DISTRICT 3 REBEKAHS HOLD ANNUAL MEETING

The 29th annual session of the District Assembly No. 3, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, which includes lodges at Highland Park, Waukegan, Crystal Lake, Palatine, Barrington, Antioch, Libertyville, Wilmette, and Evanston, was held Tuesday in the Highland Park Masonic temple. More than 200 persons attended the convention. The Highland Park Sheridan Rebekah lodge acted as hostesses. Mrs. Mildred Black, noble grand, of Sheridan Rebekah Lodge, welcomed the visiting lodges and Mrs. Florence Parkhurst of Palatine, district vice-president of district number 3, spoke in response to the welcome.

During the meeting, officers were elected, the annual report given, and the Liberty fund was presented to the state officers to be turned over to the old peoples' home in Mattoon and an orphan home in Lincoln. The members of the Libertyville lodge conducted memorial services. State officers who attended the business meeting were: president, Mrs. Mabel Quayle; vice-president, Mrs. Mary Eiler; secretary, Mrs. Iva M. Crowell; Mrs. Grace F. Bairstow; chief of examiners, Mrs. Ida E. G. Sherman; and junior past president, Sophia Peterson.

The district officers who presided were Mrs. Eleanor Bock, president; Mrs. Florence Parkhurst, vice-president; Mrs. Gladys Bristol, warden; Miss Mildred Lyle, secretary; Mrs. Belle Schlosser, assistant secretary; Mrs. Frieda Thompson, treasurer; and past junior president, Mrs. Carolyn Horan.

Supper was served in the dining hall of the temple by members of the ladies' aid of St. John's Evangelical church.

Officers were installed by Mrs. Grace Bairstow, installing president, assisted by Mrs. Alma Mergenthaler, installing marshal. Escorts were members of Palatine lodge number 116.

The Waukegan Subordinate lodge third degree team gave a drill demonstration.

ROBBED BY BANDITS

Miss Corrine Zahnle, a nurse at the Highland Park hospital, and her companion, D. P. Lundy, of Chicago, were parked in front of her home, 615 Vine avenue, early Tuesday, when two armed bandits opened the car door saying "This is a holdup." The young men, described as about "25, tall and thin," flourished guns. They obtained $121.75 from the couple.

PATRICIA H. REITER SUCCUMBS TO LONG ILLNESS, SUNDAY

On Sunday, May 11, Patricia Hoffman Reiter died in a Chicago hospital after a nine years' illness. She was the daughter of the late Dr. and Mrs. Hoffman, former residents of Highland Park, and is survived by her husband, Emil; a son, John; a daughter, Mary Louise; and two sisters, Mrs. Phoebe MacLean and Mrs. Faith Baird.

Mrs. Reiter was a life long member of Trinity parish where she sang in the choir as a girl and taught a class in the church school. She was also interested in the Junior activities of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

Mrs. Reiter through nine years of invalidism showed a strength of character and certainly of faith that was very inspiring to those who visited her during her sickness, and will always be remembered by those who knew her as a truly great person.

SUMMER SCHOOL WILL OPEN JUNE 16TH AT H. P. HIGH SCHOOL

Summer school, which will last for eight weeks, will begin at Highland Park high school, Monday, June 16th.

The following courses will be offered: history, first four weeks taught by Mr. Burwell, second four weeks by Mr. Eiker; wood shop and drawing, Mr. Pertz; mathematics, Mr. Winkely; typewriting, Mr. Werbelow; Latin, Mr. Stewart; senior science, Mr. Einbecker, and French, Miss Anderson.

There will be no chemistry or physics this year. French will be taught for only four weeks, but it will be double time work, so as to be the equivalent of a full eight weeks' course.

H. S. ART STUDENTS TO EXHIBIT WORK

The public is cordially invited to see the exhibit, representative of this year's work, by students of the Highland Park high school art department.

Friday, May 16, 9:30 a.m.-6 p.m.

Saturday, May 17—9:00 a.m.-8:30 p.m.; 392½ East Central avenue.
