

The GRAPEVINE

By GRACIOUS

George "Buddy" Glader, the 12-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. George F. Glader, 816 Ridgewood drive, is gaining recognition as a model. Buddy's picture appears in an illustration for the July issue of Better Homes and Gardens and the July issue of Parents Magazine. His little dimpled, freckled face appears on billboards too.

Because her husband would rather buy a new car than finish building their house, and because he uses the house as a carpenter shop, Mrs. Howard Newton Gamlin, 1867 Pleasant avenue, is suing for separate maintenance. Mrs. Gamlin, a teacher in the Chicago schools, asks for the custody of their two children.

Someone stole two watches from —THE MAYOR'S WIFE!!!! Mrs. Ronan reports that the watches, valued at $40 each, were taken from her Treasure Chest gift shop.

Members of Exmoor Country club were saddened to hear of the death of Mrs. Nell O'Rourke, the club housekeeper, who was found dead in her room at the club Wednesday. Mrs. O'Rourke's home was in Chicago and she has come out to Exmoor for the past four years to act as housekeeper.

Even though "These are Modern Times" the old curfew will ring in Highwood. Children under 14 must be off the streets between 9 p.m. and 6 a.m.

Lt. Baker M. Hamilton, 212 N. Linden, and a member of the Great Lakes medical corps, has been awarded a membership in the Association of Medical Surgeons of the United States. Nice going, Doc.

Mrs. Clariss Bers, 48 Sunset road will share in the $320,000 trust estate of her father, Maurice I. Weil, founder of the Chicago Pump Co., who died June 23.

They say that the women do all the talking in this world, but I WONDER!! Jose Joven, 227 North Second street, was so engrossed in a telephone conversation at the Highland Ten Pins last week, that he let the proprietor turn out the lights, lock up the alley and go home. When he quit talking, he found himself alone, and locked in. He called the operator, who called the police, who called Charles Gentillini, the proprietor, who unlocked the door and let Joven out. (Was she a blonde???)

When Mrs. Wilma L. Dante sued her husband, Dominic, for divorce last week, charging cruelty, she asked that her maiden name, Wilma L. Burgess be restored.

Catherine Kenry, 40 High street, Highwood, was thrown from a horse the Fourth of July and injured her back. (Yep, it was on the merry-go-round at the Legion carnival!)

Professor E. J. Moulton, nationally known Northwestern university professor, evidently believes in using the rod. Young Robert A. Sellery, 1113 Grant st., Evanston, was on the receiving end with a black eye, in a fight between the two men recently. "Mama" Harry Acheson Sellery, Ravinia, says her son had his glasses on, too. Seems to have been a free-for-all. Boys will be boys!

Congratulations to Mr. John Peterson, Highwood, on his 97th birthday!

Mayor Frank Ronan has returned home from Fishtap Lake, Wisconsin, after a week's fishing trip. (Bet he can tell some TALL fish stories.)

Someone took a seven-foot white and blue boat from Moraine-on-the-Lake on the night of July 4. Bill Aiston, life guard, reported the theft. Has anyone seen a boat walking?

Arlene Robinson, of the "Hellzapoppin" cast will entertain the boys at the Service Men's club Saturday night. Soldiering gets better every day!

"We're in the army now," so thought Clarence Parliament's dog. The dog wandered down to Fort Sheridan to the hostess house, and was enjoying the life of Reiley, until the H. P. police came and evicted him.

Highwood taxi drivers must drive slow!!!! A couple of the "boys" thought the city dads were kidding about enforcing the law, and now they're trying totalk as fast as they drove — to the judge.

12-year-old Douglas Reid, 325 N. Linden, was thrown from his bike Saturday when he hit a chuck hole in the road in Sunset park, and was thrown over the handle bars. He suffered facial bruises and a possible hip fracture. Too bad, Doug.

Robert Bryant, Dave Lord and Dan Gault called on Judge Henry A. Hansen this week. (They TRIED to explain about those firecrackers the Fourth of July!!!)

Mailboxes at the homes of Mrs. Kellogg Speed, 530 South Sheridan road and E. O. Sessions, 2194 South Sheridan road, were damaged, the Fourth of July when someone's sense of humor got twisted a little.

Archery has been added to the list of sports at the Moraine on the Lake. Complete equipment is available for the resort guests. That place is my idea of heaven in summer.

Lieut. Col. Carl E. Hocker, commander of the 61st coast artillery, Fort Sheridan, has just been promoted to the rank of Colonel. Congratulations, Colonel Hocker!!

Mrs. Harriet Yochem is giving up her job as secretary of the local YWCA and will attend business school in the east. Sorry to see you go Mrs. Yochem.
