

Terse Tales of the Town

Which Concern Only You and Your Neighbor

BEE DROSTE, Society Editor

Otto Fisher Back

Mr. Otto Fisher, owner of Ermine Cleaners has returned to his home from the Highland Park hospital where he has been a patient for the past few weeks. He is getting along as well as can be expected.

Miss Margaret Shay and Miss Elizabeth Low, who are students at Smith College, Northampton, Mass. are motoring with three other students to Florida for their spring vacation.

Robert Lundin, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Lundin of 937 Lincoln avenue, has been pledged to Phi Mu Alpha, men's music honorary, at DePauw University, Greencastle, Indiana. The organization has as its purpose the advancement of music throughout the country and requires outstanding ability and active participation of its members in campus musical activities.

Miss Annette Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Roberts Jones, 272 Vine Ave., attended Senior Prom at Wellesley College March 21. Her escort was Mr. Emmett Robinson Jr., of Yale University.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Youngs and children Joan and Jean and Mrs. Young's mother, Mrs. Cottrell of Terra Haute, Indiana, were the week end guests of their relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Antone Johnson of Clifton Road.

Miss Gloria Jeanne Golden was the luncheon guest of Miss Marion Holmes of radio fame, on Saturday at the Old Spinning Wheel in Hindsdale.

Wallace "Goat" Glader and a buddy, Charles Fort of southern Illinois, who are stationed at Camp Grant, Rockford, Ill. were the week end guests of Goat's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Glader of S. Green Bay Rd.

Frederick T. Golden Jr. formerly connected with the Household Finance Corporation, is now with the General Finance Corporation.

Miss Margot Hartman of Pleasant St. entertained a few friends on Friday at a dinner party followed by bridge. The occasion was a birthday celebration. Miss Athel England of Chicago was the only out of town guest.

Mr. and Mrs. Irving T. Conrad and daughters Barbara and Beverly, who have been visiting their mother Mrs. M. H. Conrad for the past ten days, returned to their home in Glendale, Mo. on Sunday.

Mrs. Hilton Danner and her sister Miss Maulenhauer of Skokie, Ill. left this morning, Thursday for a month's sojourn to Miami, Florida.

The Musart Club will meet next Monday afternoon, March 31st, at two o'clock at the home of Mrs. Earl D. Fritsch. Mrs. Lisle R. Hawley who has been vacationing in Florida will be present to conduct the practice.

Mrs. John S. Wineman of Cary Avenue entertained twenty little friends of her son Johnson at a costume party last Sunday. The occasion was Johnson's 5th birthday anniversary. Cowboys, Aviators, Indians, little old fashioned girls with bussels, etc., were all present and enjoyed the moving pictures of Mickey Mouse and the delicious refreshments.

The Highland Park Garden Guild have an exhibit at the Chicago Flower show being held on Navy Pier this week. They will go in a body on Monday for luncheon and to hear the lectures to be given by Marc Leeds and Schiller McDonald.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. John Saranzak of Northbrook, on Saturday, March 22, at the Highland Park Hospital.

Little Carolyn Henshaw returned home on Saturday from the Evanston Hospital where she underwent an operation. She is getting along very nicely.

Mrs. Agnes Duffy of S. Second St., who has been ill for the past week is able to be around again.

The Stufey Smith Auxiliary of the American Legion are planning a Bingo party for April 15th, at the Labor Temple on North Avenue.

Dr. Justin Wroe Nixon of Rochester, New York, speaker at the Northwestern University Vesper Service last Sunday, was a guest of his brother Charles Nixon, in the Udell Building, over the week-end.

Dr. Nixon has recently appeared as chapel preacher at Cornell, Yale, Smith, Princeton and Mt. Holyoke, and will return to Chicago, Sunday, April 27th to speak at the University of Chicago Chapel. He is professor of Christian Ethics in Colgate-Rochester Divinity School and is the author of the recently published book "Protestantism's Hour of Decision," which discusses the Protestant's stake in democracy. His conviction is that in order to survive, both democracy and Protestantism must prove their dynamic quality in dealing with the problems let loose in our present world.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Jordan, Northbrook, at the Highland Park hospital, Wednesday, March 26.

Mrs. Saylor D. Shanefelt is a surgical patient at the Highland Park Hospital, where she underwent an appendectomy last Friday. She is getting along nicely.

Mrs. G. L. Vetter who has been ill at her home, 448 Lincoln Avenue for the past two weeks is able to be up and around.

The North Shore group of Alpha Chi Omega alumnae will meet Tuesday, April 1, at 1 o'clock for a bridge-luncheon at the home of Mrs. A. R. Millner, 5813 Nicolet St., Chicago. Assisting the hostess will be Mrs. Irving Gillick and Mrs. Lloyd Hood, both of Park Ridge.

Miss Beverly Frisbie has returned from Lake Erie College, Painesville, Ohio, to spend the spring vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Frisbie of 166 Lakeside Manor Rd.

Bob Ross, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Ross, 1413 Wildwood lane, won the heavyweight title at Princeton University boxing tournament, held last week. Ross is in his senior year.

William Harrison, a draftee better known as "Petie" among his close associates was entertained at a farewell buffet supper, Sunday evening. Fourteen relatives and friends attended the party. Harrison left Tuesday morning with twenty-eight other draftees from this district for induction in the U. S. Army.

Harvey A. Witten, a Highland Park decorator, who has been a patient in the Michael Reese hospital, Chicago, for the past eight weeks, returned to his home, 728 Central Avenue, Wednesday.

Mrs. L. L. Winters who has spent the past two and one-half months in Tucson, Arizona returned to her home on Laurel Avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Larson have returned to their home here after spending the past three weeks in California.

Mr. and Mrs. William Slater of Highland Park are the proud parents of a son, born to them at the Highland Park hospital, Wednesday, March 26.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jordan Spahr, 944 Ridgewood Drive, Highland Park, have returned to their home here after a short vacation spent in St. Petersburg and Miami, Florida, Augusta, Georgia, and Key West.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Berdett Thurlwell of Libertyville are the parents of a daughter, born Thursday, March 20 at the Highland Park Hospital.

A baby son is the cause of all the rejoicing at the Beach W. Aten home on Gage Lane, Lake Forest. The baby was born at the Highland Park Hospital on Tuesday, March 25.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Caldwell, 1806 Pleasant Avenue, Highland Park, are the proud parents of a baby girl born Sunday, March 23 at the Highland Park Hospital.

MORTGAGE LOANS

By the Direct Reduction Monthly Payment Plan

To Fit Your Individual Situation

INTEREST 5%

THE HIGHLAND PARK BUILDING LOAN & HOMESTEAD ASSOCIATION

21 North Sheridan Road, Highland Park Tel. H. P. 361
Safe Because Insured — Insured Because Safe

When You Go Away for a Month, a Week, or the Week-end — Save Trouble, Time and expense by leaving your pet in capable, experienced hands—

The Piethorne Kennels Boarding and Training School for Dogs

One mile west of Skokie Boulevard on West Park Avenue

RATES FROM SIXTY CENTS A DAY FOR ADULT, HEALTHY DOGS

Highland Park, Illinois
Telephone Highland Park 2967

