

All-Star Pro Card At Waukegan Mar. 21

Sport fans of Lake county are due for an evening of thrills Friday night, March 21 when eight of the outstanding heavyweight wrestlers in the middlewest gather in Waukegan to battle for gold and glory in the high school gym on the all-star professional card sponsored by the Moose lodge.

The main event of the evening pits the remarkable Ruffy Silverstein undefeated in more than 11 years of amateur and professional wrestling, against lithe, powerful Karol Krauser, champion of all Poland and one of the foremost contenders for world championship honors. Krauser, who is considered the acme of wrestling perfection, holds victories over practically every important heavyweight in the sport today, and is expected to give diminutive Ruffy the acid test of his entire career.

In the semi-windup, two of the trickiest and fastest matmen in the game will attempt to settle their score inside the allotted 30 minutes time limit. Crafty, sly, Oki Shikina, almond-eyed Jap-ju-jitsu expert, will combine his uncanny knowledge of nerve numbing torture holds of the Orient with all the tricks of the catch-as-catch-can, in a mighty effort to twist equally fast, and clever, Bert Rubi, Hungarian Olympic mat star into submission.

The supporting matches rival the windup and semi-windup in importance and should keep the fans tense with excitement during the early part of the evening. Tiny Abie Coleman who stands but little more than five feet in stature yet tips the beam at 210 pounds, goes up against "Darling" Dizzy Davis, prima donna of the sport, Coleman the originator of the "drop kick" is expected to knock the marcel out of Davis' hair. The other featured preliminary brings a newcomer to Lake county, Tuffy Cleet, of St. Louis who takes on Gorilla Grubmyer, "angel" faces throwback to prehistoric days.
