Last Fall Lecture Of Morton Arboretum To Be November 11

The Morton Arboretum announces a lecture, "Landscape Photography" to be given by B. D. Holley of Downers Grove at the Administration Building on the evening of November 11, at 8:15 P. M. Mr. Holley is president of the Commonwealth Edison Camera Club and the West Suburban Camera Club. Camera enthusiasts will find this lecture particularly interesting as the speaker will stress the equipment, materials and methods used in the taking of landscape views. This lecture is the last of the fall series and will be followed in the spring by subjects to be announced later.

RALPH W. SOCKMAN TO ADDRESS THE SUNDAY EVENING CLUB

Armistice Day will be observed at the Chicago Sunday Evening Club next Sunday in Orchestra Hall with a great patriotic program including motion pictures, music by Mark Love and the club's chorus of 125, and an address by Ralph W. Sockman of New York. Clifford W. Barnes, president of the club, will preside.

The meeting begins at seven with a Lowell Thomas picture, "Marching with Old Glory," depicting the work of the Army, the Navy, and the Red Cross. A feature of this program will be patriotic singing in which the audience will join.

"Living in Deep Waters" is the subject of the address at the main meeting at eight. Donald S. McWilliams, vice-president of the Club, will take part in the meeting. The patriotic music program by the chorus includes selections by Parker, Vardi and West. "Land of Hope and Glory" will be sung by Mark Love. Assisting soloists are Louisa Hoe and Charles Sears. Stanley Martin will play a short organ recital during the intermission of the two services. Admission is free.

Need Volunteers As Community Center Leaders

There will be a meeting of all Community Center Volunteers on Thursday evening, Nov. 13. Mrs. J. S. Johnson, in charge of volunteers, urges all people interested in this sort of community service to attend this meeting.

"The Center is short-handed, and needs more volunteer workers to help the regular staff to carry on a more complete program," says Mrs. Johnson. "We need someone who can supervise the game room and office, also some who can help with the club and craft program. Leaders who can take charge of such groups as a photography class or stamp club for children are much needed."

Jane Lazard of Highland Park, has been pledged by the Epsilon chapter of Alpha Epsilon Phi national sorority at Newcomb college, women's division of Tulane university, it was announced today by officers of the chapter.

Dr. Puestow's Lecture Postponed

Dr. Charles B. Puestow's lecture scheduled for November 12th at the Highland Park YWCA has been postponed until a future date. Because of so many other activities on that same evening the Program Committee of the Pi Delta Club decided to make the change. Watch The Press for further announcement on the lecture.

Last night, Wednesday, the Pi Delta Club attended Dr. Preston Bradley's book review, "The Keys of the Kingdom." Two new members have been welcomed to membership of the club, Miss Ethel Larson and Miss Anita Porter.

CAMERA CLUB

The speaker at the Highland Park Camera Club next Wednesday, Nov. 12th will be Harry K. Shogeta, the famous photographer and lecturer on photography. In view of Shegeta's reputation, amateur photographers along the North Shore will find his talk helpful. The club meets at 8 p.m. in the Community Center, 549 Central Ave.
