

High School Final Concert Is Brilliant Performance Sunday

More than 500 persons heard young Andrew Jacobs, Jr., guest pianist, in a brilliant performance, at the final concert of the season of the high school music department. The orchestra, under the direction of Harold N. Finch and the chorus, under the directorship of W. Aschenbrenner, presented a fine musical program. Miss Marian Berg, soprano soloist, sang "Oh Lord Most Holy" (Franck) and "Listen to the Lambs" (Dett).

A string quartet made up of Highland Park musicians presented a program during the musical. The quartet is composed of George R. Jones, Henry Selinger, Mrs. Eugene Engelhard and Mrs. Arthur Hand. Mr. Jones is the leader of this group.

Mrs. Arthur Byfield lead in the community sing. Tea was served.

Highwood Socials

MARY PERDRUCCI TO WED

Mr. and Mrs. Aldo Perdrucci, 121 High street, Highwood, announce the approaching marriage of their daughter Mary, to Mondo Lenzini, son of Mr. and Mrs. Batista Lenzini, 36 Prairie avenue, on May 17.

A number of relatives and friends honored Miss Perdrucci at a miscellaneous shower Monday night at St. James parish. Hostesses were Mmes. Fazina Grandi, Elga Grandi, Rena Monfardini, Rena Ramazzini, Dina Ramazzini, eBtty Carzoli, Clara Lenzini and Virginia Gherardini.

OBSERVE ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Shapiro, 152 Highwood avenue, Highwood, entertained more than 50 guests at their home Sunday, in celebration of their 26th wedding anniversary. They were married in Waukegan, and have lived in Highwood since 1918. Mr. Shapiro operates a dry goods store there. They have three sons, Beryl and Jack, students at Northwestern university and Robert, age six.

Mr. and Mrs. William Luebke, 36 Prairie avenue, Highwood, entertained the following guests Sunday: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Neumann, Detroit; Mr. and Mrs. William Frankovic, Miss LaVerne Stan, Milwaukee; Mr. and Mrs. George O'Connell and son, and James Finnegan, Chicago.

Mrs. Ted Benvenuti, 433 Funston avenue, entertained her sewing circle Thursday night.

Miss Barbara Dillon and Graham Wilkin of Chicago visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Schetz, 205 High street, Sunday.

Joseph Nelson, North Western road agent at Highwood for the past 20 years, has been appointed agent at Waukegan. He succeeds John F. Becker who is resigning.

Mrs. Margaret Duchane, 242 Sheridan road, Highwood, is a surgical patient at St. Therese hospital, Waukegan.

MISS LEONARDI FETED

Miss Louise Leonard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Santi Leonard, 316

Scouts Troop 37 Wins "A" Rating

Boy Scout Troop 37 of Highwood won "A" rating in the regional first aid contest held Saturday in Chicago. Those pictured above are Robert O'Brien, Eugene Hainchek, Leroy Youngs, Henry Kusher, Leonard Favelli, patient Michael Diasparra.

400 Attend Banquet Of Modenese Society

Over four hundred members and friends of the Modenese Mutual Aid society attended the 35th annual banquet of this society held Sunday afternoon, April 27th in Labor Temple. This organization was begun thirty-five years ago, by a group of about seventeen men, headed by Carlo Carani, who served as its first president.

Car Stolen

Paul Beyer, 1722 Broadview avenue, reported to the Highland Park police Monday night, that his car had been stolen from the Pagoda in Highwood.

Car Found

Jack Wittens' car which was stolen Friday in Highland Park has been recovered by Chicago authorities.

Break Into Office

Burglars broke into the realty firm of Hill & Stone, 372 Central avenue, Monday but got nothing. Entry was gained by breaking a window.

Mrs. Sydney G. McAllister is the leader of the women members of the Deere Park association who are planning a flower planting project in Deere Park.

Mrs. John Meyer has been appointed chairman of the Ravinia Garden Fair day to be held Saturday, May 24 from 9 to 4 in Ravinia Village Park. Mrs. R. A. Bryant is co-chairman of the day.

The first meeting of the committee chairmen was held at the home of Mr. Meyer this week.

Railway avenue, Highwood, was honored at a miscellaneous shower Wednesday night. The party, given at St. James Parish hall, was attended by 75 relatives and friends. Hostesses were Miss Mary Santi and Mmes. Inez Mordini, Aldina Milnorini, Dina Santi, Esther Cortesi, Casper Santi, Rose Bernardi, Madalena Sini, Dini DeBartola, Gabriel Leonard and Nancy Palandrini. Miss Leonard and David Perry of Detroit, will be married on May 3.

