Blackhawk Society Delegates Return From Washington

Members of the Blackhawk society who attended the 46th annual convention of the C. A. R. held at Washington, D. C., April 18-21, report a very large attendance at the conference. Those attending were Mrs. Mary Helmold, senior president Blackhawk society; Marie Helmold, secretary; Miss Barbara Patterson, past junior president of Blackhawk society and national vice-president, and David Maley who served as national color bearer to the convention. Plans are now being completed for the Illinois convention which will be held in Highland Park soon.

Marc Leeds Will Address Garden Guild on May 19

The Highland Park Garden guild is presenting Mr. Marc Leeds in a lecture at the Highland Park Community Center on Monday, May 19, at 2 p.m.

The subject of Mr. Leeds' lecture will be "What To Do with Your Flowers." He will show different arrangements in various containers. Mr. Leeds' talk not only will be of practical benefit to all who hear him but also of great interest, for he is a well known artist in flower arrangement. His lecture at the recent Garden show at the Navy Pier was most enjoyable and instructive.

Tickets may be obtained by calling the chairman, Mrs. Ralph M. Cleary, Highland Park 1950, or Mrs. Robert B. Mahan, co-chairman, Highland Park 3020.

Mrs. A. S. Burdick has returned from Florida where she spent the past two months.

Local Educators To Attend Regional Conference April 25-26

Three Highland Park educators will be among the more than 100 participants in the regional conference of the Progressive Education association which is to be held on the Evanston campus of Northwestern university Friday and Saturday, April 25 and 26.

The program will be built around the general topic "Modern Education for Today's Children," and will include four general lessons, two sets of small-group discussion meetings, and a luncheon.

More than 1,000 school teachers and administrators from the middle west are expected to attend the meeting. Schools in a number of north and west suburbs of Chicago will close at noon Friday so that teachers may attend the entire conference.

R. H. Price, superintendent of schools in District 107, will act as chairman of a meeting on "Emotional Development in the Schools," Elizabeth Bredin of Highland Park high school will take part in a discussion of "Education for Democratic Citizenship," and W. Borg of the public schools will speak at a meeting on "The Industrial Arts."

Present "Hullabaloo" At Bethany April 29

The play entitled "Halabaloo" which was presented at eBethany church the latter part of February will be repeated on Tuesday, April 29, 8:00 p.m. Many requests have come for an encho. Those who have not seen this play will want to be present for an evening of fun. Many who saw it before will want to come and laugh again.

"Strawberry Blonde" On Alcyon Program

"The Strawberry Blonde," which is scheduled to screen at the Alcyon on Friday, Saturday, Sunday, Monday, is just the gala fun fest you've been waiting for to chase the blues away. The jolliest show this side of the naughty nineties, this comedy has the warmth and color that made these gay nineties so gay, and you won't want to miss it. There's James Cagney as the bad boy of the nineties and Olivia DeHavilland to play the kind of girl your mother was, and the luscious siren, Rita Hayworth playing the naughty, but oh, so lovable, Strawberry Blonde.

Audiences will look deep into the heart of boyhood in "The Penalty," dramatic story which presents a gripping human document. The film based on Martin Berkeley's New York stage hit, features Edward Arnold, Lionel Barrymore and Marsha Hunt. An Alcyon attraction for Wednesday and Thursday along with Daniel O Keefe and Florence Rice in "Mr. District Attorney."
