

Loewenstein-Nathan Wedding Last Friday

Miss Josephine Loewenstein, daughter of William Loewenstein, 354 Marshman avenue, became the bride of Robert C. Nathan, at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Claude R. Nathan, 333 Moraine Road, Friday afternoon. The ceremony was performed at 4:30 by Rabbi Shuulman, in the presence of 125 relatives and friends.

The bride wore the wedding gown that her grandmother Heyman wore at her wedding 53 years ago. She carried white orchids and sweet peas.

Her attendants, Miss Louise Nathan, sister of the groom, Miss Elaine Marks, Miss Katherine Weinberg, Highland Park and Mrs. Schwab of Boston, wore frocks of blue, fashioned of blue net with the same shade of blue silk redingotes. Their flowers were roses and carnations of pink shading into rose.

Tom Nathan served his brother as best man. The ushers were George Bahr, Frank Rothchild and Joe Nathan.

For her son's wedding, Mrs. Nathan, wore a beige afternoon dress with navy accessories, and wore a corsage of orchids.

After the ceremony a reception was held. The young couple are now honeymooning in New Mexico. On their return they will live on their farm, west of Lake Bluff.

Miss Loewenstein attended Santa Fe in New Mexico and was graduated from Randolph Macon, Virginia, last spring.

Mr. Nathan attended Country day school and college in Wisconsin. He is connected with a drug manufacturing concern in Chicago.

Miss Jane Peschman, daughter of Mrs. Rudolph J. Peschman, 688 Central avenue, and Chester Skidmore, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Skidmore were married at 4:30 Saturday afternoon in the home of Dr. Louis Sherwin, of the Presbyterian Church.

The bride wore a poudre blue suit and hat, with accessories of luggage brown. Her flowers were gardenias. Mrs. Calvin Gartley, Lake Forest, sister of the groom, and Mrs. Skidmore's only attendant, wore a beige frock with brown accessories. Mr. Gartley was best man.

A dinner party for the members of the two families followed the ceremony at the Union Hotel, Wheeling. A reception was given for the young couple later in the evening at the home of the grooms parents, 332 North St. Johns avenue.

The Skidmore's, after a brief honeymoon, are now at home in Lake Forest, with the Gartleys.

Mrs. Gilbert K. Hardacre, 1019 Marion avenue, was elected president of the Ravinia Woman's club Wednesday afternoon, at the monthly meeting held in the Ravinia Village house.

Other officers chosen were Mrs. Fred E. Law, Vice President, and Mrs. Albert M. Anderson, corresponding secretary. In the absence of Mrs. Arvid B. Tanners, retiring president, the new officers will be installed in May by Mrs. Albert J. Bushey, retiring vice president.

Clark G. Kuebler, professor of ancient languages of Northwestern University was the guest speaker. His subject was "Democracy and Education."

Eleanor Niffeneger, Ashley Thomas Wed

Miss Eleanor Mary Niffeneger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Niffeneger, South Haven, Mich., and Ashley Thomas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Thomas, 603 Glenview avenue, were married at the First Presbyterian church, Detroit. Dr. Frederick Olert performed the ceremony.

Miss Grace Lawrence and Gilbert Shroeder, both of Detroit were the only attendants. A reception was held in the church social rooms last Sunday.

The bride, a nurse in one of the Detroit hospitals, will continue her work, until her young husband, who was inducted into the army today, is settled at some post.

Mr. Thomas was connected with the Pennsylvania Railroad's Chicago office, until his military call.

The monthly meeting of the Highland Park Auxiliary of the Cradle was held Monday afternoon at the Cradle in Evanston. After the luncheon, Mrs. William B. Balrath, managing director of the nursery, led the group in a round-table discussion.

The local chapter celebrated its second birthday last Thursday by donating $100 to the cradle calendar. Mrs. Hugh Wilson, president of the local chapter entertained the chapter at her home, 250 Park Ave., Tuesday and the following newly-elected board took office at that time: Mrs. Frank Hough, vice president; Mrs. John Snite, recording secretary; Mrs. J. K. Tyson, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Hardin Master, treasurer; Mrs. Harding Wilbur, switchboard chairman; Mrs. Robert Cross, receptionist chairman and Crs. Fred Tuerk, membership chairman.

Mrs. Herbert P. Beers, 335 Vine avenue and Mrs. Thomas McEwen, 448 Naida terrace, have returned to their homes here after spending a vacation in Florida.

Kemper Diehl To Wed Milwaukee Girl May 3

Mrs. Evva Truax, 300 Egandale road, has received word that Kemper Diehl, of San Antonio, Texas, and formerly of Highland Park, is to be married to Miss Suzanne Farmer, of Milwaukee, on May 3. The ceremony will be performed at Madison, Wisconsin, where the young people met while attending school.

Mr. Diehl's grandparents, Col. and Mrs. Charles Diehl, are former Highland Parkers. The young man expects to be drafted the latter part of May.

In the letter to Mrs. Truax, he said that he expected to be here in Highland Park for a few days this next week, before going to Madison.

Jack Chapman, 10 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Chapman, 2419 Old Briar road, was bitten last Friday by the dog owned by T. H. Maddock, 515 Westview road. The dog is now in the kennel for examination. Jackie was not seriously hurt.
