chiatric or social casework, to determine at intake what kind of boy the offender was and to know his special problems. If these were known, there were very few treatment committee of the board of ment facilities available and nothing could be done but watch him.

New Personnel

"Until now the institution has had one man who served both as physician and psychiatrist for over 600 boys. Over 90 per cent of his time had to be devoted to health and physical care of both the inmates and the staff. Under the new plan two full time psychiatrists, one physician, one psychologist and four psychiatric caseworkers, under the supervision of an exceptionally well qualified psychiatric social worker, will be included in the personnel to try to sort these boys out and by frequent checks and consultations with the rest of the staff offer some plan of treatment.

"It is hoped that this program will also help in the problem of parole. In the past boys have been judged safe for parole if they had conformed to the institutional life and had not been too troublesome, but the old saying that 'still water runs deep' seems to apply to the socially maladjusted also, as often the boy who is quiet under institutional supervision is unable to live under the conditions imposed by the foster home to which he is paroled and a blow-out results.

"Better foster homes, with closer supervision and better cooperation between them and the treatment program at St. Charles, are being sought. All the employees, with the exception of the managing officers, will be under civil service, selected on the basis of merit. If these plans carry through it will be the first time that St. Charles has been free from political patronage.

"A new day has dawned for St. Charles but we as citizens have much to do to help this new order. 1. We must work for more child welfare services in every community in the state and so keep boys out of St. Charles. 2. We must see that the public and our legislators know the value of a treatment program at St. Charles and will furnish the tax money for its upkeep and development.

3. We must by continued interest and contacts with the school keep ourselves informed on the purpose and progress of the program at St. Charles in order to sell it to the public and so insure its continued support by the public."

Miss Dorothy Greer of Washington, program secretary of the national league of Women Voters, will discuss the role of the league in national defense at the semi-annual Department Day planned for the department chairmen in the Chicago area to be held Tuesday, September 30, in Chicago. Plans for the state-wide study of taxation to be made the coming year by the local leagues in their own communities will be discussed during the day.

During the business sessions the various state chairmen, including Mrs. Maurice Pollak, state chairman of government and economic welfare, and Mrs. Marc Law, state chairman of government and its operation, both of Highland Park, will preside at the round table discussion. Sessions will convene at 10:30 a. m. at Judson-Burton Court at the University of Chicago. Mrs. Philip Ringer of the Highland Park league will make reservations for all Highland Parkers attending.

Service Wives Invited

At a board meeting of the Highland Park League of Women Voters held on Wednesday, September 17 at the home of the president, Mrs. Philip Ringer, it was decided to extend the privileges of membership to the wives of service men stationed at Fort Sheridan, and also the wives of Great Lakes men if residing in Highland Park. The notice of this decision is to be posted on the bulletin boards of the Officers Club and the Service Men's Club, and on the general bulletin board at Fort Sheridan. The secretary was asked to later send notices regarding all meetings of the League—the study classes as well as the regular monthly meetings, to be posted on these same bulletin boards.

At this meeting the board accepted the resignations of Mrs. Charles Grimes and Mrs. Robert Grinnell as precinct chairmen, and approved the executive committee's selection of Mrs. Spencer Keare and Mrs. Raymond Simons as new precinct chairmen.

It was also decided to hold the Annual Town Meeting at approximately the same time as last year—probably the end of October. The idea of having the city fathers have an opportunity to explain their various problems to the public is an excellent way to reach a mutual understanding, as well as lead to better government.

spire character, training to serve and where merit and honor will be rewarded.

During the next several weeks Chief Andrews states that he hopes to have the opportunity of appearing before all of the P. T. A. and school organizations in order that he may have the opportunity of explaining the plan in detail and answering questions. This he adds is especially important as much of the success of school safety is based on the complete understanding and the cooperation in the home.

Dr. Spears Speaks To American Legion

Dr. Harold Spears, principal of the Highland Park High School will be the guest speaker at the meeting of the Dumars Spencer Post of the American Legion to-night at 8 o'clock, in the Legion club rooms, 21 North Sheridan road. He will speak on "Where is the High School going today?"

THE GRAPEVINE

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest A. Lemm, 1067 Central Ave., Deerfield, took a ride Monday night to relax. Mr. Lemm stopped at the intersection of Deerfield and Wilmet rds. to light a cigar, when two young bandits held them up, taking $4 from Lemm and $425 worth of jewelry from Mrs. Lemm. Besides a lump on his head, from a gentle rap over the head which one of the young robbers administered with a flashlight, Mr. Lemm and his wife are definitely not RELAXED.

Al Kloos, local jeweler, suffered a right cut ear last week, when he lost control of his car at the bend of the road on route 42 near the North Shore car barns. Five guard posts along the route were demolished.

