Sponsor Dances At Highwood Center

The Highwood Social Service, joining hands with other civic and social groups in sponsoring the weekly Wednesday night dances at the Highwood Service center, was host last evening to Fort Sheridan men at the 428 Railway ave. address.

A box social was staged, with Mrs. John Doull as chairman. Each girl guest brought "eats" for three, as the service men usually outnumber the guests, two to one. Coffee and cake were also served.

Chaperones were the Mmes. Wayne Thomas, Edward Shapiro, Everett Dever, Margaret Dean, C. A. Driscoll, Bernard Siegel, and Thomas Russell Sr.

Edward Walkup, director, announces there are 32 entries in the table tennis tournament now going on; eight in chess; and twelve in checkers. The bouts progress slowly, of necessity, as the men go on convoys intermittently.

J. Lloyd Baird, state director of recreation from Chicago, when a guest at last week's dance sponsored by the Highwood Women's Bowling league, gave his stamp of approval to the idea. Mrs. Marion Leary, district director of recreation from Rockford, also was a guest.

The American Legion auxiliary will be hostess next week at the Wednesday night dance. Mrs. Fred Lund is president.

James M. Van Riper Sinks Hole In One

James M. Van Riper, 339 Park avenue, had the most rare pleasure of sinking a hole in one, on the sixth hole at Sunset Valley Golf club, last week. He drove a ball 147 yards to land against the pin in the hole. In his joy he threw his clubs and hat away, but despite the excitement, managed to end the game with a nice low score. Mr. Van Riper modestly declined to tell his score when asked about it by your reporter.

Bobby Stoddart, son of the William Stoddarts, underwent a tonsillectomy in Chicago Friday.

"Power Dive" Daring Spectacle of the Air

Romance under difficulties is the thematic structure on which Harold Lloyd piles scores of laughs in his first production, "A Girl, a Guy and a Gob," featuring George Murphy, Lucille Ball and Edmond O'Brien, playing Thursday, Friday and Saturday, June 19, 20 and 21 at the Deerpath theatre.

"The Devil and Miss Jones," starring Jean Arthur, Robert Cummings and Charles Coburn, will be presented Monday and Tuesday, June 22, 23 and 24.

Love, suspense, action and hair-raising thrills in the air will race across the screen of the Deerpath when "Power Dive", daring spectacle of the air, will be shown there Wednesday and Thursday, June 25 and 26.

Neild's Win Over Seguin-Logan Boys

Joe Neild's soft ballers, after trouncing the Seguin-Logan funeral home aggregation in a practice game last week, 4-0, again showed their superiority Monday night under the flood lights when they drove George (Casey) Keller to the showers with a ten run barrage in the sixth inning to put the game on ice.

Neild's, who are entered in the North Suburban Night league, start their league schedule Friday, June 20, at Glencoe, with a lineup bolstered by the recent acquisition of Al Sordyl, star Wire Mill player.

Seguin and Logan, who have had trouble filling the catcher's position, ask that anyone interested in trying out for the receiving berth, report for practice Thursday, June 18, at 7:00 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Page will be moving on July 1 from their house on Osterman avenue to their new home on Greenwood avenue.
