

Ravinia School Pupils Visit Field Museum

On Tuesday, Oct. 7th, Miss Sinkler took the sixth grade, north on a field trip to the Oriental Institute and the Field Museum. We started out at 7:05 a.m. with the children's mothers taking us.

We first made a tour of the Oriental Institute with Mr. Hines taking us around and showing us the different exhibits on the Egyptians and other countries of the far east. Mr. Hines showed us a reproduction of the Rosetta stone, which has three different languages, the Greek, Ptolemaic and Egyptian hieroglyphics, and then we saw other kinds of Egyptian second Babylonian writing, called "wedge" and picture writing. He also showed the group a statue of a winged bull weighing forty tons. There was a small nobleman's house, which was very realistic.

After that very interesting and profitable tour we went to a park and ate our lunch.

After our lunch we went on to the Field Museum where Mr. Grove took us around. He first showed us some mummies and mummy tombs. He also took us into a dark room and showed us an X-ray of a wrapped mummy. We then saw some scenes from the earliest cavemen to the lake dwellers.

We wish to thank Mrs. Huettman, Mrs. Harris, Mrs. Weber and Mrs. Meyerhoff for driving us, and Miss Sinkler for letting us take the trip.

Jack Smart.

Hold Dog Show At Coliseum

Dog owners and fanciers from the entire Greater Chicago area are preparing their canine bluebloods for one of the largest of the nation's dog shows—the thirty-first annual Western Specialty Club Association show—which will be held in Chicago's Coliseum on November 29 and 30.

Last year 1,234 of America's best show dogs were brought to Chicago to be bencher at the show, Adolph F. Kramer, president of the association, stated. One of the features of the November show will be the addition of a Winner's Circle to the show's events. The Winner's Circle will consist of a series of twenty-four booths, arranged in a circle, on which the Best of Breed dogs for each of the twenty-four participating breeds will be shown. The grouping of these top show winners will allow spectators to easily see all the Best of Breeds at one time, he said.

With twenty-four separate specialty clubs participating in the show, the event actually becomes twenty-four shows in one, Kramer pointed out. Other show features will include a children's handling class and obedience trials.

Highlight of the participating clubs include the Companion Shepherd club's entry of four German Shepherds with Utility dog ratings, the highest honor a dog may receive in obedience trials. Among the Utility dogs to be shown will be Baron Karlo von Westholtz, owned by C. A. Koerner of Elmwood Park, Illinois, historian of the Companion Shepherd Club and Chandra von Chicagoland, owned by Carl F. Peterson of Elmwood Park, Illinois, a member of the club's bench show committee.

Harry Osborne of Chicago will judge for the Mid-West Great Dane Club, Mrs. Fred Evanger of Wheeling, Illinois, secretary of the club announced. Mrs. Frank Curran of Oak Park, Illinois, will serve on the club's bench show committee. Recently elected officers of the club include Peter C. Crieg of Oak Park, Illinois; Dr. W. B. Egan of River Forest, Illinois; and Mrs. D. E. Hale of Glen Ellyn, Illinois.

A trophy and cash award for every class of competition will be offered by the Western English Setter and Western Irish Setter Clubs, H. J. Cooper of Franklin Park, Illinois, president of the club, said. Dr. Franklin Pierce of Wilmette, Illinois, is the club's first vice-president.

Other officers and members of participating specialty clubs who are working on the November show competitions include P. J. Henneberry, Homewood, Illinois, vice-president, Irish-Terrier Club of Chicago; Albert Butterworth, Highland Park, Illinois, steward for the Scottish Terrier Club of Chicago; Dr. Noel S. Young, Lake Forest, Illinois, vice-president of the American Sealyham Terrier Club and Mrs. Homer R. Cooper, Evanston, Illinois, secretary of the Midwest Standard Schnauzer Club.

Mr. and Mrs. William Vetter and Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Noenberg motored to Freeport Saturday to visit Rev. and Mrs. H. F. Siemsen. Rev. Siemsen is a former Highland Park pastor.

Miss Elizabeth Davis of Highland Park recently became a pledge of Alpha Psi Chapter of Gamma Phi Beta at Lake Forest College, Lake Forest, Ill.

Deerfield Stagers Play November 7

The completion of the cast for "The Milky Way," the Deerfield Stagers' fall production, was announced last week and the play is now in rehearsal under the direction of Jim Tibbetts.

Heading the cast is Dorris Endebrack as "Burleigh Sullivan," the milkman who becomes a prizefighter. This part, played on the screen by Harold Lloyd, is one of the best comedy characters ever written for the stage.

"Speed MacFarland," world's middleweight champ, played by Brian Donlevy in the original Broadway show, is portrayed in the Stagers' production by Kenny Harlen, former star of Lake Forest College dramatics and athletics.

