

Society -- Womens News -- Locals

GIVE VICTORY BALL IN MORAINÉ BALL ROOM

Hotel Moraine on-the-Lake's fall and winter dancing season will be opened Thursday night, October 2, with a formal Victory Ball in the Ball Room and the New Amsterdam Dining Room, Manager Harold A. Sage announced today.

Dick Jurgens, his band and vocalists will come out from the Aragon ballroom for the one night to inaugurate the hotel's program of dances which will be held each Friday and Saturday night following the party October 2nd. The band that will play at these subsequent parties will be announced later.

Guests of honor at the Victory Ball will be officers from Fort Sheridan and the Great Lakes Naval Training Station. One of the special dance numbers will reflect the military and victory theme.

Band leader Jurgens is bringing with him his well known vocalists Harry Cool and Buddy Moreno and his piano player Lew Quadling. "Elmer's Tune," current rage of the song waves, recently introduced by Jurgens will be played as only its original interpreters can play it.

The Victory ball will be the first dancing party ever held in the new dining room of the hotel. Manager Sage suggests that reservations for the Victory Ball be made early.

Hold D.A.R. Party At Moraine Hotel

Moraine-on-the-Lake Hotel will be the setting for the Annual card party and tea on Tuesday, September 30th at 2 p. m. when the North Shore Chapter of the D. A. R. welcomes members and friends.

This card party and tea is looked forward to from year to year by members and friends as one of the fall's occasions.

The committees in charge have been working very hard to make this party unusually pleasant. Many lovely door prizes have been donated and the Chapter greatly appreciates this cooperation and extends a most cordial welcome to all the women of the community.

The proceeds from this party is used to carry on the philanthropies of the community which the chapter annually participates as well as supports two mountain school in the South among the underprivileged children and the Ellis and Angel Islands work among the immigrants. Tickets are still available and contributions may be sent to Mrs. Jerry Leaning, 311 Marshman Ave., Highland Park.

Please keep the date in mind and help to make this card party a delightful affair as well as to encourage the North Shore Chapter, to carry on the work which it has carried on for so long a period of time.

Give Bridge Lectures At Exmoor Club

A course of eight lectures on contract bridge bidding will be given at Exmoor, starting Friday, October 3 at 10:45 o'clock, by Josephine Walters O'Neil. Members may bring guests. There will be a small fee for the lectures. Luncheon reservations must be made.

Are Married At Bride's Home

Miss Betty Kugel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Kugel, 410 North Linden avenue, and Harry Hansen Jr., son of the Senior Hansens, were married Saturday at the home of the bride's parents. Dr. Louis Sherwin read the services.

Miss Kugel, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a white chiffon gown, on classic lines. She carried a white prayer book, from which streamers of flowers fell. Her sister, Miss Marilyn Kugel, a student of Purdue university, was the bride's only attendant. She wore pink chiffon.

Robert L. Hansen, came from Drake university to serve as best man, for his brother.

Immediately following the marriage a reception was held at the Kugel home.

After a motor trip through the southwest the young couple will reside in Highland Park.

Honors Son With Birthday Party

John Arthur Kalk, 1423 Main street, entertained a number of children at the home of his mother, Mrs. Edward Kalk, Thursday afternoon, in honor of his seventh birthday. Present were: Mrs. Floyd Patrick, Douglas Dever, Jean Lindsay, Shirley Walbrink, Wayne Patrick, Lois, Albert and Virginia Mecham and Archie and Marilyn Jones.

The Dorsey D. Husenetter family, 1224 Burton avenue, are enjoying a vacation in the Smokie Mountains.

Announce Dates of Book Review Series

The Book Review Series for 1941-1942 sponsored by the Woman's Association of the Highland Park Presbyterian Church will be held as usual on the second Monday of the month at 2 p. m. in the Parish House of the church.

Mrs. Robert A. Bryant, chairman of Activities Committee of the Association, and her committee, have formulated plans to make these Reviews entertaining and worth-while. They have chosen speakers whom they believe to be well-qualified in this special field.

The speakers, and dates of meetings are as follows:

Mrs. Ethel Brazelton of Chicago, for October 13, 1941, November 10, 1941 and January 2, 1942.

Mrs. Brazelton has twice in the past conducted lectures in the Highland Park Woman's Club and in the Y. W. C. A. She is also known to many of our members as a speaker on current events at the Chicago Woman's Club.

Dr. Harris Franklin Rall for December 9th, 1941.

