Moraine Hotel Notes

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Carroll will spend the week-end at Moraine on the Lake, so that they might be near their son who is an inductee at Fort Sheridan. Mr. Carroll is president of the Indiana Bell Telephone company.

Mr. and Mrs. Rex. Rothbun, formerly of 132 Winnetka avenue, Kenilworth, are at Moraine on the Lake until their new home west of here is completed.

Mrs. Lionel J. Haas, Moraine road, will spend the summer at Moraine on the Lake. Mrs. Haas spent the winter at the Orrington in Evanston.

Girl Scout Notes

The Highland Park Brownies will have a tea for their mothers May 8 after school at the Braeside school auditorium. Members of all troops, Lincoln, Braeside and Ravinia, will participate in the program. Members of the Girl Scout Council will pour.

The Highland Park Girl Scouts will have a Hawaiian program at the public library at four o'clock May 9. Mrs. Edward E. Burwell will show colored motion pictures. Mrs. Gordon Buchanan Jr. is in charge of the program.

The Leaders association of the Girl Scouts association will have a luncheon on May 6, at the Open House Tea room.

The Ravinia school troop 2 members will give a "boy and girl" party May 9. Mrs. H. Bowen Stair, leader of the troop is in charge of the arrangements. The dance will be given at the Community Center at 7:30, and a number of Highland Park boys have been invited.

Lincoln school troop, of which Mrs. George M. Webster is assistant leader, will have a boy and "girl party" sometime in May.

A leader training course is now in progress with meetings being held each Monday at 9:30 a.m. in the Highland Park Community Center. Miss Eleanor Schmitt, Highland Park Girl Scout director is in charge of these classes.

VICTORY WORK SHOP
HOLD ROUND TABLE

The annual meeting of the Victory Workshop will be held at 12 o'clock Friday, May 9, at the Standard club. Following the business meeting there will be a round table discussion on "Problems of the Handicapped." A group of experts will participate; Mrs. Amelia Baker, district director of Division of Community service programs for WPA; Mr. Clarence W. Kehoe, state supervisor, Division of Rehabilitation; Miss Elizabeth Robertson, art supervisor, Chicago board of education; Mr. Lawrence J. Linck, Illinois Commission for Physically Handicapped children, and Mr. James B. Hamlin, supervisor of Special Services, Illinois State Employment Service.

The Victory Workshop is a non-sectarian organization which helps support and train deafened young people in cooperation with the board of education and WPA. The shop is located in the Haven School, 1481 Wabash avenue and the handwork of these students is on display there.

The Cornell Chapter of Scabbard and Balde, national undergraduate honorary military society, recently elected 49 new members. Among them is: Peter M. Wolff, '42 College of Administrative Engineering, who lives in Highland Park at 1300 Wade street.

Fort Sheridan

Technical Sergt. Stanley Kierzek and Mrs. Kitzek were transferred from Fort Sheridan to Fort Bragg, N. C. The Kitzeks left Wednesday. The sergeant has been in the quartermaster corps at Fort Sheridan for the past 18 years, and will serve in the same capacity at his new post.

Classes in auto mechanics and Spanish are being held at Fort Sheridan under the supervision of Arthur Thurston, Highland Park high school teacher. Dana Corrough, Highland Park, is instructor for the Spanish classes, held Monday and Wednesday. More classes will be offered as soon as more space is available.

Captain and Mrs. Harlan G. Fairchild and daughter, Lynn, who have been stationed at Camp McCoy, Sparta, Wis., are now at Fort Sheridan, where Capt. Fairchild has command of Headquarters Company F, of the 50th signal battalion.