Jim Tibbetts is "Gabby Sloan," Speed's manager who has a terrible time with Speed's reputation as a fighter.

"Mae Sullivan," Burleigh's pretty little sister who falls in love with Speed, is acted by Nora Margaret Russell.

Helping Gabby with a few well placed cracks and some practical psychology, is Eleanor Grossman as "Anne Westley," a Broadway show girl.

"Spider," Speed's trainer ties Burleigh Sullivan for the honor of causing Gabby the most trouble. This bungling and cheerful individual is a riot in the hands of Russell Mau.

Jim Russell as "Wilbur Austin," society man, buys Burleigh's contract and plans for a big fight to be held at the Palmer House.

Jack Anderson and Tim Shugrue complete the cast as a couple of fast thinking sports reporters who get everything wrong.

"The Milky Way" will be produced at the Deerfield Grammar School on Friday, November 7.

28 Year Olds Must Conform To Orders From Local Board

"Although deferred by law from actual military training, Selective Service registrants who are more than 28 years old must conform to orders from their local boards or be liable to penalties prescribed for delinquents," Paul G. Armstrong, State Director of Selective Service, cautioned them today.

"While the amendment to the Selective Training and Service Act of 1940 recently adopted by Congress precludes induction of men who were 28 years of age or older on July 1, 1941, these registrants must live up to the other obligations imposed upon them by the Act," the Director said.

"Questionnaires must be filed at the request of the registrants' local boards," he declared, "and any registrant who fails to comply with such requests may be considered as a delinquent and be liable to fine or imprisonment, or both, under the penalty clause of the Act."

"Although registrants who were 28 years of age or older on July 1, 1941, must fill out questionnaires," Director Armstrong said, "when it becomes evident that they are deferred because of age, they will be placed in the proper deferred classification by their local boards."

"It is intended," he declared, "that hereafter registrants who are deferred by reason of age will continue to be classified in the same manner as other registrants, except that they will be given no physical examination, and except that those of such registrants who are being classified for the first time and who are not classified into Class IV, Class III, or Class II will be placed in Class I-H. Those of such registrants who are classified into Class I or Class IV-E before becoming entitled to deferment by reason of age, will be placed into Class I-H and Class IV-E-H respectively upon becoming entitled to deferment by reason of age," Director Armstrong pointed out.

President of the Student Congress at Stephens College, Columbia, Mo., Miss Joanne Sigrist of Highland Park will play hostess with other members of the student government at a tea to be given November 6 for several hundred nationally noted personalities attending the forum on "The American Woman and Her Responsibilities" on the campus November 6, 7 and 8. JANE WYMAN and Regis Toomey have teamed to shatter all records for the screen's longest kiss—it lasted three minutes and five seconds, and you'll see it in Warner Bros.' "You're in the Army Now." The former record was held by Ann Sheridan and George Brent. Jane and Regis, seated on a hard piano bench, were told just to keep on kissing till told to stop, while Donald McBride, playing Jane's father (as well as an army colonel), discussed military problems. First thing they knew, they'd set a new record.

Old-timers may remember "Humoresque," which was filmed way back in 1920 with Alma Rubens, Vera Gordon and Gaston Glass. It's coming back to the screen, this time probably with John Garfield in the Gaston Glass role, that of a violinist whose career is cut short by military conscription.

Fred MacMurray was too young for the last war, so he didn't know what it feels like to crawl through barbed wire entanglements till just the other day. He had to plunge through chicken wire for a scene in "The Lady Is Willing," the new Columbia comedy he's making with Marlene Dietrich. The wire merely surrounded some rabbits, but when he got out he felt as if he'd been through several wars.

Radio's Fibber McGee and Molly are about to lose their privacy. As Mr. and Mrs. J. Jordan they haven't got a single rise out of an autograph hound. But with millions of screen fans seeing them on the screen in "Look Who's Laughing," along with Edgar Bergen and Lucille Ball, they're sure to be recognized wherever they go.

Critics of dramatic schools say that they're no place to learn to act. Paramount's "Gun for Hire" has three answers to that. They are (1) Veronica Lake, (2) Robert Preston, (3) Alan Ladd. All three went to dramatic schools.

ODDS AND ENDS—Victor Mature will be seen as a gangster in Fox's "Highway in Hell," with Pat O'Brien. . . . When George Brent was ill recently Ann Sheridan sent him roses frequently; he had them made into perfume, which he sent her. . . . Harold Lloyd has picked Kay Kyser to star in "My Favorite Spy" . . . Dolores Costello has been signed for the leading role in "The Magnificent Ambersons" . . . Richard Barthelmess, once a screen favorite, return for an important role in RKO's "The Mayor of 44th Street" . . . Melvyn Douglas wooes Garbo in "Two-Faced Woman," and Norma Shearer in "We Were Dancing."