Dr. Rall has been on the Garrett faculty in connection with Northwestern University for twenty-five years, and is considered one of the leading religious thinkers of the day. He will review his own book, "Christianity, an Inquiry into its Nature and Truth," for which he was awarded a $15,000 prize as the outstanding religious book of the year.

Mrs. Elizabeth S. Harvey of Evanston for February 9th, March 9th and April 13, 1942.

Mrs. Harvey is well-known in Evanston and comes to Highland Park well-recommended as an able and outstanding speaker.

These Reviews are open to the public and season tickets, or individual tickets, all interchangeable, can be obtained from the group leaders of the Woman's Association, or at the church.

Becomes Bride of St. Charles Man

Miss Doris Inman became the bride of Roland Neri of St. Charles Saturday at St. James Church with Father Ward performing the ceremony. Attendants were Mrs. Mary Neri, Miss Margaret Neri, Michael Arbizoni.

A wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents, 580 Glenview avenue. A reception was held at Pearson hall, St. Charles in the evening. After a short honeymoon, the couple will reside in St. Charles.

Celebrate High Mass At Mocogne-Ori Wed

Miss Lina Mocogni, daughter of Egidio Mocogni, former Mayor of Highwood, and John Ori of this city were married Saturday morning at St. James church. Father James D. Gleason officiated at the wedding. High mass was celebrated by Father Ward.

Miss Helen Mocogni was the maid of honor and Margaret Borchardt, Helen Cassidy and Faustina Cassidy were bridesmaids. Best man was the groom's cousin, Victor Bartolai. The ushers were Louis Mocogni, Alfred Fiore and Bruno Lunardi.

A wedding breakfast was served at the bride's home, 127 High St. In the afternoon a dinner was served to 65 guests, and a reception which was attended by 1,000 guests was held at the Masonic temple in the evening.

Tuxis Society Holds Rally Day

On Sunday, September 28, the Tuxis Young People, of the Highland Park Presbyterian Church, will hold their Rally Day Tea. The tea will be served at 6:30 followed by sound movies at 7:30.

The annual Candle Light service, which is the installation of officers, will be held at 8:00 o'clock in the Parish House. Traver Hamilton is in charge of this meeting.

The officers for the coming year are: President, Barbara Cole, Recreation Chairman; Paul Date Jr., Social Chairman; Sue Howe, Secretary and Treasurer; Ruth Thompson, Worship Chairman; Mary Jane Macfadden. Mary L. Dyer has offered her services as Pianist.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Davis, Pueblo, Colorado, former local residents, are the parents of a son, Edmund LeRoy, who was born September 14.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Cassel, 1400 Pleasant avenue, have returned home from Boston where they spent a short vacation.

Mrs. Niek Young is visiting relatives and friends in Marion, Indiana.

Mrs. Richard L. Schneider who was Miss Alice Quigley, of Evanston, before her marriage, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester G. Wood Jr. flew from New York over the weekend to visit with his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas King Jr., 656 Homewood avenue. Their mother, Mrs. L. G. Wood Sr., 858 Glencoe avenue, returned from Berkeley, California to be with her family.

Will Reside In Springfield

Miss Alice Louise Quigley, Evanston, wore white faille and carried a bouquet of white roses and carnations, for her wedding to Richard L. Schneider, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugo L. Schneider of this city, Saturday, in the Redeemer Lutheran church, here. Rev. Paul A. Munding, Glencoe heard the wedding vows. Miss Helen Quigley was her sister's only attendant and wore yellow chiffon and carried blue larkspur and tea roses. Hugo Schneider, Jr., was best man. Ushers were Robert Schneider and Louis Quigley.

A bridal dinner was served at the Open House tearoom, with a reception at the home of the groom's parents following. The young Schneiders will make their home in Springfield.

Will Hold Meeting Of OES Friday

Campbell Chapter Guild, Order of the Eastern Star, will meet at the Masonic Temple Friday, September 26th, at 1:30 p. m. Dessert will be served after which cards will be played. Hostesses for the day will be Jeanie McEwen, Regina Christensen, Salome Roebor, and Ethel Stanger. Members are urged to come and bring their friends.

Are Honeymooning In Colorado

Wearing white satin, Miss Mary Lettanzi, Winnetka, became the bride of Louis Ugolini, son of Mr. and Mrs. Marco Ugolini, of this city, in a marriage service performed at the Sacred Heart Church, Winnetka, by Rev. F. J. Haarth.

The bridesmaids, Pierini Lettanzi, Norma Lazerato, Mrs. Virginia Ori, and Mary Ugolini, wore peach colored taffeta more dresses.

