

GREET "NORTH SHORE FLYER" The twin-engined transport plane being used by United Air Lines between Sky Harbor airport, near Deerfield, and Chicago's municipal airport this week formally was named "North Shore Flyer" in token of the service which it is giving residents of this area. Shown greeting the plane on its initial flight under the new name is Miss Lucy Harrison of Lake Forest, daughter of Carter Harrison Jr., and granddaughter of Carter H. Harrison Sr., collector of internal revenue and five times mayor of Chicago. With her is George E. Hatch of Evanston, district traffic manager of United Air Lines.

ROTARIAN TROOP 30 HAS ANNUAL BANQUET

The annual Rotary troop 30 Boy Scout banquet was held Tuesday night at the Highland Park Presbyterian church. One hundred and sixty-nine persons attended the affair.

The largest number of awards in the history of the troop were given. The awards included Eagle presentation by Mr. Clifton Spear, chief executive of the North Shore council. The Eagle Scout awards were presented to Bill Moran, assistant scoutmaster, Bob Moran, a junior leader in the troop and Bill Low, a member of the Explorer patrol.

The Eagle Scout bronze palm was presented to Bill Winters, also a member of the Explorer patrol. In addition to these high honors, the largest number of merit badges ever presented to the members of Rotarian troop 30 were awarded. Special awards were the honor medals given each year to the outstanding scouts of the troop. Those who received these medals were: John Wood, Bud Lee, Jim Leech, Patrick Moran, George LeClercq, and Ken Margeson.

Perfect attendance for two years was rewarded with prizes. These awards were given to John Wood, Phil Minorini and Bud Lee. Five pins were also awarded to scouts for perfect attendance for one year.

The honor guests present were: Rev. Dean O. Luginbill, of the Highland Park Presbyterian church, Mayor Ronan, Chief of Police Rex Andrews, Clifton G. Speer, John Dahm, assistant scout executive; Karl D. King Jr., district scout commissioner; Harry Earhart, president-elect of the Highland Park Rotary club; Edward Menke, Boys Work representative of the Highland Park Rotary; Otto Fisher, Highwood, secretary of the North Shore Area council, and Jack Davis, camping director of the council.

During the evening Harry E. Skidmore, scoutmaster of troop 324, and his assistant William Larson, lead in group singing.

M. Warner Turriff is scoutmaster of Rotarian troop 30, and his assistants are Dr. Robert C. Post, William Moran and Edgar Boehm.

CHAS. E. KEEVIL TO ADDRESS CAMERA CLUB

The next meeting of the Highland Park Camera club on Wednesday evening, June 11, will be "Movie Night." The club's president, Mr. Charles E. Keevil, will give an illustrated talk on the development of movie film, especially the reversal process. This is the same process that is used in developing some kinds of still color photographs. Also on the program will be a showing of member's films, including "Color Symphony," "Brookfield Zoo" and "Bermuda." Anyone interested will be welcome at the meeting in the Community Center at 8 p.m.

Mrs. H. R. Barrett, 144 Lakeview terrace, has been removed from her home to the North Shore Health resort, Winnetka. Mrs. Barrett, who has been in ill health for some time, was found in a semi-conscious condition early Thursday morning, by her husband, in the garage, with the doors closed and the engine running.
