

Mrs. Faxon Closes Book Review Series

On Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock Mrs. Lloyd A. Faxon of Winnetka will present the last of her series of seven book reviews which the Women's Association of the Highland Park Presbyterian Church has been sponsoring.

This is the seventh year she has conducted these delightful afternoons, the programs having been given monthly from October to April, and it is with genuine regret her audience bids her farewell for this year. She has shown great versatility in her presentations has given fiction, biography, and plays and the program for Monday promises to be one of rare humor and will be sure to delight all who hear her.

Subscribers are requested to take advantage of any unused portions of their course tickets by inviting friends, and single admissions may be purchased at the door and all women in the community are invited and urged to come. At 2 o'clock on Monday, April 14th in the Parish House of the Presbyterian Church.

Creative Writers To Open Five Week Term On April 10

Easter greetings in the form of an original poem "Jonquil Gold" are in the mail to all former members of the North Shore Creative Writing group from Rowena Bennett, leader of these sessions meeting for their third year at the Highland Park Y. W.C.A. Former members who have been away for the winter months and new members who would like to see how these unusual Thursday manuscript mornings are conducted are invited to come for the five week term opening April 10. Mrs. Earl Gsell, representative of the writing project on the Highland Park Y.W. C.A. Board reported on this special five week session at the board meeting April 8.

Mrs. Bennett has been honored by the Friends of American Writers by being chosen to be their guest speaker at their monthly tea at the Chicago Athletic Club on Wednesday afternoon, April 9. Her subject will be "Writing for Children." Bertha Damen, author of the "Grandmother Called It Carnal" was the other April guest speaker before this group. Rowena Bennett will speak on April 18th at a library tea in Park Ridge on "The Voice of Poetry in the Din of Nations."

Mrs. Damon Gunn, an Eastern writer who has just moved to Winnetka is among the new members registered for the five week North Shore Creative Writing term. Mrs. Donald McGibeny of Lake Forest, wife of the radio commentator has verses in "Child Life" with "Junior Arts and Activities" magazines this month. Mrs. McGibeny is one of the most prolific writers in the class. Others, like Mrs. Frank Peyraud and Mrs. Harry Pier come as "creative listeners" to enjoy the exchange of ideas and the refreshing stimulus of these friendly Thursday mornings. Mrs. Wirt Wright and friends drive over from Libertyville so practically every north shore suburb is represented at the Highland Park Y.W. C.A. meetings. This activity was specially mentioned in the "Christian Science Monitor" write-up last week.

How Does Your House Look to the Joneses?

AN F.H.A. LOAN WOULD MAKE IT LOOK BETTER

You should be too proud to let your property run down. Also, a neglected house, sooner or later, means a damaged pocketbook.

With an F.H.A. Loan you could improve your house inside and outside, brighten the appearance of it, add to its comfort and to its resale value.

We shall be glad to discuss the matter with you.
