

GRAPEVINE By GRACIOUS

Miss Dora Peterson of this city and Arthur Gourley, Lake Forest, were rescued Tuesday night, when their sailboat capsized in the lake. Joe Riddle noticed the squall coming and launched the "rescue" with the aid of Franklin Chafee, Robert Gifford and Chafee's colored helper, and went to the couples rescue, who were unhurt.

Three prisoners from Fort Sheridan beat up a sentry—tied him up—look his guns, fully loaded, stole a Ford and escaped Tuesday. Little men you've had a busy day!!

Well, the old slogan "He always gets his man" is true of Uncle Sam. Two of the three prisoners who escaped from Fort Sheridan were caught at Deming Place in Chicago, by the Chicago police at 2 o'clock Tuesday morning, after he had stolen a car, and had offered a woman $50 to hide him from the police. She refused—and the police "closed in." Now he's singing the Prisoners Song again at the Post. His friend's (George Tidwell) weakness for Western movies, was his downfall. The Military police, knowing of his fondness for Western thrillers, kept close watch on the State street theaters, and caught him before he entered. (They could have let him see the hero do a little wild ridin' and bullet dodgin' first.)

Lowell N. Harter, a sales representative of International Business Machine corporation has been admitted to the 1941 Hundred Percent club. This is the second time he has earned membership. (Wish you'd teach me the technique.)

Robert Feldman, Chicago truck driver, reported to police that thieves had stolen liver, beef, frankfurters and an electric clock from his truck Thursday. What, no buns?

Marriage licenses were issued last week in Waukegan to George Nahum Hersom, Pleasant Prairie, and Harriet Irene Mitchell, Deerfield road, H. P.; Lauren Wilson, Central

CHURCH REMODELING NEARS COMPLETION

Highland Park's First Church of Christ Scientist on Laurel avenue has been in the process of renovation, repair and enlarging for several months, during which regular services have been held at the Masonic Temple. It is expected that services can be resumed in the church shortly after September 1st.

avenue, Highwood and Elizabeth Wall, Winnetka.

A couple cans of molasses blew up in the heat last week. At one of the "bombed" houses the family dog really had a time, licking his chops and tracking nice gooey syrup all over the carpets. (Was mama mad!!!)

Mrs. Dalla Casolasi, 134 Prairie avenue, Highwood, is wondering if it pays to be nice to strangers. A woman came to her door Friday and asked for money and some old clothes. Mrs. Casolasi gave the woman 10 cents out of her purse that contained $100. After the woman had gone—so was the $100.

The Dana Corrough girls are still on their vacation, and are continuing to send those "famous" cards, that are keeping the office in stitches. Oh, to be that young again!!!

Patents were issued in Lake County to Barnes and H. W. Keval for a rail flaw detecting apparatus and a detector carriage; and to Herman W. Zimmerman for a torque measuring wrench, patent for which has been assigned to the Automotive Maintenance Machinery Co. of North Chicago. Congratulations.

Sgt. Vincent Ghini, Highwood police, is so serious about his work, that he can't enjoy a vacation. When he left for Fort Des Moines, Iowa, last week on his vacation, he bade his buddies farewell and said he hoped everything went along alright without him. A few days later the force back home received a card from him, saying he was having a wonderful time, but how were things at the station? He hoped alright. One member of the city hall gang sent him a telegram: "Vince return immediately stop, department cannot get along without you." Vince arrived at the city hall the next morning early, after driving all night. His vacation doesn't end until August 7—but he's going to stick around so he can keep an eye on the boys, the phone and the station.

Receive Word of Birth of Grandson

Dord has been received by Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Garnett, of Linden avenue, of the birth of a son to their daughter, Mrs. Charles W. Newton, Jr. The baby weighed 8 1/2 pounds and has been named Charles Whiting Newton III. Dr. and Mrs. Newton are living in Honolulu where Dr. Newton is resident doctor at the Kapiolani Maternity Hospital until July 1st of next year when they will return to Ann Arbor, Michigan, where Dr. Newton will continue his work at the University of Michigan.

Dorcas Home Sells Vegetables from Stand

The Dorcas Home started selling vegetables a year ago. And now to expose the deep secret of where the profit of this vast business venture goes: All profits go towards the buying of a very good gasoline cultivator. It's really very funny to listen to the conversation of some of the children as they get together for a little cornfield chat. Here's how it runs. "Aw gee, why do we have to hoe these rows. Oh well, wait until next summer. No more hoeing for us. As soon as we hear the putt putt of the motor we can lie down and enjoy ourselves." The children who take their two hour shifts each day from 9 a.m. to 8 p.m., also have their little profits. This certain vegetable stand is conveniently located near the front entrance of the home on Deerfield road. While you're being waited upon, enjoy the cool shade of the trees under which the stand is located. Remember, open every day except Sunday—Audry Ely.

Deputy Beck Injured

Deputy George Beck, 581 Laurel avenue, was injured Saturday when he, accompanied by Deputy Frank Kalasusky of Fox Lake, were pulling the sheriff's radio patrol car off the pavement onto the road shoulder, on Rand road. A motorist, William Tupa, Chicago, who said he had fallen asleep, crashed into the squad car, injuring the deputies.

Our August Fur Sale NOW IN PROGRESS

Heyday for mink...

GENTLY DRAPED... SOFTLY FEMININE

Treat it casually (if you can bear to!) Toss it lightly over your tweeds. Revel in its darkly shadowed splendor—over "grand entrance" clothes! It's the new season's most important fur. Wear it casually, but never buy it that way! Mink, above all, needs the connoisseur eye in pelt selection, the expert touch in manipulation of skins—the designing finesse that is Uhlmann. Prices are substantially lower during August.

We'll welcome you at our new address—in our new, completely air-conditioned Salon!
