

GRAPEVINE

By GRACIOUS

E. A. Gross, 2145 Oak Knoll Terrace gave a party at the Moraine hotel last Wednesday night in honor of his wife's birthday. Among other lovely gifts Mr. Gross received a pearl—in her oyster!!! When she bit into the oyster her teeth hit something hard, and believe it or not it really was a pearl. Mr. Gross will have it appraised.

Police Officer Arthur Bock has resigned from the city force effective Saturday, to accept a position with the Socony-Vacuum Oil Company. We'll miss you Art. Good luck on the new job.

Chief of Police Rex Andrews was in Chicago Monday and Tuesday attending the sessions of the civilian defense course conducted by the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

The Highwood police annual ball Saturday night was a dry affair. When the "boys" were about to tap the keg, they were told that arrests would be made if liquor were served. The party was held at the H. P. Labor Temple, and it seems that someone made a complaint to the Highland Park authorities. In the past organizations sold drinks at parties held in the temple, despite its location.

Mr. and Mrs. Randell McComas are at their demolished car, and wailing at their demolished car, and wondering why they are still alive. Their car left the pavement and rolled over three times Monday night near Libertyville. The car driven by Mrs. McComas was completely wrecked, and they are suffering from body bruises.

William Thompson, 24, colored chauffeur for Robert O. Farrell, 250 Vine avenue, "borrowed" his boss's car October 24 and returned it five days later—only William forgot to tell him about it. Now William is being held to the grand jury, for theft. Seems that William and his wife had a fight and he drove down to St. Louis to tell his mother all about it.

Thieves stole more than $10,000 worth of furs, and jewels from the home of Mrs. Adele Marks, 434 Egan-dale road Monday night, as she and her guests sat at the dinner table. Among articles taken were a $4,000 mink coat, another mink valued at $1,500, a jacket worth $1,000, another coat of $400 valuation and a scarf worth $200.

I have a pet peeve, and I feel like exploding it today. You publicity chairmen who send in articles for the paper, single spaced, about four carbons, and ramble on and on and on, probably just haven't been told how to write publicity, and then you wonder why it is sometimes left out, sometimes butchered and occasionally rewritten. Please double space all articles. Please don't ever send an article in that is a fourth carbon copy, and please in your first paragraph tell what, where, when, why and how, and please always sign your name, address and phone number on any article that is brought or sent into the office. Please observe deadlines, and remember the earlier you get your material in, the better (and probably more) space we can give you. I love all publicity chairmen, and I'm glad to have your material, but won't you please co-operate?

Mrs. Nellie W. Hitchcock of this city, who died September 24, 1940, leaves her $1,607,998.99 estate to her four grandchildren, Fremont Hitchcock, Jr., Redwood City, Calif.; Margaret Hitchcock of the same city; Jean Alice Butz, Winnetka and Howard Hitchcock Butz, Keswick, Va.

Ice Skating Pond To Be Improved

According to an announcement by the Lincoln Ice Skating Committee, skating at Lincoln School is to be greatly improved this year.

The grounds located on Park Board property opposite Lincoln School are to be graded, levelled and drained. It is anticipated that this will result in more and better skating. The uneven character of the ground in the past has caused delays in skating and has resulted in bad ice on many occasions. With the improved conditions the ice skating committee looks forward to a busy season.

The Lincoln P. T. A. is the sponsor in the district. Mrs. Helen Spahr last August appointed the following committee:

- Philip J. McKenna, Chairman, Mrs. Edith Avery, Mr. and Mrs. George F. Glader, Raymond Sheahan, Mrs. Helen Velde, E. J. O'Riley, Mrs. Ellsworth Mills, Alain St. Cyr, Walter Colbath, Lawrence D. Smith and Bruce Parsons.

This Committee has been working diligently and has arranged with the Park Board to assume one-half the cost of regrading of the grounds. The committee at present is busily engaged in raising its portion of the necessary money.

The contractor is waiting for a few days of dry weather to enable him to go into the property and commence operations. As soon as that is over the committee states an attendant will be employed and arrangements for skating facilities will be made.

Highwood Plays Northbrook Sunday

In its first game at home this season, the colorful Highwood football team will meet Northbrook A. C. in a return game Sunday at 2 p.m. at the Highwood diamond. Several weeks ago Highwood was held to a scoreless tie by Northbrook.

The starting line-up will probably be Nannini and Molinari, ends; Serki and Davis, tackles; Vole and Bernardini, guards; Gene Montecchi, center; Mulaski, quarterback; Hall Montecchi, and Shapiro, halfbacks; and Williams, fullback. Others to see action will include McNeil, Peterson, Mini, and Castellari.

Arrangements have been completed for the annual grid classic between Highwood and the Highland Park Merchants next Wednesday night at Sunset Park.

Book Week Arouses Interest In Books For Boys and Girls

FORWARD WITH BOOKS BOOK WEEK NOVEMBER 2-8

DURING the week of November 2-8 our school and public libraries and our bookstores blossom forth with exhibits, posters and placards bearing the legend "Forward With Books!" For this is the theme chosen and the dates are the days of Book Week this year and our community joins the national crusade to bring boys and girls and good books together.

