

TEEN TALK

By Tommie

Donna Jean Greene and Pat Haynes each a scholarship for next year. Donna Jean's was awarded by the Rockford college for her outstanding work in math and Pat's is to Mills. Nice goin' kids.

It was so unfortunate to have the time jump up on us last week-end. It meant getting home an hour later and getting up an hour earlier. That blue Monday mornin' certainly showed the effects.

It seems the baby haircut seize hit the Wallis family with a bang! Betty and Wini had their long tresses cut very short and both look real cute.

One Alix Piere has become the victim of a lostbet. Luise finished the sweater, Primo's wearing it and Alix is still perplexed.

We've heard that student council convention in Springfield last week was really fun, especially the dance at the school after the conference.

Gloria Linari will be home again this week. She's on a singing tour through many nearby states. It certainly is super to be able to have the experience, but oh—the work to make up after missing four weeks.

Jane Barr and Jane Scarbrough entered their history class late the other day. Says Mr. Stephens, "Oh, oh, here comes the aristocracy now." It must have been embarrassing for the girls who wore their summer dirndles the other day to look out the window and find it snowing!

Wasn't it nice to see Edith Norvik back in school again? Having pneumonia is no fun!

Jeanne Becker had a little difficulty trying to hold on to her golf club in gym Monday. When she looked up to follow the ball she found the club had gone just as fast and far.

Have you seen Shirlee Bartlett's new convertible? It's really something to be mighty proud of.

Now that the first of May has come, it has the seniors really thinking as to how they can get a job and be excused from school the last month. Oh, but think of the fun they'll miss that last two weeks.

Graduation has really started Gerry Golden thinking. With only six weeks left, she's getting pretty worried. Well?

Firemen Respond To Central Ave. Fire— But Where Was It?

The firebells rang and fire trucks were driving all over town late Tuesday afternoon looking for a fire about 5 o'clock. Someone, in his haste to report the fire, failed to mention that the fire at 226 Central avenue was in Highwood and not in Highland Park. Even though your house is on fire, please give your address correctly, or the firemen, trying to find you, can't be held responsible if your property burns down, because they didn't get there in time.
