Star Dust

STAGE-SCREEN-RADIO

By VIRGINIA VALE
(Released by Western Newspaper Union.)

PARAMOUNT may have something very interesting in the picture called, so far, "Tales of Manhattan." It's the story of a dress suit and what happens to it, and there are seven sequences, in each of which a different male star will appear. So far Charles Boyer, W. C. Fields, Edward G. Robinson and Joe McCrea have been signed up, and Paul Robeson, the famous baritone, is one of the dozen outstanding stars being considered for it. Well, remember "If I Had a Million"? The episode which practically everyone recalls from that picture is the one in which Charles Laughton, learning that he had a million dollars, gave his boss the raspberry. It made the picture!

Susan Hayward did so well in "Reap the Wild Wind" that she has been given another important role; in "The Lady Has Plans," the Paulette Goddard-Ray Milland spy comedy, she'll be an American racketeer whose identity gets mixed up in Europe with a woman radio commentator—the commentator being Miss Goddard. The screen play was written by Harry Tugend, author of "Caught in the Draft."

SUSAN HAYWARD

Martha Mears, the popular blonde radio singer, has been signed to a term contract by RKO Radio. As her first assignment she will do a feature number in floor show sequences for "Call Out the Marines," which stars Victor McLaglen and Edmund Lowe.

RKO has also signed Pare Lorentz to write, direct and produce feature films. Lorentz, you'll recall, was responsible for those superb government-sponsored documentary films "The River," "The Fight for Life," and "The Flow That Broke the Plains."

Too much can't be said in praise of "Here Comes Mr. Jordan." It's one of the most original pictures ever turned out in Hollywood; it's highly amusing, it's well performed, especially by Robert Montgomery, James Gleason and Edward Everett Horton. Don't miss it!

Kathryn Grayson's going to grow up into Spring Byington in Metro's "The Vanishing Virginian"—and they'll both be portraying Rebecca Yancey Williams, the daughter of the book. Despite the chance to see two movie actresses portraying her before the cameras, Mrs. Williams refuses to go to Hollywood.

Edward G. Robinson recently spent a week with his son, Manny, at the Black-Foxe Military academy summer camp in the San Bernardino mountains, and as a result there'll be a change in the dramas presented on the CBS "Big Town" program during the 1941-42 season. That exposure to the youngsters convinced Robinson that younger listeners should hear more comedy and light dramas—which may also provide older ones with relief from present world conditions. So "Big Town" will be more amusing.

Few people outside of the radio business have ever heard of Hal Block. Radio writers usually are just heard, speaking through the mouths of other people. But Block has done some such prodigious work on CBS' "Treasure Hunt—Millions for Quizzes" that he's becoming known to the public. With regard for each performer, he has written the humorous side of the show for just about every big-time air comic of the day. And that's quite a trick, for comedians, according to those who know, are naturally some of the unfunniest men in the world.

ODDS AND ENDS—Patricia Morrison, last of the long-haired brunettes in the movies—she's succumbed to a bleach and a bob. . . . Joel McCrea can't help stopping and listening when he hears a newsboy really giving; he used to peddle papers himself! . . . Warner Brothers have decided that you'll be more likely to want to see "The Black Widow" if it's called "The Body Disappears," with Jeffrey Lynn, Jane Wymah and Edward Everett Horton. . . . Veronica Lake and her infant daughter, Elaine, have matching bed jackets of ice blue satin—just the thing for a brand new baby!

Dud Kean and Don Buffmire, sophomore halfbacks on Northwestern's football team, are not related, but they are athletic "twins" in more ways than one. The pair hails from Grand Rapids, Minn., where Buffmire captained the football team his senior year and the basketball team his junior year, while Kean led the two teams in reverse order. Both are members of the Sigma Chi fraternity and both were left halfback candidates this fall, until Kean was switched to right half. Now the two youngsters would like to be in the lineup together when the Wildcats face Minnesota this fall. Neither boy is Swedish, but Buffmire is tabbed "Olaf" and Kean is known as "Knute" by the brothers at the Sigma Chi house.

