

H. P. Youngsters Give Greeting at D.A.R. Annual Conference

Two Highland Park children, Deborah Buchanan and Eunice Helmold (pictured on the cover of this issue of THE PRESS), members of the Junior Group, Blackhawk society, Children of the American Revolution, gave the greeting on behalf of the seventeen Illinois C.A.R. societies to the Illinois Daughters of the American Revolution, at the opening session of their 45th annual State Conference held at the Stevens hotel, March 13, 14 and 15, at Chicago.

The costumes which are nearly a half century old, were loaned for the occasion and made a charming picture. They are of ivory satin, silver and lace with touches of rose pink silk, tiny black ribbon and white marabou. The children are wearing the C.A.R. insignia and their emblem flags make a fitting background for the picture.

Eunice gave the official greeting at the conclusion of which Deborah presented her lovely bouquet to the Illinois State Regent of D. A. R., Miss Helen Mackin, who received it with gracious words of thanks.

H. P. Garden Guild To Be Represented At Chicago Show

The Highland Park Garden Guild of which Mrs. Richard Kebron is president, is one of the many Garden Clubs having exhibits at the Fifteenth Annual Chicago Flower Show, which will open at the Navy Pier on Friday evening, March 28, at 6, and will close Saturday evening, April 5, at 10:30 o'clock.

Definitely contemporary, the theme of this year's show will be "Modern Trends," and not only does it promise to be the best yet given, but also to be of great help in answering the same problems that confront individuals in their own garden and home.

The Highland Park Garden club will exhibit a terrace luncheon table, and also a shadow box flower arrangement. Mrs. Samuel H. Bingham, Jr., and Mrs. Gilbert Haggerty are going the table, and doing the shadow box, which is to be an arrangement in analogous color. Mrs. William S. Forrest, Jr., is ticket chairman for the Highland Park group, and anyone wishing tickets may obtain them by calling 3117.

Sheridan Rebekah lodge celebrated its twenty-fourth anniversary Monday evening in Masonic Temple. Past Noble Grands of the lodge were invited to hold office during the evening. Mrs. Effie Lyle served as Noble Grand for the evening and Mrs. Flora Werner as vice Noble Grand.

Mrs. Grace Bairstow of Waukegan, who is treasurer of the Rebekah Assembly and who instituted the lodge in March, 1917, was guest of honor for the evening, as was Mrs. Anna Goodman, a member of Francis Lodge of Chicago, who was the first Noble Grand of the Highland Park group.

Mrs. Bairstow gave a very interesting account of the institution of Sheridan Lodge and brought back many highlights on the early occasion. Each past Noble Grand of the lodge was also called upon to give some interesting event or experience during her year of office.

Two district officers, Mrs. Eleanor Bock, president of District No. 3 and a member of Sheridan Rebekah lodge, and Mrs. Frieda Thompson, of Wilmette, treasurer of the district, were also present.

A social hour in the form of a birthday party, with gifts for each past officer and a gift from each member to the lodge, was held following the meeting.

On Monday evening, April 14, Sheridan Rebekah lodge will entertain the lodges in this district and each lodge participating will bring their candidates for initiation. This meeting is preliminary to a district meeting which will be held in May in this city.
