Friday at St. Francis hospital in Evanston.

Mrs. Mary Intranuovo and family moved into the apartment in the old Bleimehl building on Sunday, which was vacated recently by the Rutkofski family. The building was bought last week by A. Santi of Highwood.

Mrs. Harold Bloomfield entertained at tea on Monday at her home on Chestnut street.

Mrs. G. A. Willen and Mrs. Leslie Brand, and Mrs. Erickson of Highland Park and a friend from Ohio, left last Wednesday for an automobile trip to New Orleans and to Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Todd (Genevieve Steiner) moved from Chicago to Deerfield this week to the John Reeb apartment on Springfield avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Dobbins were hosts at two tables of bridge on Saturday at their home on Elm street.

Mrs. Ira Gardner will entertain Presbyterian Circle next Friday at luncheon at her home on Deerfield road.

Kenneth Weir has returned to his home on Rosemary terrace following an operation in a Chicago hospital.

Carl Scheer escaped serious injury Thursday evening when his taxi cab was in an accident in Winnetka.

Mrs. Catherine Dattilo has been visiting friends in Lake Bluff. Mrs. Dattilo has been living at the Hilmer Johnson home.

Miss Rose Nolan and Joseph Atkinson of Roundout spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Earl Frost of Osterman avenue.

Edwin Palmer acted as master of ceremonies at a dinner in Harvey's restaurant on Friday evening in Chicago when Bradner, Smith & Co., where Mr. Palmer is employed, gave a farewell dinner for the first draftee of that company, John Burton, who has been called into service.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Easton and daughter, Marlene, have moved into their new home on Rosemary terrace.

Mrs. Douglass Hawkins and son of Flushing, Long Island, are visiting Mrs. Hawkins' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Page of Arbor Vitae road.

Mrs. Edwin A. Wood is going to Washington, D. C., next month as a delegate from the North Shore Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

Mrs. Emil Giss came up from Edinburg, Texas, this week, to be here for the wedding of her son, Kenneth Giss, of Peoria. She is the guest of her son, Vernon Giss of Central avenue. The wedding will take place the middle of this month.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Mele and daughter of Chicago spent last week-end at the Clarence Anderson home on Hazel avenue.

Sunday dinner guests at the Albert Roggow home on Park avenue were Mrs. William Richiger, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Richiger, William Richiger and daughter, Arline, and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Klause, all of Cicero.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hoffman and children of Wheeling were Sunday guests at the Walter Hoffman home on Greenwood avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Potterton and children spent Sunday at the R. S. Williams home in Palatine.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Mann visited at the John Phillips home in Waukegan on Sunday.

Capt. and Mrs. A. C. Bartness have come from Iron River, Mich., to the house at 865 Osterman avenue. The Christopher A. Murrays have moved from Minneapolis to the lower apartment at 902 Waukegan road.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Laurence of Highwood announce the birth of a son on March 3 at the Highland Park hospital. Mrs. Laurence is the former Clara Slown, daughter of the Erle Slowns of Osterman Ave.

The Deerfield Townsend club will meet on Tuesday, March 18, at 8 p.m. at the Town hall. Mrs. Minnie Whitcomb, program chairman, states that arrangements have been made for a guest speaker. Isaac Rapp is president.

A Smorgasbord supper with Lenten dishes will be served on Thursday, March 27, beginning at 5:30 p.m., at St. Paul's Evangelical church in Deerfield, sponsored by the executive board of the Woman's guild of which Mrs. John Ott is president. It is open to the public.

Scout Troop 33 To Entertain Parents

Parents' night will be observed this evening by Boy Scout Troop 33. A special program, including a court of honor, an investiture ceremony and moving pictures of Camp Ma-ka-ja-wan will be presented.

Howard Detmer, chairman of the entertainment committee, will be assisted by Scoutmaster James E. Allen, Jr., and Scouts Harry Pertz, Jack Frost, Bill Carnahan and Dudley Hall, Jr.

On Saturday and Sunday, March 15 and 17, the troop will go on an overnight camping trip to the Dan Beard cabins in the forest preserve east of the Des Plaines river, near Wheeling.

The committee in charge consists of Dudley Hall, chairman of outdoors activities, A. E. Norrlen, and Walter Pitsch. Cooperating with this committee are Bruce Parsons, chairman of education and advancement, and Charles Arden and O. W. Frost. Transportation will be provided by H. A. Bridges, chairman of the transportation committee.

Swift's
PARD
DOG FOOD

AT YOUR GROCER

or

EVANS FEED STORE
Phone 124 610 Central Ave.
Highland Park

LAUNDRY AND DRY CLEANING

Phone Enterprise
1110