Tony Samartzia, promising sophomore tackle on Northwestern's football team, has hopes of an operatic career. Tony, who hails from East Chicago, Ind., is enrolled in the Music school where his instructors say he has a good chance of realizing his ambition. In addition to possessing a fine musical voice, Tony is also adept as a trumpet player. His immediate objective, however, is winning a regular tackle position on the Wildcat football team.

Bill Deoduic and Erv Weingartner, sophomores on Northwestern's football team this fall, will never give cause for concern over their scholastic standings. Both made A minus averages as freshmen. Deoduic, an end, is majoring in chemistry, and Weingartner, quarterback, is concentrating on mathematics.

As just another halfback on a team boasting a number of backfield veterans, Bill de Correvont, up for his final year of college opposition, may realize some of the predictions made for him two years ago.

Free at long last from the heavy burden of publicity and unhampered by injuries which sidelined him much of his last year, de Correvont has turned in an impressive performance during the early season practice sessions this fall.

The chunky tow head from Chicago's Austin high school, began his college career three years ago under the most trying conditions in the history of the sport. His fabulous high school performance had placed him in the full glare of publicity which clung to him long after he entered college.

Through it all, de Correvont kept his feet on the ground; came out for freshman football with an earnest and conscientious attitude toward football, his teammates, and his school.

He had some big moments that first season. His greatest sophomore achievement was a game-winning 60 yard touchdown run against Minnesota to give the Wildcats a 14 to 7 victory.

A capitulation of his first year performance shows that he gained 279 yards in 86 attempts for a 3.2 average per carry; he completed 20 out of 48 passes for 215 yards and averaged 39 yards per kick.

Had it not been for a sprained ankle in the Wisconsin game midway in the season he probably would have emerged as one of the year's great backs.

As it was, he sparked Northwestern to three early season victories over Syracuse, Ohio State and Wisconsin. His free-wheeling victory sprint against Ohio State in last fall's 6 to 3 triumph was a sample of his prowess. He ran 65 yards for a touchdown against Wisconsin before sustaining the injury which kept him on the inactive list until the closing games. He returned to pitch a 35 yard touchdown pass against Michigan and unreeling a fancy 75 yard run against Notre Dame. He carried the ball 61 times for 260 yards, an average of 4.2 yards per carry. He completed 14 out of 27 passes and averaged 36.8 yards per carry in his two years of competition.

He spent his summer vacation at a boys' camp near International Falls, Minn., where he kept in condition by taking long canoe trips. He likes the north country and hopes some day to build his own log cabin in Canada. Dizzy Dean is his favorite athlete. While he has won two letters in baseball he fears that inability to hit curve balls may keep him out of the majors. He is a member of Sigma Chi fraternity.

WILSON'S Weekly RECIPES

No Wasteful Oven Shrinkage
The longer a ham cooks, the more it shrinks. Wilson's Certified Smoked Ham shrinks very little because Wilson's Secret Process makes it so tender it requires less cooking than most hams.

CAN I BAKE BETTER FLAVOR INTO HAM?

If rich flavor isn't in the ham to start with, you can't bake it in. But with Wilson's Certified Smoked Ham, you can always be sure of a marvelous flavor. Baste it or not, with ginger ale or champagne, anoint it with brown sugar or honey as you prefer—if it's a Wilson's Certified Smoked Ham, it's going to have wonderful flavor.

BACON FOR SCHOOL-DAY LUNCHEONS
AN OLD FAVORITE is bacon, tomato, and Certified Cheese put on a slice of bread in just that order and broiled. Try this with Family Style Certified Bacon. It has a far more delicious flavor than most bacon, because it is sliced thicker, then packed back on the rind as though it had never been sliced. The tasty smoked flavor stays in. Use this bacon for better breakfasts, lunches, and dinners.

Doctor Recommends
Fried Liver with Certified Bacon—a storehouse of vitamins and iron.
See you next week. G. R.

CAN'T-FAIL RECIPE
First, have the ham at room temperature (68° F. to 70° F.). Then it requires only 16 to 18 minutes per pound in an open roaster in a 325° F. to 350° F. oven. At the end of that time, take it from the oven, remove skin, sprinkle the fat with brown sugar, and return it to a 400° F. oven to get deliciously brown. Now it's ready to serve—hot or cold.