Mr. X of the community center will leave Saturday for Baltimore to attend the annual convention of the National Recreation association. He will pick up new ideas for the local center. Nice guy, that Mr. X.

Damon and Phythias are pals and buddies again! James F. Dennis, 2400 South Green Bay Road filed a complaint against his good friend, Edmund C. Mathe, 89 Ridgewood Dr., over the weekend, charging disorderly conduct and disturbing the peace. Dennis not only paid the $25 bond at the time of the arrest, but also paid half the fine! ! !

William N. Steffen formerly of this city who entered the army last March, received a medical discharge from the army and has returned to Chicago to resume his law practice.

Mrs. Eva Caroline Kelly, Highwood, filed suit for divorce from her husband, Edward, of Philadelphia, charging desertion. Kelly left his wife and 2 children January 14, 1929, and Mrs. Kelly thinks he's been gone long enough.

Mayor Charles Portila, Highwood, doesn't want the chuck holes on his street fixed! He told the street committee that he loved every hole in Clay street because speeders either drove slow or paid broken spring bills—so Clay street won't be fixed!

Nice to see Mrs. Ruth Williams as assistant at the Service Men's Club. She is the widow of Chaplain Ira Williams, Fort Sheridan, and all of the young soldiers think her "tops".

Mrs. William Egan, 300 Egandale rd., has an 18 year old cactus plant that bore 31 blossoms last week. Four buds opened Tuesday night, 24 Wednesday night and 2 more Thursday night.

Mrs. Wilhelm, 84 Buried Tuesday

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon for Mrs. Christine Wilhelm, 84, at the eKiley chapel. Rev. Lester H. Laubenstein, pastor of the Bethany Evangelical church officiated. Interment was in the North Northfield cemetery.

Mrs. Wilhelm, a resident of Highland Park for 66 years, is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Margaret Daly, Highland Park; two grandchildren, James Daly Jr. and Mrs. Pegeen Meier; and four half brothers and two half sisters living in Wisconsin. Her husband, John Wilhelm passed away about 12 years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Cassel, 1400 Pleasant avenue returned Saturday from Swampscott, Mass. and Canada.

Invitations Out For "Swing Club"

"Swing Club" which is beginning its fourth season of dances for the sophomores, juniors and seniors of Highland Park and the North Shore has sent out invitations for the 1941-42 season. An equal number of boys and girls will be accepted for membership until the membership is closed.

The dances are given by the Highland Park Woman's Club in the clubhouse at Elm street and Sheridan road. This season they will be given under the direction of Mrs. David T. Sanders of Woodbridge lane. Assisting her will be Mrs. Carroll A. Bartlett in charge of reservations; Mrs. Benedict K. Goodman, hostesses; and Mrs. Ben S. Buckmaster, refreshments.

The committee is planning excellent orchestras and several novelties. Dances will be both informal and formal. The first dance will be held on Saturday evening, October 18, from 9 o'clock until 12.

Sponsors are:

Mrs. and Mr. Carroll A. Bartlett; Mrs. and Mr. Aaron S. Bauer; Mrs. and Mr. Benedict K. Goodman; Mrs. and Mr. C. Hubert E. Jones; Mrs. and Mr. Leonard Kugel; Mrs. and Mr. E. T. R. Murfey; Mrs. and Mr. Harry G. Pertz.

Community Orchestra Doesn't Want Any Virtuoso Violinists

The Community Orchestra of Highland Park sent out a novel appeal for players this week, asking for violinists who should preferably be inexperienced, according to Conductor Everett L. Millard, Concertmaster Dr. I. M. Greenberg and Principal Violinist Mildred Cruse. The music played by the orchestra is chosen, they explained, so that players of a moderate degree of proficiency may learn with sufficient practise to play it well together.

"Highland Park has a good many people who put away their cellos, flutes and violins when they stopped taking music lessons," the Orchestra announcement said. "Perhaps they can't practise now but the Community Orchestra offers a chance to keep up the instrument. We would like to get some of those instruments back into action again. The Orchestra exists to give local players the pleasure of making music together."

The leaders of the orchestra made it clear that newcomers to Highland Park who play string or woodwind instruments are welcome, and that anyone knowing of such arrivals will do the orchestra a service by letting them know.

"What we need are about half a dozen players who are just fair to middlin', not too good," Concertmaster Greenberg supplemented the appeal. "Of course if we should get a virtuoso or two, perhaps a budding Heifetz, we won't object!"

Kiwanis to Meet At Moraine Monday

Business and plans for future Kiwanis meetings will be discussed and transacted at next Monday's Kiwanis meeting at the Hotel Moraine-on-the-Lake.

John Munro, president, will preside. Community singing will be led by Harry Skidmore.

Solly Thurston, before a record breaking crowd of local Kiwanians, at last Monday's meeting outlined the Adult Educational Program.
