

HIGHWOOD

Fine Raised

Chief of Police John DeSmidt, Highwood, announces that delinquent city vehicle sticker purchasers would be fined $5 instead of $2, effective immediately.

Thomas Russell, Jr., who four years ago took a leave of absence

Quality Cleaners

Phone H. P. 178

RELIABLE LAUNDRY AND
DRY CLEANING CO.

Very Finest
Laundering

Zoric
Odorless
Dry
Cleaning

WINNETKA 2050

GREAT WESTERN LAUNDRY CO.

3 Linden Ave. Winnetka

SITTING ON TOP OF THE WORLD

with a

PHOTOGRAPH

by

HECKETSWEILER
STUDIO

PHOTOGRAPHERS

Make an Appointment Today

7 S. ST. JOHNS AVE.

PHONE HIGHLAND PARK 435

from the North Shore Line as ticket collector, to accept the city clerk's job in Highwood, is back on the North Shore again. Russell resigned his city clerk's job in Highwood when his father was defeated for the mayorship by Portilia.

Elerio Ponsi, 42,

Funeral Tuesday

Funeral services were held Tuesday morning at St. James church, Highwood, for Elerio Ponsi, 42, who died at his home, 345 Ashland avenue, Highwood, Sunday night. Interment was in St. Mary's cemetery, Lake Forest.

Mr. Ponsi, born in Italy, has been a resident of Highwood for the past 21 years. Surviving are his wife, Catherine, and a mother, one brother and a sister, living in Italy.

Portilia Closes Three Taverns

Mayor Charles Portilia, liquor control commissioner, Highwood, ordered licenses revoked for three Highwood taverns last Thursday. The taverns, The Miami, 321 Waukegan avenue, operated by Virginia Venicucci; the Beer Hut, 327 Waukegan avenue, operated by Mary Lucenti; and the Club Loraine, Waukegan avenue, operated by Arthur Bernardi, were closed for violations of laws governing the sale of liquor. A hearing was held at the Highwood City Hall Thursday.

Attending the hearing were J. F. Charash, from the attorney general's office; Marvin Hart, secretary of the Illinois Liquor Control commission; and Col. Fred Doring, Fort Sheridan.

Mother-Daughter Party Draws 100

One hundred mothers and daughters attended the banquet given by the Dorcas society of the Zion Lutheran church, Highwood, Thursday night. Mrs. Carl O. Bengston, wife of the pastor of the Immanuel Lutheran church, Chicago, was the speaker of the evening, and spoke on mother and daughter relationship.

The following committee were responsible for the successful party: Mrs. Arne Svendsen, Mrs. Helen Steacy, Mrs. William Kramer, Mrs. Ruth McClure; Mrs. John Nestrick, Mrs. Ellen Carlson, Mrs. Edmund Crowley, Mrs. William Berg and Mrs. Sven Svendsen.

MRS. MARTIN HEADS ST. JAMES SOCIETY

Mrs. M. Martin was elected president of the Tabernacle society of St. James church, Highwood, at a reorganization meeting held Monday night. Other officers elected were: Mrs. E. Moroney, vice-president; Mrs. F. Bryant, treasurer; and Miss N. Mahoney, secretary.

ENTERTAINS MOTHER AT SUNRISE PARTY

Mrs. J. Laubach of Evanston was pleasantly surprised Wednesday afternoon at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. Schafer, Highwood. The party was in honor of Mrs. Laubach's birthday. Mrs. Robert Smith, daughter of Mrs. Schafer, was also honored at a shower at the same party.

MRS. JAMES REILLY HAS BRIDGE CLUB

Mrs. James Reilly entertained her bridge club at her home Monday afternoon. Mrs. A. Bartolo was awarded the prize.

VACATIONS
North or South
East or West

Let us help you plan

CALL on your nearest Milwaukee Road agent and ask him for suggestions or for full information about the vacation playground you have in mind. He will gladly plan your complete itinerary.

Low fares every day, everywhere on modern, air-conditioned Milwaukee Road trains. See the "high spots" of America this summer via

The MILWAUKEE ROAD

JONES SCORNAVACCO WEDDING SATURDAY

Miss Ellen Jones, daughter of Mr. myra, Wis., became the bride of Anthony Scornavacco, son of Mr. and Mrs. Willard R. Jones, Palmyra, Wis., at a ceremony performed at St. James rectory, Saturday morning. Father John A. Ward read the service.

Miss Josephine Ori, Highwood, was the bride's only attendant. A reception was held at the Open House Tea room in the afternoon. In the evening a party was given for the young couple at the Washington Garden recreation room.

Chaplain H. F. Hansen of the Great Lakes Naval Training station was the principal speaker at the regular meeting of the Men's Brotherhood association of the Highwood Zion Lutheran church Monday night. Charles Magnuson was in charge of the program.

ARMANDO LENZINI, NOKOMIS GIRL WED

Miss Mary Pedrucci, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Aldo Pedrucci, Nokomis, Ill., and Armando Lenzini, son of Mr. and Mrs. Battista Lenzini, 36 Prairie avenue, Highwood, were united in marriage Saturday morning at St. James church, Highwood. Father John Ward officiated.

The bride's gown was of white satin, with a lace trimmed, full length veil. She carried white roses and lilies of the valley. Mrs. Rena Ramazzini, matron of honor, wore an aqua silk jersey frock and carried pink carnations and blue iris. Miss Rena Monfardini and Mrs. Eija Grandi, the bridesmaids wore blue and yellow jersey gowns. Attending the groom were Elio Grandi and Armando Ramazzini. A reception was held in the afternoon.

The young Lenzinis will live at 36 Prairie avenue, Highwood.

The Italian Woman's Prosperity club, Highwood, will have a benefit bunco party at the Labor temple, Tuesday, May 27. Mrs. Mathilda Grandi is general chairman of the affair.

MRS. SAMUELSON TAKEN BY DEATH

Funeral services will be conducted at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon at Kelly chapel, 27 N. Sheridan road, for Mrs. Augusta W. Samuelson, 51, of 1840 Deerfield road, who died at her home Monday night. Burial will be in Mooney cemetery.

Mrs. Samuelson was born in Sweden. She leaves her husband, Eloy, and a daughter.

TYPEWRITERS

ALL MAKES

REPAIRED

Workmanship Guaranteed

LARSON'S Stationer

37 South St. Johns Avenue

Phone H. P. 567