

Rev. L. Laubenstein Comes To Bethany

New Minister and Family Arrive Friday; Spent 11 Years in Oak Park

Rev. and Mrs. Lester H. Laubenstein, formerly of Oak Park, Ill., are moving into Highland Park Friday to take over the leadership of the Bethany Evangelical church of this city. Rev. Laubenstein will preach his first sermon next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. The new minister has just concluded 11 years of successful work in the parish from which he comes.

Mr. Laubenstein is a "Badger" by birth. He was born near Fredonia, Wis., and spent most of his childhood and youth in Port Washington where he graduated from high school. After his work in high school he taught in a rural school for a period of two years. He then entered North Central college, and graduated with a Bachelor of Arts Degree. Later he graduated from the Evangelical Seminary in the same city receiving his B.D. Since that time he has taken post graduate work at Northwestern university, Presbyterian Theological seminary and Garrett Biblical institute. His college course was interrupted by military service during the time of the world war when he served in the medical detachment of the 311 Ammunition train in the Black Hawk division, both in the states and in France.

Rev. Laubenstein has served in the following congregations during the years of his ministry: Zion Evangelical church at Beaver Dam-Wis.; Trinity at Elk Mound, Wis.; Second Church, Chicago, and since 1930 the First Evangelical church of Oak Park.

Mr. Laubenstein has not only been a good leader in the church from which he comes, he has likewise been identified with many community interests and holds a number of responsible positions in the state and national organizations of the Evangelical church. He has been president of the Oak Park and River Forest Ministerial association; president of the Lowell Parent-Teacher's association, and vice-president of the Community Council of Week Day Religious education. In the Evangelical church he has charge of the student work at the various colleges and universities. He is a member of the board of trustees of the Evangelical Seminary in Naperville. He also is secretary-treasurer of the benevolent fund of the Illinois conference.

Mrs. Laubenstein is also a rad-

Ravinia School Prepares Concert

The following students will appear in a spring concert to be given at Ravinia School on May 18th. Reading from left to right, top row, Jaan Van Bergen, Hattie Harrington, Cynthia Stokes, Charlotte Stone, Sue Sheridan and Nancy Holt. Second row: Delora Scheemeacker, Betty Kerber, Frances Grimes, Mary McClure, Jane Straub, Ruth Thompson, Barbara Mills. First row: Betty Loeb, Jane Meyerhoff, Gegee Frisbie, Marji Johnson, Alice Rossiter, Barbara Pierce, Jean Easton.

ROTARY CLUB WILL SPONSOR CITY-WIDE HOBBY SHOW MAY 17

A hobby show for boys and girls of Highland Park and Highwood will be held Saturday, May 17, at the Community Center. This is the annual show which has been held late in the spring for several years, under the sponsorship of the Rotary club of Highland Park. The number of exhibits has increased each year, there being about 125 exhibits on display last year.

Hobbies included model airplanes, model trains, handicraft, figurines, stamps, photography, electricity, horsemanship, scrap books, magic, writing, and many others, a great variety of collections being included.

Boys and girls who may be interested will receive notices soon, through the schools, and can send the application blanks for listings. There is no charge for entry, and prize ribbons are awarded late Saturday afternoon. Grown-ups will enjoy viewing the exhibits and will be surprised at the variety and excellence the hobby show demonstrates.

NEW ADULT CLASS IN SPANISH OPENS

Additional to the different Free Adult classes in Spanish taking place now at the Highland Park Public library, one for absolute beginners will start Monday, May 12, from 10:30 to 11:45 a.m., and will continue every Monday thereafter at the same time.

Gaston Aillaud, an experienced teacher, is in charge.

uate of North Central college and has taken work at the Evangelical Theological seminary.

The Laubenstein's have no family. In 1937 they were unfortunate in losing unexpectedly their only child, Lester Jr., at the age of eight years.

The new pastor and wife take up their work with a great deal of anticipation, looking forward to becoming acquainted with the members and friends of the parish.—Contributed by Rev. H. F. Siemsen.

MRS. ELY M. AARON TO ADDRESS CHICAGO WELLESLEY CLUB MAY 10

Mrs. Ely M. Aaron of Highland Park will be the speaker at the May breakfast and annual meeting of the Chicago Wellesley club on Saturday, May 10, at 11:30 at the Pump room of the Ambassador East. In addition to Mrs. Aaron's talk, there will be a short business meeting and the election of five new board members to fill the offices becoming vacant this May. Reservations should be made by May 8 to Mrs. B. T. Porter, 322 Forest avenue, Winnetka. Chicago Wellesley club meeting, in-

During the business part of the terest will undoubtedly be focused on the report of the emergency service committee. Through this committee of the club, an opportunity has been given to alumnae to contribute funds for a second mobile kitchen for Great Britain (one from Wellesley is already in use in England) and for additional gifts for Madame Chiang Kai-shek's war orphans or for some relief or home defense project. (Madame Chiang's being a Wellesley alumna, many contributions will undoubtedly be designated for her.) The sum total of the contributions to date will be announced at this meeting.

