SPAHRS SHOOT FOR NEW TROPHY HONORS

The trophy winning Robert Spahrs have won again. Mr. Spahr, 944 Ridgewood drive, has been notified that he is the winner of the silver trophy, which is presented annually by the Chamber of Commerce, LaFayette, Indiana, for shooting 397 bulls eyes in 400 tries in the Dewar iron sight match at the LaFayette Midwest Rifle tournament held recently.

Mrs. Spahr, who also was one of the 95 rifle experts shooting in the tournament won the midwest rifle championship grand aggregate trophy with 1,584 points in 1,600 tries. Mr. Spahr came in third in the all-events with a score of 1,579-1,600.

The Spahrs are members of the North Shore Sheridan Rifle club's first team, and have many trophies in their collection.

Graduate From Naval School

Among the 730 United States naval reserve midshipmen who were graduated from the midshipmen's school, Abbott Hall, Northwestern university, Chicago, Wednesday, at Navy Pier, Chicago, were John Dunbar Creigh, 200 Prospect avenue, Jack Wilson Thompson, 334 North Sheridan road and Henry Bridgeman Wilder, 1307 Wade street, all of Highland Park.

The GRAPEVINE
By GRACIOUS

What well known school marm spent a little while in the Lake County jail Friday the 13th, for refusing to pay her maid and houseman?—and her husband's an accountant. Poor addition I'd say.

Nice to see Mr. Raymond Flinn, architect, back on the job again, after a flu seige.

Any kid as ambitious as young Russell Smith deserves to make good. Russ is starting a special delivery service. Give him a boost.

Maurice L. Rothschilds personal estate is valued at almost three million. Not bad, for a boy who came to America broke. America the land of opportunity, milk, honey!!! AND MONEY.

Sorry you're leaving Blanche Thompson. Oak Terrace school will miss you. Hope you have as much success with your McHenry school music classes next year.

Miss Jean Nichols, Highwood, was chosen winner of the annual scholarship of Phi Beta Keta, national honorary music society. Jean is the pretty little girl, with a more than pretty voice. We think you're going places!

Tip to Highland Park Butchers! Is the fire out? Burnt corned beef smoke is bad enough to frighten your best customer away. (Even your best friend won't tell you about some things!)

Did you know that a Highland Park boy, who frequents the county "hoosegows" "borrowed" an oldsmobile last week from a local garage, and FORGOT to return it?

Who's the H. P. electrician who goes to the Grays Lake "Grunt and Groan" contest with a girl, he says is his "sister"?

"Peck's Bad Boy" had a front tooth knocked out Saturday night, at a wedding "reception." Wonder how much "Doc" got for putting in a "false front," before his Dad saw him?

Mrs. Roger Vail, 225 Laurel avenue, entertained guests at a luncheon and red, white and blue kitchen shower for Miss Dorothy Warner, Winnetka. Miss Warner will become the bride of John Clifford, June 25.
