

Grade School Graduation Groups

Elm Place School Graduates

Photo by Hecketsweiler

There are 82 8th grade graduates. In the picture there are four graduates missing. Their names are Helen De Santo, Jackie Udell, John Salbego, Monroe Macpherson.

Graduates in the picture are, bottom row, left to right: Jim Weber, Bert Clinton, Heinz Bischoff, Bill Drake, Bob Carlsen, Jack Ryan, Bob Johnson, Ken Margeson, Jim Goldman, Bradford Craig, Jim Fayhe, Morris Pearson, Bob Flocchi (Class president), Jim Leech, Peter Mustric, Leroy Peschman.

Second row, left to right: Grace Brown, Victoria Turner, Jennifer Turner, Steve Saunders, Mary Appel, Mansfield Cleary, Mary Lou Hennig, Jack Boles, Pat D'Ancona, Tom Gilroy, Mary Fink, Yolanda Crimo, John Tuma, Bob Shanley, Bud Lee, Don Heinrichs, Thelma Christman, Lincoln Roberts, Mary Hickey, Edith Dodson, Ray Westgard, John Lind.

Third row, left to right: Eleanor Mailfald, Bill Ballenger, Eleanor Cole, Bob Moran, Ester Spier, John Fay, Irene Gerken, Jerry Sheahen, Anna Mae Haltermann, Bill Kreh, Alice Giamo, Lila Richman, Jim Greenebaum, Joan Oliver, Paulette Jenisby, Dick Nash, Betty Jane Adler, Bud Trude, Rose Ann Gerhardt, Anita Rehorst, Peggy Evans.

Top row, Mary Louise Tjden, John Wood, Margie Berube, Roy Crossman, Marilyn Treuschel, Barbara Franciso, Tom Reber, Leonard Nieter, Jr., Virginia Connolly, Eugene Peterson, Christina Kelly, Bob Lundgren, Edith Evans, Iva Mae Moorehead, Grace Pfanstiehl.

Ravinia Eighth-Grade Students

Photo by Hecketsweiler.

The forty-five members of the eighth grade class whose graduation took place Tuesday, June 10, paused last week in front of famed Village House to permit Elmer Hecketsweiler of the Hecketsweiler Studio to record their appearance for posterity. In the picture, left to right, rear row, are Florence Gwenevere

Stephenson, Ann Mendelson, Margaret Ann Archer, Milton (Bud) Field, John James (Jack) Stroud, William Gutmann, Peter Ullman, Charles William Rahning, Ralph Ernest Lautmann, Donald Ray Hehl, Barbara Patricia Osborne, Janis Uhlmann, Carolyn Wible, Courtney Barr, Katherine Burress Mortimer. Middle row, left to right,

are Frederick Meyer, John Sihler, Walter L. Rubens, William B. Laurie, William Allen Bein, Kirkman Zinsmaster, Fischer, Joseph K. Launderer, Edward S. Weil, John Manning Law, David William Allen, David Dubin, Miles K. Zimmerman, Henry Eitner, Jeanette Jennings, Kate Schamberg, Joan Florsheim,

and Joanne Cole. Front row, left to right, are Madeline Haiz, Jean Lambert Watt, Elise Kathryn Hartman, Mary Elizabeth Wall, Catherine Carol John Robert Adler, Mason G. Armstrong, Lowell Burt Komie, Michael L. Gutman, Thomas H. Adair, Dan Plummer, Russell B. Smith, and Paul Norman Krueger.

IF DAD'S YOUR PAL...
SAY IT WITH

SWANK

To give Dad Swank jewelry is a subtle way of saying: "Governor, you're a great guy! I love you and respect you...but more than that, I consider you my equal! To me, you'll never grow old, but will always be the good friend to whom I can bring my problems and troubles, with whom I can share my joys. And because I feel that way about you, old boy, I want you to have the aids to good grooming that improve the appearance of all the fellows I admire. So here's to you, Dad...with Swank."

Swank set—collar holder and Twinitial cravat chain $2.

GARNETT'S

MEN'S STORE