HOLY NAME SOCIETY BREAKFAST, SUNDAY

Members of the Holy Name society of the Holy Cross Catholic church, Deerfield, will have their annual Mother's Day breakfast after the 8:30 mass on Sunday in the parochial school. The men and their sons will be guests at the breakfast which is being served by the women of the church, under the direction of Mrs. John Klemp and her committee.

Where's Eve?

Police found a complete change of women's clothing on Sunnyside lane last Thursday, but no woman. The "gal" is probably running around in a barrel or playing Lady Godiva.

H. G. A. Club Plans For Program May 16

High School Girls To Present Dancing, Swimming and Tumbling Exhibition

A spring program, consisting of dancing, swimming, and tumbling, will be presented by the H.G.A. club of the Highland Park high school on Friday afternoon, May 16, in the girls' gym.

All H.G.A. members and their parents may attend the spring program. Tickets will be distributed to H.G.A. members in the gym office. Admission is by ticket only.

The swimming program will be as follows: (1) formation swimming; (2) diving; (3) an original water pattern by Pat Moore and Nancy Nelson; (4) synchronized swimming; (5) finale.

The girls in the Penguin club swimming demonstration are: Nancy Armstrong, Juel Cabonargi, Dianna Cabonargi, Betty Coleman, Anne Dingle, Laurine Foster, Sally Friedman, Mary Elizabeth Grady, Dorothy Hobbs, Joan Husting, Janet Larson, Anne MacPherson, Betty Martin, Pat Moore, Nancy Nelson, Ora D. Puckett, Paula Raff, Jean Skidmore, Frances Stein, Virginia Stodder, Doris Timm, Marjorie Volwiler, Betty Wallis, Shirley Weed, Mary Wilbur and Shirley Wing.

The modern dancing group will give three dance numbers. They are (1) percussion, sound, and movement; (2) gong study, and (3) frolic. The members of the percussion orchestra will also dance.

The girls in the dances and percussion orchestra are:

Jane Sonnenschein, Eva Dinelli, Ruth Peddle, Midge Garrison, Bobbie Morris, Georgiana Frisbie, Gloria Holland, Cynthia Stokes, Jean Easton, Jane Straub, Betty Smolenski, Jean Gatewood, Joanne Kearney, Nolle Harrington, Artie Eashjian, Ruth Thompson, and Dorothy Bonn.

The girls participating in the tumbling demonstration are:

Janet Smalley, Joan Lillie, Elizabeth Jenkins, Lois Sunstrom, Lois Bolle, Alice Swanson, Carol Johnson, Margaret Eitner, Luise Haessler and Betty McClure.

Miss Pipenhagen and Patsy Moore are in charge of swimming, Miss Bushman and Ruth Peddle, modern dance and Miss Thompson nad Margaret Eitner, tumbling.

After the program is completed, tea will be served.

EPISCOPAL GROUPS SPONSOR SMORGASBORD

The Trinity Guild and Women's auxiliary of the Trinity Episcopal church of Highland Park are sponsoring a smorgasbord, fashion parade and benefit bridge on Friday, May 16, at the parish house. The fashion parade will show both women's and children's clothes, from the Nadine Russel Country Clothes and the Jack and Jill Shop respectively. The following youngsters will model what the well-dressed tots will be wearing this summer, Benjamin Harris, Betsy Quaz, Judy Easton, Barbara Wing, Diane Wing, Nancy Clinton, Bret Davis, Teddy Tullis, and Chris Phelps. The following ladies will model what will be fashionable for women this summer. Mrs. Roger Vall, Mrs. John Newey, Mrs. H. Riegelman, Mrs. Malcolm Jennings, Mrs. George Mason, Mrs. Charles Phillips and Mrs. William C. Wenninger. The smorgasbord luncheon will start at one o'clock, during which the fashions will be shown, and bridge will follow for which there will be table prizes. Tickets may be obtained from Mrs. David Sanders, Highland Park 3138, Mrs. Harry Earhart, Highland Park 1996, or the church office, Highland Park 985.