Mrs. Thomas Morton, Former Resident, Dies

Friends have received word of the death of Mrs. Thomas Morton of San Anselmo, California, former Highland Park woman. She passed away at her home April 10. The Mortons left here about thirteen years ago. Mr. Morton, at one time, was the owner of the North Shore Lumber company.

Ernest Heinz Buried

Ernest Heinz, 63, of 1916 Hiawatha Trail, died at the Highland Park hospital, Thursday morning, after a long illness. Mr. Heinz was a gardener, and had lived in Highland Park for nine years.

Surviving are his wife Johanna; three daughters, Mrs. Elizabeth Wieder, Mrs. Marion Dixheimer and Irma Heinz; a brother Henry, and four sisters, Mrs. Margaret Lorenz, Mrs. Minnie Aindle, Mrs. Katie Rieger and Mrs. Marie Kreutzinger.

Services were held at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon at the Kelley Chapel, 27 North Sheridan road. Burial was private.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Quinlan and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McKillip and Miss Helen M. Morrison of Warren, Ohio, left Monday on a five months vacation to Mexico and Central America.

Carroll Binder—

(Continued from page 1)

News, he is separating truth from propaganda in world affairs, piecing together isolated reports and seemingly unrelated developments—in short, handling news which is yet to explode.

His job is to know the trend of events, long before the layman is aware that a change is taking place, to point out that trend and make its meaning clear to the minds of American readers. Audiences everywhere listen eagerly whenever Carroll finds time to talk.

A cordial invitation is extended to everyone to attend Carroll Binder's talk. Tickets are on sale at Gsell's Drug Stores in Highland Park and Ravinia, or may be obtained by calling Mrs. Leslie R. Gage, H. P. 4163. The lecture is scheduled for 8:00 p.m., Tuesday, May 6.

Scout Troop 37 Wins "A" Rating

An "A" rating was received by the first aid team of Boy Scout Troop 37, Highwood, in the regional first aid contest held Saturday in the 132nd regiment armory in Chicago.

Of the four North Shore Area Council teams which qualified for the regional meet, Troop 37 team was the only one attaining an "A" rating. 182 first aid teams from Wisconsin, Illinois, Michigan and Indiana were competing in the meet.

Lloyd Moon is scoutmaster of Troop 37, which is sponsored by the Stupey-Smith post of the American Legion. Evan Dever was the coach of this team whose members consisted of: Henry Kusher, Leroy Youngs, Eugene Hainchek, Leonard Favelli and Robert O'Brien. Mike Diasparra and Walter Burkhardt were patients.

Having achieved the highest rating possible in the final contest the team will not be allowed to participate in next year's contest. This is the second consecutive year that Troop 37 has had a topnotch team in the regional meet.

SCARLETT'S WIN; GOFFO ROLLS 717

Scarlett's team of the Business Men's League of Highland Park won first place in the sixth annual Northwestern suburban handicap bowling tournament, held on April 19-20 and 26-27, at Glenview. They rolled a score of 3320 pins.

Frank Goffo, high man on the team, had the rare pleasure of rolling the sensational score of 717 for three games. Marshall Fredericks proved to be no slouch with his 652 pins. Scarlett's boys really had the pressure on. Larry Dresser got 566 pins, Gus Klemp 651 and William Straub, 528.

MRS. DOTY RITES

Mrs. Filena Moore Doty, 66, wife of Henry H. Doty, passed away at her home, 347 Central avenue, Thursday night. She had been a resident of Highland Park for more than 40 years. She leaves her husband, one son, Fairchild of this city and a daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Evans, Savannah, Georgia.

Private services were held at 3:30 Saturday afternoon at the Kelly chapel, 27 North Sheridan road.

Rev. Harvey Siemsen—

(Continued from page 1)

ship of 510 and it is one of the influential congregations in Freeport.

Succeeding Mr. Siemsen will be the Rev. L. H. Laubenstein, pastor of the First Evangelical church of Oak Park.

It is with deep regret that the Highland Park Press announces Rev. emselS sn't-OESf- shrd shr Rev. Siemsen's transfer from this community. He was not only interested in the work of his church, but stood behind every civic movement for the betterment of his community. We join his many friends in wishing him the greatest of success in his new environment.

According to present plans Rev. and Mrs. Siemsen and family will leave Highland Park on the seventh and Rev. and Mrs. Laubenstein will move in either on the 7th or the 8th. Rev. Seimsen will preach his final sermon at Bethany next Sunday at eleven o'clock.