

SOCIETY & WOMEN'S NEWS & CLUBS

Weds in Garden of Parents Home

In an all white wedding Miss Davida Clark, daughter of the David R. Clarks, 240 Cary avenue, became the bride of Alfred Wooley Maddock, son of Mr. and Mrs. James R. Maddock, Swampscott, Mass. The ceremony was performed in the Clark garden Saturday afternoon.

Miss Clark and all of her attendants except the matron of honor, Mrs. Kenneth Alley Cliftondale, Mass., wore white organdy frocks and carried garden flowers. Mrs. Alley wore her own wedding gown of white mouseline de sole.

The attendants were Miss Zada Clark, Miss Martha Clark, Miss Marjorie Maddock. John Hill, Chicago, was the best man and the ushers were David McJunkin, Wheaton; Eric Haessler, Ravinia and Kenneth Alley, Cliftondale, Mass.

A reception followed in the garden.

Mr. and Mrs. Maddock are honeymooning at an eastern mountain lodge. They will make their home at 90 Farragut road, Swampscott.

Receive Guests At Bridge Tea

Five hundred invitations were issued to the annual summer benefit for the Woman's Symphony orchestra of Chicago, which was held Wednesday at the Shawnee Country club. The party was a bridge tea and Mrs. Jack V. Spachner and Mrs. Donald S. Boynton were in the receiving line.

Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Smith, 1221 Burton avenue, held open house Wednesday night, in celebration of their 40th wedding anniversary. The Smiths have lived in Highland Park since 1925.

Receive Announcement A. Kreuzkamp Wedding

Friends have received announcement of the marriage of Miss Doris Anne Tausch, New York to August Joseph Kreuzkamp, Jamaica, New York, formerly of Highland Park. His mother is Mrs. August J. Kreuzkamp, and the family is well known here. The wedding took place June 28 in New York City, and was followed by a reception at the Plaza hotel.

The bride was graduated from Bantwood hall and attended Pine Manor. Mr. Kreuzkamp attended the Massachusetts Institute of Technology and was graduated from Armour institute.

Meet at Home of Miss Edith Hansen

The Philathea class of the Highland Park Evangelical church will meet Tuesday evening, July 15, at the home of Miss Edith Hansen, 126 South Green Bay road.

Mr. and Mrs. William J. Obee, 154 S. Second street, observed their 53rd wedding anniversary at their home Thursday. No celebration was held. Mr. Obee has been town clerk, alderman, township collector and township supervisor.

Celebrate Silver Wedding Date

Mr. and Mrs. William Vetter, 347 McDaniels avenue, were pleasantly surprised Tuesday night when 30 of their friends came in to help them celebrate their silver wedding anniversary. The couple received many lovely gifts, and a shower of silver dollars. Refreshments were served. Mr. Vetter is connected with the Vetter Electric company.

Invite Gardeners To Outdoor Picnic

Edson Rice, 1724 Ridge road, has invited the other members of the Highland Park Men's Garden club to an outdoor picnic at his home this coming Tuesday. Members will be given an opportunity to see Mr. Rice's beautiful home and lovely gardens and will be shown colored movies of gardens in Natchez Saint Francisville, New Orleans, and the Bellingrath gardens in Mobile.

Lunches With Mrs. E. Mandel

Mrs. Emanuel Mandel, Ravinia, entertained Herma Clark, newspaper columnist at luncheon Saturday. Herma Clark will relate some of her famous "when Chicago was young" stories at the Northshore Writer's conference at Moraine-on-the-Lake July 26.

Mr. and Mrs. Hans Bahr, 1111 North Ridge road, sailed to Mains-tee, Mich., over the week-end and attended the wedding of Dr. George Curtis, of Chicago, who is a cousin of Mrs. Bahr.

Miss Deborah McCain entertained a number of guests at a house party over the Fourth of July at her grandmother's, (Mrs. L. Newton Cowan), summer home on Lake Degonsa, Wis. Deborah's mother, Mrs. Allan McCain, Deere Park, chaperoned the party.

Mrs. John Schiffmacher, Baldwin, Long Island, is visiting her sister, Mrs. A. E. Chester, 2323 Pierce road.

Dr. and Mrs. J. J. Grandone and daughter, Mary Jo, 415 North Sheridan road, spent the week-end in Gillespie.

Delores LeGoff, daughter of the Montgomery LeGoffs, spent the Fourth of July holiday at Mason Lake, Wis., with her aunt, Mrs. Lillian Klepper.

Mr. and Mrs. Ingram C. Rasmussen, 840 Elm Place, returned home Wednesday after a several day vacation spent at Lake St. Germaine, Wis., at the summer home of Mrs. Rasmussen's father, Andrew Bloomfield.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Tupper, 177 Lakeside Manor road, spent the week-end at their summer home on Lake Geneva.

