Dickenson Attends Floral Luncheon

Representatives of garden clubs of Illinois and Indiana and of floral and horticulture societies attended a luncheon last week at the Stevens Hotel and made plans for the 23rd annual National Flower and Garden show to be held at the International Amphitheater in Chicago, March 15 to 22.

Highland Park was represented at this luncheon by Mr. J. David Dickinson, 2455 N. Deere Park Dr.

ROBERT E. SPEER WILL SPEAK AT ORCHESTRA HALL

Robert E. Speer, chairman of the General Wartime Commission of the Churches during the last War, will bring a timely message to the Chicago Sunday Evening Club in Orchestra Hall next Sunday at 8 p. m. Soldiers and sailors on leave in the city over the weekend, will be especially invited to attend by President Clifford W. Barnes, who will preside and introduce his friend and contemporary.

The meeting at which Dr. Speer speaks will begin at eight o'clock with music by the Club's Choir of 125 voices. The program, arranged by Director Edgar Nelson, includes sacred numbers by Schubert, Wolf and Stevenson. Mark Love, soloist of the evening, will sing "Our Father which art in heaven." He will be accompanied by Robert Yale Smith. Charles M. Moderwell of Evanston, a trustee of the Club, will read scripture.

Will Teach Bridge Lessons at Moraine

Mrs. Jeanette W. Lefler, Culbertson Master Degree bridge teacher, has been selected to conduct fall and winter weekly classes in bridge at Hotel Moraine On-the-Lake, Harold A. Sage, manager of the hotel announced today.

The first morning class was held Friday, October 3 at 11:30 o'clock in the morning. The first evening class was on Wednesday.

Mrs. Lefler is one of the best known instructors in bridge in this part of the country. She has won cups and other honors at numerous competition and last January, in the New York bridge convention tournament she defeated Mrs. Joseph Culbertson. In 1939 she won the All-American Women's Fair Championship. Her partner was Mrs. H. H. Smith of Cincinnati.

Following each Friday morning's bridge lecture, luncheon will be served in the New Amsterdam dining room of the hotel after which Mrs. Lefler will supervise bridge playing and demonstrations of various Culbertson and other conventions.

Plan Bus Trip To Chicago

The Friendship Club (household employees) is planning a bus trip for October 16th, which will include places of interest in Chicago such as the Olson Rug Co., the Tribune Newspaper plant, dinner and more interesting sight seeing in the evening. Any girls desirous of taking this trip must register now at the Y.W.C.A. 374 Laurel Ave., as the number is limited.

This Club is a very active one, and its purpose is to enable household employees to get acquainted and enjoy a program of recreation and entertainment on Thursdays and Sundays, when the "Y" is open to them. Tea is served on Thursdays by members of the Board of Directors, to which all girls are invited. Club meetings are held the 1st and 3rd Thursday evenings of the month when an informal program is arranged. Mrs. George Prindle, a member of the Board is especially interested in this club, and invites all girls to join.

HIGHLANDER CLUB TO MEET FRIDAY

The initial meeting of the Highlander Club will open with a steak and supper meeting at the Bucky Harris home on Telegraph road, Bannockburn on Friday, Oct. 10, at seven o'clock. Bring your own steaks and supper; coffee will be served by the Club.

Several new innovations have been planned for the ensuing meetings. President Bucky Harris will discuss them. You, also, will meet your old pals and the new members of the Club.

Officers for the current year are as follows: the Bucky Harris's President, the Rex Andrews' Vice President, the Stanley W. McKee's Secretary and Treasurer.

James Garnett, 822 South Linden avenue, will be one of the ushers at the Tideman-Sprenger wedding, Kenilworth, Saturday.

Will Hold Meeting of Johanna Lodge

The first regular meeting of the North Shore Committee of Johanna Lodge will be held Thursday, Oct. 9 at the North Shore Temple in Glencoe. Members will convene at 10 a. m. for hospital sewing and are urged to come promptly.

The next regular meeting of the Johanna Lodge No. 9 of the United Order of True Sisters will be held Thursday Oct. 16 at 1:30 p. m. at the Emil G. Hisch Center. Following the regular business meeting, there will be a Style Show. A galaxy of charming members will display beautiful clothes and alluring millinery.

MORTON ARBORETUM MEETS OCTOBER 14

The Morton Arboretum is pleased to announce a lecture, "Along the Nature Trail," to be given by Mrs. Raymond Watts, at the Administration Building, on the evening of October 14, at 8:15 p. m.

The second of the fall lectures is scheduled for Tuesday evening November 11. Mr. B. D. Holley, President of the Commonwealth Edison Camera Club and the West Suburban Camera Club, will speak on "Landscape Photography," stressing the equipment, materials and methods used.

These lectures are available to anyone interested at no admission charge.

Highwood Scouts To Raise $600

The Highwood Boy Scout Finance Drive is now under way to raise their 1941 Quota of $600.00. Mr. Otto F. Fisher is Finance Chairman, J. E. Engquist is District Chairman and Roy Russell is Troop Chairman of the Highwood District.

Among the organizations who have been very kind in assisting with their contributions are the Highwood Tavern Assn. who donated $25.00 and the Women's Prosperity Club $5.00.

Miss Helen Marguerite West, 381 Elm Pl., Highland Park, Ill., is enrolled at Murray State College this fall. She is the daughter of E. E. West, Highland Park, and is a sophomore here. Miss West is a member of the Vivace Club, a musical organization; the Sock and Buskin dramatic club; and is in the college band and orchestra.
