"I'm glad to hear that!"

• Good news that directly concerns you or your family usually comes by word of mouth, and very often by telephone—especially news of immediate personal interest.

Why is this so? . . . Simply because telephoning today is so EASY, and the service so QUICK, so CHEAP in price. Then, too, the telephone provides you with the opportunity for two-way visits—sends and receives news in one operation.

So, when you have news for some one, tell it by telephone! . . . Our customers make a daily average of 7,023,000 individual calls. And we try to handle every one as if it brought an urgent message of utmost importance. . . . Illinois Bell Telephone Company.
