Community Choral
Club To Present
Concert On Friday

Friday evening, June 20, at 8:15 o'clock, the Highland Park Community Choral club will present a spring concert in the Elm Place School auditorium.

William Miller, noted singer, who was soloist for two seasons with the Chicago Symphony orchestra at the North Shore Festival in Evanston and featured soloist with the Chicago Apollo club, will be guest artist.

Incidental solos will be sung by Miss Margaret Moldaner, Mrs. Ruth Simpson, Mrs. Dorothy Singer, Miss Mary Santi and Mr. Spiro Mann.

Mrs. Eugene Zahnle of Ridge road, Highland Park, will entertain her 500 luncheon club the first Wednesday in July. The June meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Earl Frost, Osterman avenue, with Mrs. Edward Trier of Chicago, as hostess. Mrs. A. Lang of Chicago was an out of town guest.

Launch Local Campaign

Immediate participation in the national U.S.O. campaign to raise the local quota of $5,250 was voted by the executive committee at a meeting Monday and plans have been perfected to officially open the campaign Sunday June 15, when a special appeal for support of this defense undertaking will be made from the pulpit of all local churches.

The financial campaign will be under the direction of Harry Alston with Jerome P. Bowes, Jr., serving as finance chairman. Special letters soliciting the support of the public will go into the mail this week-end and this mail solicitation will be followed up by personal contact to be made by members of the general committee.

Official headquarters of the campaign will be located at the Service Men's club, 19 N. Sheridan road.

Lake County Will Send 29 Selectees

Lake County Selective Service board number 1 will send 29 men to the Chicago induction board Friday, June 20. Of the 29 men Highland Park will furnish 19, Deerfield 2, Highwood 2, Fox Lake 1, Lake Zurich 1, Chicago 1, Prairie View 1 and Barrington 2.
