

OF GRADE SCHOOLS, HIGH SCHOOLS AND COLLEGES

OAK TERRACE SCHOOL GRADUATING EXERCISES TO BE HELD JUNE 11

Commencement week at Oak Terrace school in Highwood will be ushered in with the annual eighth grade party on Monday evening, June 9. The teachers of the class entertain the graduates with a party of games and dancing and the mothers serve refreshments in the library at tables elaborately decorated with the class flowers and class colors. The general chairman for the party is Mrs. Nick Fiore.

Tuesday, June 10, will be Play day for the entire school. Parents are especially invited to come and bring picnic lunches. Prizes will be awarded to the largest family eating on the grounds and also to the oldest graduate of Oak Terrace school in attendance.

Floyd Allender is general chairman for the events of the day and has scheduled games and races suitable for pupils of the various grades. These events will take place between the hours of 9:30 a. m. and 11 a. m. Some of the features are a doll buggy parade, a pie eating contest, a slow bicycle race, and many handicap races. Director Allender will be assisted by Monroe Hall, Albert Withey, Marjorie Drager and Mr. Thomas. At the conclusion of the stunt show, all will repair to the lawn of the school to eat their picnic lunches.

After lunch, all will meet in the auditorium of the school to enjoy a play produced by the sixth grade. It is to be their own version of the story of "The King of the Golden River." This will be followed by a feature motion picture and comedy.

The last and most important event of the day will be a treat given by the Oak Terrace P.T.A. Mrs. Egar Benson, president, promises a fine surprise for all school children present.

The climax of the social events of the week comes at 8:15 p.m. on Wednesday, when 52 members of the eighth grade class begin their processional march to the stage of the auditorium to the strains of "War March of the Priests" played on two pianos by Gladys Smith and Charles Goosman of the seventh grade.

The commencement program for the graduating class is unique in that it is the climax of a study project undertaken by the class during the latter part of the year. The theme of the program is "The Story of Highwood. The class has done research work on the history of the community and is presenting some of the material in condensed form as talks for the commencement program.

The members of the graduating class are:

Jackie Daniel Alverson, Hubert Albert Amidel, Genevieve Elizabeth Bailey, Alice Dorothy Bartoni, Leo Ferdinand Bernardi, Eugene John Bertacchini, Louis Armistice Caldarelli, Betty Angelina Calzia, Dolores Victoria Carani, Elizabeth Josephine Carlson, Harold Charles Carlson, Harold Burdett Caulkins Jr., Laurine Rosalie Costo, Raymond Alphonse Crovetti, Bruno Peter De Bartolo Jr., Jack Thomas De Smidt, James Albert Dickelman, Charles Edward Engstrom, Anthony Joseph Feerari, Francis Fiore, Samuel Giuliani, Antonette Mary Grotti, Jacqueline Jean Hohm, Wallace Martin Huehl, Pamela Jane Hughes, Michael Charles Lattazio, Margery Mae Lawler, John William Liske, Anna Marie Lorusso, Robert Alexander Masini, Robert Marvin Mayo, Eugene Enil Melchiorre, Leroy J. Miller, Elio Mordini, Remo Morelli, Remo Morelli, Milton Albert Newton, Francis Mario Novello, Helen Jane Pearce, June Elsie Pearce, Patricia Lou Peterson, Dolores Marie Rossi, Betty Jane Sandberg, Leno Amedo Santi, Mary Virginia Selig, Ellen Marie Semora, Josephine Marion Spano, Janice Jane Stupey, Walter David Stupey, George Richard Vanderbilt, Anna Rose Zenzola, Charles H. Zoul.

INTERESTING CLOSING EVENTS PLANNED IN DISTRICT 107

Several interesting events are scheduled for the closing days at Elm Place and Greenbay Road schools. For the assembly on Friday, June 6, at 2:45 p.m., Mrs. Erastus R. Phelps of the Daughters of the American Revolution will speak to the children. Mrs. Phelps will discuss the significance of the thirteen colonial flags which belong to the Elm Place school. These flags were given to the school many years ago by the local chapter of the D. A.R. Each year, on the day of the school's flag day celebration, these famous colonial flags are flown beneath the Stars and Stripes.

On Tuesday, June 10, the schools will have the annual Flag Day ceremonies and all-school picnic. Beginning at 9:30 a.m. the children and teachers, led by the school band, will parade down Linden place and return. Upon returning to the school flag pole a new United States flag will be presented to the school by the Dumaresq Spencer Post of the American Legion. This flag and the colonial flags will be raised with appropriate ceremonies.

