

Jerse Tales of the Town

Which Concern Only You and Your Neighbor

BEE DROSTE, Society Editor

Miss Ann Ostrowsky of Highland Park and Stephen J. Mestan Jr., of Chicago were married Saturday afternoon at 5 o'clock at the Redeemer Lutheran Church. The Rev. W. F. Suhr read the services before a group of relatives and friends of the young couple.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore an ivory satin gown with a full length train, and wore a tiara of seed pearls. Her bouquet was of white roses and gladioli.

The bride's attendants, her two sisters, Elizabeth and Emilie wore marquisette frocks of pink and blue, and wore tiaras of fresh pink and white sweet peas. They carried pink carnations and white stock. Mr. Mestan was attended by his brother, William.

A reception at Wilson's Cafe in North Chicago followed the ceremony, and was attended by 100 guests.

Mrs. Mestan was Miss Ann Ostrowsky, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Ostrowsky, 2616 West Park avenue. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Mestan, Lincolnville, Kansas.

The young couple will make their home in Chicago at 1049 Montana street.

A number of pre-nuptial parties and showers were given for the bride.

A group of Highland Park high school students, under the supervision of Miss Helen Beach, of the Beach Art studios, Ravinia, are on a ten day tour of part of the United States and Canada. The educational trip, which started Wednesday, will give the boys and girls an opportunity to study the lives of typical Americans, their social and housing problems, architecture, art and labor conditions.

Their program will include a tour through the Ford factory in Detroit; The Peace bridge into Canada; Niagara Falls; a sight seeing trip down the Hudson river shores, and the West Point Military academy. From the academy they will go to New York City, and live at the Waldorf hotel. They will also see Central Park, Times Square, the navy dock yards, Greenwich village, the Brooklyn slums, Baltimore, Md., Washington, D. C., a mining town near Pittsburgh, and a tour of the historical shrines in Philadelphia.

Celebrate Silver Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. David L. Welker were surprised Saturday night when 32 of their friends came in to help them celebrate their silver wedding anniversary. The Welkers live at 186 Edgecliffe drive, Highland Park.

Mr. Welker and his bride, the former Dessie Kirby of Goreville, Illinois, resided in Anna for 13 years before moving to Highland Park. They have two children, Robert and Lee.

Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Norman and son Kenneth of Zion and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Herr of Chicago spent the week-end in the home of Mr. and Mrs. David L. Welker.

Mrs. Ida Santi will entertain the Sewing Club at her home, 520 Ravinia Road, tonight.

A group of 50 young people of this city, headed by Miss Angelina Lamberti and Miss Marjorie Hudson, will have a party at the Deerfield bowling alley Saturday night. They have reserved all of the alleys for 10 o'clock for their bowling party and to dance.

Miss Shirley Hollenback of Highland Park attended a luncheon and shower Saturday at the home of Miss Mary Louise Weygant, 1018 North Sheridan Road, Waukegan. The party was in honor of Miss Bernyce Christensen, 604 Washington Park, who will become the bride of Richard Tidwell, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Julian Street Merigold have returned to their Park Avenue home after a vacation spent in Sarasota, Florida.

Mrs. James Parker, 1006 South Linden, entertained a number of guests at a bridge luncheon at her home Tuesday. Guests were from Hinsdale, South Shore Chicago, Wheaton and Glenn Ellen.

Mr. and Mrs. Malcom D. Vails, 190 Lakewood Place, have returned to their home after a month's vacation spent in Mexico.

August Ferch, of Phillips, Wisconsin is visiting his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ferch, 317 North avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. William J. Nelson, 1708 Broadview avenue are visiting relatives in Memphis, Tennessee.

Paul Borchardt, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Borchardt, 268 Walker avenue, celebrated his second birthday last Wednesday.

Mrs. M. J. Skala entertained eight guests at a luncheon and bridge party at her home in the Udell Building, Monday.

Mrs. Arthur Durand, 250 Lakewood place was the principal speaker at the Monday meeting of the Garden Club of the Evanston Junior League. The meeting was held in the home of Mrs. John Taylor, Jr., Kennilworth. She spoke about "Starting a Garden in the Spring."

Mrs. Chester Anderson, 205 High Street was hostess to the members of her five hundred club Thursday night. Prizes were won by Mrs. Everett Bellei, Mrs. C. C. Berube and Mrs. Charles Robinson.

Miss Ardis Martin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. K. Martin, 821 Ridgewood drive, has been elected president of her sorority, Alpha Delta Pi. Miss Martin attends the University of Iowa and is a Junior.

Mrs. George Miller, Bismark, Illinois is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Harold Young, 128 Prairie avenue.

Mrs. Howard Flinn, 417 Oakwood avenue is a patient in the Highland Park hospital.

Marjorie Ekemann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Max A. Ekemann, Jr., 438 Lincoln place is quarantined for scarlet fever.

Carol Henthorne, daughter of Mrs. Mildred Henthorne, 1014 Roslyn lane, entered the Lake county general hospital last Thursday as a medical patient. Carol is a freshman at the Highland Park high school.

Little Miss Marlene Sordyl celebrated her second birthday last Friday. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Sordyl, 520 McDaniel Avenue, Highland Park. Her favorite gift was a doll.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis B. Sinclair, 108 Dale Avenue spent the week-end in Indiana with their daughter, Mrs. Donald Teetor and her family.

Mr. and Mrs. R. K. O'Hara, 291 Cedar Avenue, are vacationing at French Lick Springs, Indiana.

General Robert E. Wood, 162 Laurel Avenue, Highland Park, is in New York and the east. Mrs. Wood, who is vacationing in her childhood home in Augusta, Georgia, will return to Highland Park the latter part of April. She has spent the winter in her old southern home where as Mary Hardwick, she spent many happy years.

Finest Meats

• All our meats are bought with only one thought in mind, that they must be the finest cuts and the choicest selection.

The Only Exclusive Meat Market in Highland Park

WE DELIVER

Bowden

Tel. H. P. 467
536 CENTRAL AVENUE
Highland Park

Beau-Brummel Stripes for Easter

$16⁹⁵

Step out in a suit for Easter . . . one of these! Suave long jacket man-tailoreds . . . soft suits, too! Wide choice. 12-20.

Others from $12.75 to $18.95

EASTER COATS . . $12.95 up

ACCESSORIES TO MATCH

KRUESLIN'S

APPAREL SHOP

544 Central Ave. H. P. 1072