Dr. Herbert Evans, Whittier, California, is visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Watts, 1325 South St. Johns avenue.

Is Married In Church Ceremony

Mr. and Mrs. Werner B. Spengler, 418 Glencoe avenue, announce the marriage of their daughter, Elizabeth Jan, to Robert L. Skinder, son of the William Skinders, Barrington. The wedding was solemnized at the Highland Park Bethany Evangelical church, June 22, the Rev. Lester H. Lauenstein, officiating.

The bride wore a white embroidered organdy gown, with a floor length veil, attached to a tulle hair entwined with orange blossoms. She carried an old fashioned bouquet of mixed flowers.

Miss Ruth Spengler, sister of the bride, wore a champagne frock, with brown accessories. Andrew Zeis, Chicago, served Mr. Skinder.

A buffet supper was held at the Spengler home, following the ceremony.

Will Marry Man From Winnetka

Mrs. William H. Kladie, Jr., has announced the engagement of her daughter Patricia Ann Patterson, to Charles Robinson Jacobs, Jr., son of Mrs. C. R. Jacobs, Winnetka.

Miss Patterson's schools are Northwestern university, and Bennington college, Vermont. She will return to Vermont to study art. Mr. Jacobs attended the North Shore Country Day school, the Tome school, Maryland and the University of Virginia. He is enlisted in the U. S. Coast Guard reserve.

Miss Mary Cutler and Miss Ann Cutler, 366 Ravine drive, left this week for a three weeks stay in Portland, Oregon, and Glacier National Park.

Mrs. Henry C. Seidenbecker, 700 S. Sheridan road, entertained a number of guests at a luncheon and bridge today at Snawnee Country club.

General and Mrs. Robert Wood are expecting their daughter, Mrs. William Farish (Mary Wood) some time this month.

Father Victor Ralph of Corpus Christie, Texas, is spending a month with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Ralph Sr., of 93 Clifton avenue. Father George Doyle also of Corpus Christie is a guest of the Ralph family. Many parties have been given and are being planned for the two priests during their visit in Highland Park.

Mrs. Charles Wright and Mrs. Lawrence Meyer spent several days last week at La Bagatelle, the Arthur Byfield summer home at Ephraim, Wis.

Mrs. Wood Tullis, 162 Laurel avenue is spending the summer on a ranch in Santa Fe, California.

At a meeting held at the home of Mrs. George B. Dana, 506 Fairview road, Wednesday, 50 British War Relief baskets were filled. Mrs. Alonzo C. Tenney was the assisting hostess.

The Lawrence M. Steins, Wood Bridge lane private beach has been given over to the enlisted men of Fort Sheridan Saturdays from 2:00 until 4:00 o'clock. Gunter Schwandt will be the life guard. Nice to know there are still some thoughtful kind people in this world.

A number of parents and friends of the boy scouts leaving for camp, saw them "off" at the station Saturday afternoon. 'Twas quite a sight to see "the men of tomorrow" leaving in uniform, not to war, but to a camp of wholesome living and clean fun.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Boulton, 2149 Pine Point drive and Mr. and Mrs. George C. Reeves, 206 Roger Williams avenue, are vacationing in northern Wisconsin. They expect to be gone about three weeks.

Charles Baker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Baker, is visiting his grandmother in Indiana.

Mrs. E. Hubert Bradford and daughter Joan, N. Ridge road, have returned home after a two weeks visit in Keuka Park, N. Y.

Mrs. George Peters and son, Burris, have gone back to their home in Beverly Hills, California, after a two weeks visit with her parents, the W. Preston Smiths, Indian Tree drive.

Mrs. Burton Smalley was one of the hostesses at the annual picnic given by the North Shore alumnae of Gamma Phi Beta, at the home of Mrs. Arthur Clark Smith, Waukegan, Wednesday.

Mrs. Ernest Gail, Bloom street is a patient at the Presbyterian hospital, Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Rose spent the week-end at Shangri-La-Lake, Wisconsin. Miss Agnes Naughton and Forrest Dale Rose, Jr., spent Saturday at Shangri-La with them.

Larry Stuppey has returned from California and is now stationed at Great Lakes Naval Academy, where he is studying pharmacy.

DeVere Rhinehart, Chanute field, Rantoul, Illinois, spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Rhinehart. Mrs. Rhinehart returned home from the Highland Park hospital Saturday.

Thomas C. Free returned last Thursday to Lindberg Field, San Diego, Calif., where he will resume his studies at the Ryan School of Aeronautics.

Mrs. Charles Nixon and son John, Udell apartments, are spending the summer in Duluth, Minn., with her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Johnson have returned home from Hudson, Ohio, where they spent the Fourth of July holiday with Mrs. H. Hughes Johnson. Dr. and Mrs. W. E. Henderson, Columbus, Ohio, were also guests.