It was in November 1919 that Book Week was first observed nationally. The suggestion came from Franklin K. Mathiews, Chief Librarian of the Boy Scouts of America, whose surveys of the reading of Boy Scouts had convinced him that too little attention was being paid to this vital educational and recreational field.

In the twenty-three years since that time Book Week has provided an annual occasion for focusing public attention on children's books. The active support of librarians, teachers and organized civic groups has made Book Week a truly public festival enjoyed by thousands of boys, girls and grownups throughout the country. Its purposes have received the endorsement of governors, mayors and important leaders in all fields of educational and recreational work, and its observance has given impetus to a drive for more and better books for children at home and public bookshelves.

Gratifying results of increased public interest in children's books and reading are found in the quality and quantity of books available today, the growing respect for guidance in their selection, and the improved facilities for their public distribution. Nevertheless, although there are over six thousand public libraries in the nation and the number of school libraries is increasing rapidly, it is estimated that there are still almost 15,000,000 boys and girls to whom books in public places are not easily available.

This year the national drive to strengthen our democracy places new emphasis on the importance of books in the development of character, morale and judgment. "When people are burning books in other parts of the world," writes John W. Studebaker, U. S. Commissioner of Education; "we ought to be distributing them with greater vigor; for books are among our best allies in the fight to make democracy work."

Announcement of local plans for Book Week observance will be found elsewhere in this newspaper, or through the media of our schools and libraries.

New Morning Paper Looking For Name

Now that Chicago is to have a new morning newspaper, Chicagoans will name it.

Ample evidence of this was seen today in the thousands of entries already received in the $10,000 contest to find a suitable name for the publication.

Each contestant has been invited to submit a 100-word letter, emphasizing why he or she wants a new morning newspaper in Chicago. These letters will afford a valuable cross-section of Chicago reader opinion.

Associated with Marshall Field III in publishing the paper is Silliman Evans, president of the Nashville Tennessee.

Rex Smith, for the past four years managing editor of the national magazine, Newsweek, is the editor of the paper. George Ashley De Witt, former Chicago managing editor, is city editor. Warren Brown, who has been a sports Editor in San Francisco, New York and Chicago, has been appointed sports editor.

The new paper will be a full-size (not tabloid) standard newspaper; will bear no party label; will be independent, and will support the policies of the national administration, particularly in foreign affairs. Its future policy toward the administration, however, depends entirely on what the national government may be.

Lynn Carr Killed In Airline Crash

Lynn E. Carr, 33 of 133 South Green Bay road, was one of the passengers on the ill fated North West Airliner plane that crashed early Thursday morning near Moorhead, Minn. Fourteen persons lost their lives in the crash, with only the pilot, Captain Bates, surviving.

Carr was an employee in the traffic department of the Northwest Air Lines for the past two-and-a-half years. He and his wife, Abbey and baby daughter, Lynn have lived in Highland Park since December 1940. Besides his wife and daughter, he leaves his mother, Mrs. Hettie E. Carr, Winnetka and a brother, William B. Carr, 121 North Linden avenue, Highland Park.

The body was sent to the Seguin and Logan Funeral home and services were held from there at 2:30 Monday afternoon. Interment was in Rosehill cemetery.

Mercants Win Two Games

The Highland Park Merchants playing before 1,300 fans chalked up their first win of the season last Wednesday night with a 7 to 0 victory over the Evanston Hawks in a game played under the lights at Sunset Park.

Both the offensive and the defensive play of the Merchants surpassed any previous performances during the season. Their fundamental play was much sounder and was augmented by an unusual amount of team spirit.

Last Sunday afternoon the Merchants, defeated the Hinsdale Bears by a score of 19 to 0. With Frank Menduno receiving excellent blocking by his team-mates he raced across the Hinsdale goal line three times for touchdowns.

Next Sunday, Nov. 9th, at 2:15 the Merchants will travel to Boltwood Field, Evanston, to play the Evanston Hawks in a return game.

Mens' Garden Club Hears James Burdett

The Highland Park Men's Garden Club met at the Community Center Tuesday night. James Burdett, sales manager of Vaughn Seed store discussed "Seeds in the Seed Industry". He also showed colored pictures.

An election of officers was held and the nominating committee, headed by Jay Younglove, decided that the officers and directors now in office will serve for another year.

H. S. Football Teams Beat Maine

Last Saturday on the rain-soaked high school athletic field the Highland Park teams won a double-header from Maine. The frosh-soph won their game by the score of 6 to 0, while the varsity chalked up their sixth straight win to the tune of 12 to 0.

The lone score of the frosh-soph game was made in the fourth quarter when Baldrini drove through the line for five yards and a touchdown. Maine threatened to score in the final minute of play but the local boys held.

In the varsity game Coach Floyd's boys dominated the play throughout the entire game. They scored in the first quarter when Rossi went through the line on a quick opening play for 50 yards and a touchdown. The try for point failed. The only other score was made in the third quarter when Barnhart circled the end for six yards and another six points.

Coach Floyd used his second team most of the second half, giving his eleven "iron-men" a well earned rest. Baracani substituting for Rossi went off tackle in the fourth quarter for a gain of 40 yards to the 10 yard line. A fumble, however, prevented a score. This Saturday both of the local teams play their last games of the season when they travel to Elmhurst to play York Community high school.
