LOUISE LEONARDI
WEDS MAY 3

Mrs. Maria Leonardi, 316 Railway avenue, Highwood, has announced the engagement of her daughter Louise Marie to David L. Perry of Pontiac, Michigan. The wedding will be solemnized at the St. James rectory at 10 o'clock Saturday morning, May 3. The attendants will be Miss Marie Leonardi, sister of the bride elect and Amedo Santi, Jr.

Miss Leonardi is employed in her brother, John Leonardi's, real estate office.

The groom is employed in Pontiac, Michigan, where they will reside.

C. A. R. STATE MEETING

There will be representatives from 17 Illinois chapters of the Children of the American Revolution at the state meeting to be held at the Highland Park Community Center at 10 o'clock, May 3.

Daniel Cobb will present "A Ballad for Americans" in the afternoon, which will be followed by a conducted tour of Great Lakes and a tea in the home of Mrs. Gordon Buchanan, 240 Moraine road.

MISS LIEBENSTEIN
WEDS

Miss Mary Louise Liebenstein, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold E. Liebenstein, 48 Sunset road, became the bride of Glenn Seidenfeld, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold E. Seidenfeld, 941 North avenue, Waukegan, Thursday. The ceremony was performed by Rabbi Solomon Jacobson, in the Chicago Belden-Stratford hotel, with the members of the immediate families as witnesses.

The bride, a graduate of Carlton college, wore a beige frock and a spray of green orchids.

After a brief honeymoon in French Lick, Indiana, the couple will live in Waukegan, where Mr. Seidenfeld is a practicing attorney.

HONORED ON BIRTHDAY

Mrs. Olivia Giannasi, 125 Maple avenue, was pleasantly surprised Friday night when a group of friends met at the home of Mrs. Mary Cameniti, High street, to celebrate her birthday. Mrs. Clara Tosi was co-hostess. Present were Mrs. Sam Somenzi, Mrs. Peter Andreotti, Mrs. Oresto Baldi, Miss Mary Ori, Mrs. I. Turelli, Mrs. Lucia Ori, Mrs. Antonette Cassolari, Mrs. D. Lucchi, Mrs. Aldina Minorini, and Mrs. C. Lamberti.

Miss Lois Thorson, a student in the Evanston hospital training school, spent Easter with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Thorson, North avenue.

Mrs. Rita Lelli of Mt. Clare, Ill., visited in the home of her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Emil Lauridsen, 347 North avenue, over the Easter holiday.

SEEING EYE TEA

General Robert E. Wood and Mrs. Wood and their daughter Mrs. Wood Tullis, entertained Morris Frank, Morristown, N. J., and his famous guide dog "Buddy." Mr. Frank was the first man in America to use the seeing eye dog, and is now attending the Chicago meeting of Seeing eye groups. Henry A. Colgate, president of the Seeing Eye, and Mrs. Colgate were also honor guests at the tea.

The committee is aiming for a thousand new members to support this work. Among the vice-chairmen are Mrs. Jerome P. Bowers Jr., and Mrs. Edward P. Weils of Highland Park.

Mrs. Wood Tullis and Mrs. Potter Palmer III headed the meeting held at the Blackstone last Friday.

HONEYMOON
IN EAST

Miss Joeine Norcott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Osborn Marshall Norcott, Chicago, and Walter Gradle Jr., son of the Sr. Gradles, 318 Egandale road, were married Saturday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents. The Rev. Daniel J. Murray read the services in the presence of the immediate families.

The bride wore a white silk jersey gown, with a full length veil, and carried a bouquet of gardenias and stephanotis. Miss Lucia Dixon, the only attendant, wore a peach moire frock and carried iris. The groom's father served him as best man.

In addition to the parents of the young couple, Mr. and Mrs. Frank G. Hough, 646 Waverly road, sister of the groom, also attended the wedding, and the large reception following at the Ambassador East hotel.

Mr. Gradle and his bride are now honeymooning in South Carolina and the East. They will live on the north side.