For the rest of the day the all-school picnic will be in full sway. Athletic activities are planned for the playground. Movies will be shown in the auditorium at 11 a.m. and 2 p.m. A punch and judy show and a magician will hold forth in the auditorium at 1 p.m. All parents, former students, and friends of the school are cordially invited.

The last assembly will be held at 10:30 a.m., Wednesday, June 11. At that time recognition will be given to all pupils who have rendered special service to the school during the year.

The eighth grade promotion exercises will be held in the Jesse L. Smith auditorium at 8, Wednesday evening, June 11.

Schools will re-open on Thursday, September 4.

FOUR H. P. STUDENTS GRADUATE FROM U. OF I.

Four students from Highland Park will be among nearly 2,400 candidates for degrees to be conferred next Monday (June 9) at the seventieth annual commencement of the University of Illinois. Dr. Arthur Cutts Willard, president of the university, will speak at the exercises in George Huff gymnasium. The proceedings will start at 9 a.m.

The baccalaureate service will be at 4 p.m. Sunday, June 8, also in Huff gym. Dean Willard L. Sperry of Harvard Divinity school will be the speaker. Both commencement and baccalaureate will be broadcast by the university's radio station, WILL (580 kc.)

Social activities connected with commencement will this year for the first time be centered in the new Illini Union building, opened this spring. It will be the campus center for seniors and their parents, a friends, and headquarters for returned alumni.

A feature of the week will be the first Alumni School of Affairs, to be June 5 and 6, with the alumni going to the university's classrooms and laboratories to hear outstanding faculty members discuss the latest developments in science, arts, government, history, and other fields. The annual alumni luncheon, band concert, and other events will be Saturday, June 7.

Scholars from Highland Park who are to get degrees at the Urbana-Champaign commencement are: Suzanne Coale, 530 Linden, B.S. physical education; George E. Doremus, Jr., 631 Skokie, B.S. metallurgical engineering; Stewart E. Gail, 1015 N. St. Johns, B.S. metallurgical engineering; Elmer L. Stone, Jr., 128 McGovern street, B.S. banking and finance.

CONGRATULATIONS TO THE 1941 GRADUATES

CLASSIQUE BEAUTY SALON

For Appointments
TEL. HIGHLAND PARK 1603
135 S. St. Johns Ave.
Highland Park

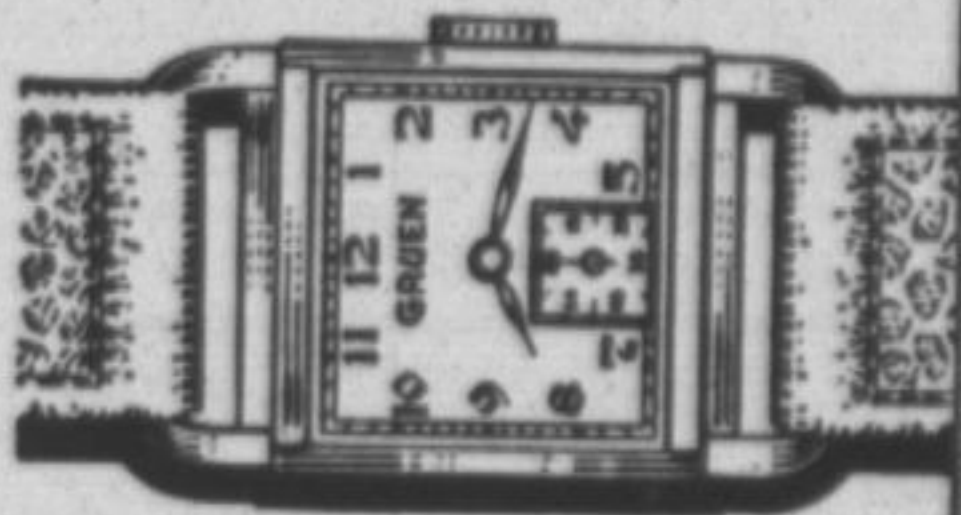

GIFT SUGGESTIONS . . . FOR GRADUATION

GRUEN CURTIS $24.75

GRUEN KATHRYN $33.75

GRUEN CLAYTON $37.50

VERI-THIN PETITE $29.75

I. H. NEMEROFF Credit Jeweler

DIAMONDS WATCHES

OPTICIAN

392 CENTRAL AVENUE

TEL. H. P. 630

Congratulations to the 1941 Graduates

Davis & Maurine

Electrical Wiring and Servicing

10 N. SHERIDAN ROAD

Tel. H. P. 363 Highland Park