

Present Musicale at Community Center

George R. Jones and Group To Give Program Sunday Afternoon

At the Community Center on Sunday, April 27, at 4 o'clock, Mr. George R. Jones and some of his friends will present a program of string quartet music.

For many years Mr. Jones has had a quartet meeting each week at his home. This group will share some of their favorite numbers with the public on this occasion. The personnel of the quartet will be as usual, except that Mrs. Jack Spachner will not be here to take the second violin. Mr. Jones will take her place, while Mrs. Arthur Hand will play the viola part which is usually his. First violin will be taken by Mr. Henry Selinger, formerly with the Chicago Symphony orchestra and the Gordon quartet. The cello part will be played by Mrs. Eugene Engelhard.

The program will include a Hadyn quartet, one movement from a Beethoven C Minor quartet, and a group of smaller numbers.

Following the program will be community singing, and tea will be served. All music lovers in the community are welcome.

Mother-Daughter Banquet at Y.W.C.A.

Parents all over the country are joining with girls in observance of the 60th Anniversary of Younger Girls' work in the Y.W.C.A. On Saturday, April 26, at 6 p.m., the Highland Park Y.W.C.A. will have a Mothers-Daughter banquet as part of this nationwide observance. Mothers and girls have worked together to make the event a success.

The Y.W.C.A. is an unusual organization in that its membership includes both adults and girls, which has been described by Grace Loucks Elliott, national president, as "our youth-adult partnership." Girls are younger member of the Y.W.C.A. and are just as important a part of the organization as its older and more experienced women. In the Y.W.C.A., girls have the benefit of the experience, understanding and guidance of mature women and still are free to think and act for themselves and to make their own contribution to the organization.

Mrs. Earl Gsell, member of the Y.W.C.A. board will speak on Y.W.C.A. Work with Younger Girls, and members of the Toppers club will model spring fashions from Garnett's department store. Patsy Haynes and Marion Sanford are assisting the girls with the Style Show. The program will also include a greeting to mothers by Geraldine Brown, president of the Toppers club and a recitation by Betty Arnsward of the Jolly Times club. Eleanor Mailfald will be toastmistress for the evening's program.

Rose Ann Gerhardt is in charge of invitations; Irene Gerkin, wardrobe mistress; Mary Fink and Rose Mary Berube, co-chairmen in charge of decorating and setting the tables, Paulette Jensby, chairman of the song committee; and Wilma Gerkin is hostess committee chairman.

Arbor Day Tree Planting

Students of Elm Place school—including Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, and Cub Scouts—witness tree planting ceremony. In the upper picture is Mr. R. H. Rice, and Bert Leech of the school personnel. The tree being planted in this picture was presented by the Scouts. In the lower picture a tree, presented by the Highland Park Men's Garden Club, is being planted by Clavey's nurseries.

Spring Rummage Sale Of Trinity Groups To Be Held May 23

The Trinity Guild and Woman's auxiliary of the Trinity Episcopal church of Highland Park are holding their annual mammoth spring rummage sale on Friday and Saturday, May 2 and 3 at the parish house on Laurel avenue. There will be the usual departments of men's, women's and infant's clothing, shoes, millinery, accessories, toys, books, household and furniture and the treasure room. Mrs. Frank Blake, Mrs. Emory Curtis, Mrs. Vallee Appel and Mrs. C. W. Haupt, the committee in charge, have been very busy collecting articles since last fall and to all indications the merchandise to be offered will be unprecedented in both quality and values. As this sale is always a very popular one it is advisable to attend early in order to make the best selections. Doors will open promptly at 9 a.m.

Mrs. John A. Riggio, 1252 Pleasant avenue returned home from LaSalle, Ill., where she attended the wedding of her sister, Dolores Jean Costa to Charles Baranteo of Spring Valley, Illinois.

Swing Club Will Close Season with Formal Guest Ball

"Swing Club" sponsored by the Highland Park Woman's club for high school, sophomores, juniors and seniors along the north shore is ending its most successful season since its beginning five years ago, with a formal guest night on April 26.

The dances are given in the beautiful ballroom of the clubhouse and a committee of women send out invitations to those interested all along the north shore, plan the dances, arrange for refreshments, hosts and hostesses. Mrs. Curtis Scheunemann is chairman of the dances this year and Mrs. C. Osborne Frisbie in charge of refreshments.

At this final ball, members will dance to the music of Bill Jakes and his orchestra. Master of ceremonies, Mr. Warner Turriff, has planned special entertainment for the intermission. Members are permitted to bring guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert W. Holding, South St. Johns avenue, are the proud parents of a son, born at the Highland Park hospital, April 17.