Joseph Minorini served as best man. Ushers were Pat and Dominic Venturi, Henry Bollini and Alfred Ori. Diana Juliana was flower girl and John Ugolini was the ring bearer. A wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents.

After a wedding trip to Colorado the couple will live at 225 McDaniels avenue.

Are Married at St. James Rectory

Miss Bernice Connolly, daughter of the J. W. Connollys, and Stanley V. Jung, Waukegan, were married Saturday in the rectory of St. James church. Father James Gleason read the nuptial services.

Miss Connolly wore white marquisette and a fingertip veil. Her flowers were white roses and chrysanthemums. Miss Anna Connolly, sister of the bride wore blue marquisette, and gardenias. Ned Kelley, Burlington, Wisconsin, served as best man.

A reception was held at the Sun-tives set Valley Country Club.

Payton Allen has returned to the University of Illinois, where he is enrolled in the school of commerce.

Miss Carolyn DeBartolo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alex DeBartolo, 224 Oakridge avenue, left for Iowa State University, where she is a sophomore.

Mrs. Helen Golden and daughter Gloria Jeanne and Mrs. Millie Conrad have returned from a motor trip spent in Canada.

Mrs. Clarence Balke, 40 Deere Park Dr., S. is spending a vacation at Nova Scotia.

Stansfield Turner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver S. Turner, 2432 Deere Park, Dr., N. has gone to Amherst, Mass., where he will enter Amherst College as a freshman.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert K. Hardacre will return Sunday from Atlanta, Ga., where they have spent the past week attending the Illuminating Engineering convention. Mr. Hardacre is the national treasurer of the society.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Rice have moved to Highland Park from Evanston.

Dr. and Mrs. Chester Anderson, 630 Onwentsia avenue, have returned from a two weeks vacation spent in Rochester, New York.

Civic Group Meets At Deerfield Home

The Deerfield Civic association met Tuesday evening, after the summer vacation. Lynn Brenne is the new president of the organization. He succeeds Everett F. Nelson.

Rotary to Judge Contest Pictures

Photographs taken by members of the Highland Park Camera Club and entered in the competition sponsored by the Hotel Moraine-on-the-Lake will be judged at the Hotel, Monday, September 29 by the Highland Park Rotary Club, Manager Harold A. Sage announced today.

The first prize winner will receive a check for $10. The second prize is a dinner for two persons in the hotel's New Amsterdam dining room. Competing prints will be judged on the basis of unusual composition, news interest and pictorial value.

Arrangements are being made to display the pictures at the hotel for a week or longer where they may be seen by the public. Club President C. E. Keovil has instructed members to bring their prints to the club meeting, September 24, for entry at the hotel showing and competition.

Quality Cleaners

Phone H. P. 178

RELIABLE LAUNDRY AND DRY CLEANING CO.

The Evanston Academy of Fine Arts

Art training for business or recreation. Adults and children. Opens Sept. 15.

Enroll now. Call Gr. 1674.

636 Church St. Evanston

Coat Surprise

BY MARTHA WEATHERED

HAND-KNIT ACCENT on a black wool coat! Unexpected... completely effective! Typical Martha Weathered touch! Hand-knit trim on the round yoke... knit cuffs like old-fashioned "wrists." A distinguished coat of richly textured wool, with alligator belt. Warmly lined for all-weather wear. An exceptional fashion-value . . . $110

Martha Weathered Shops
IN THE DRAKE... AND THE MISSISS SHOP AT MICHIGAN AND OAK

FREEDOM ***

FROM HOUSEKEEPING CARES

DEFENSE ***

AGAINST RISING COSTS

In these times . . . now, even more than before . . . these smart town homes provide Chicago's finest facilities and location for convenient, economical and carefree living.

Put the Dewey Apartments on your "Must See" list . . . before you decide . . . where you will reside.

View of Hotel, grounds and beach and two Dewey Studio Apartments.

Dewey Apartments

5300 BLOCK SHERIDAN ROAD

EDGEWATER BEACH HOTEL

CONVENIENCE
On the lake and upper edge of Lincoln Park. By express bus and private motor coach, 20 minutes from the loop.

FULL HOTEL SERVICE
No servant problem. No house-keeping worries or extra expenses. One monthly payment covers all of the usual homemaking expenses . . . less than the average you are paying for the same items today.

MODERATE RENTALS
Studio Apartments. A living room by day, a comfortable bed room of sight, and bath. For one, from $65. For two, from $85. Two rooms and larger apartments, priced accordingly.