Dear Mrs. Calkins: I just thought I would drop you a few lines to let you know that I left Fort Sheridan Friday night and arrived at Scott Field Saturday morning. I have been trying to get my transfer but I don't think that they will give it to me, that really makes me mad. I sure miss the cookie jar and all the nice people up there, and would like to be back. I got a job cooking in a big mess hall. They feed 7,000 men, quite a job feeding that many. Say hello to Mr. and Mrs. Young and all the gang. I hope you drop me a few lines.

GRAPEVINE

By GRACIOUS

Suit for divorce was started last week by Mrs. Marguerite A. Cox against Paul T. Cox, charging cruelty. They were married Oct. 23, 1940 and lived together until last Oct. 6. She is the former Marguerite A. Terry.

What do you think of new police officer Ray Lange. We think he's a swell fellow, but frankly "he stinks". Armistice day he was called to 1025 Blackhawk avenue by Mrs. Forrest Barnett, who said she had trapped a skunk which had been raiding her pigeon cote, and that the skunk wasn't being an exactly gentlemanly person. Sergt. Clarence Engdahl told Lange to shoot—he did—and so did the skunk. Now Officer Lange won't be wearing his nice new uniform for some time—and it is still a delicate question about his being in his own home!!!!

Seems to be an epidemic of stealing going on in Highland Park. The thief or thieves seem to know and appreciate nice things—such as mink coats, jewelry and fine linens.

William Marshall, 941 Waukegan avenue, has been elected secretary-treasurer of the Chrysler Service Managers' league of the Chicago Regional district. Congratulations!

Commissioner Arthur Swanson spent all Monday night on the telephone. Seems that he gave the street department orders to report for work Tuesday, Armistice day. At Monday night's City Council meeting it was mentioned that Armistice day was a legal holiday and that all government offices would be closed—so, Mr. Swanson spent the better part of Monday night calling his boys to see the parade.
