1941 Dog Show At Chicago Coliseum

Dogs and dog shows are big topics for conversation among many residents of the North and Northwest side and surrounding communities as the show dates for the large two-day Western Specialty Clubs Association dog show approach.

The 1941 show which will be held at the Coliseum on November 29 and 30 will be the thirty-first such annual show. Yearly attracting more than 1,200 of America's finest aristocrats of dogdom, the huge event is the biggest show in the Midwest and one of the largest shows of its type in the nation.

Twenty-four separate dog clubs participate in the show, each having their own specialty event; in reality making the show twenty-four individual shows held under the same roof. Each club represents a different breed.

Bishop Hughes Will Speak At Orchestra Hall Next Sunday

Bishop Edwin H. Hughes, who for many years has led the work of the Methodist Church in religious and educational fields, with headquarters in Chicago from 1924 to 1932, will speak at the Sunday Evening Club in Orchestra Hall next Sunday. He will be introduced by President Clifford W. Barnes. There will be special music by the Club's choir of 125 and the visiting Y. M. C. A. chorus of Naperville.

Next Sunday he will continue the Thanksgiving theme, talking on "Thanksgiving in a Shaking World."

Music by the Club's choir will precede his talk at the eight o'clock meeting. The program will open with "Angels Ever Singing" by MacFarlane. Other numbers are "The Wings of the Morning" by Scott and "My Faith Looks up to Thee" by Schneckler. Louisa Hoe, soprano, will sing "Hear Ye Israel" by Mendelssohn.

The Club will present at seven the Naperville singers under the direction of Grace Fredenhagen. Floyd V. Filson, Presbyterian Theological Seminary, professor and writer, will give the Bible Talk at this meeting. Doors open at 6:45. Admission is free.

N. S. Sunday Evening Club to Hear Warden Lawes

Warden Lewis E. Lawes of Sing Sing will speak at the North Shore Sunday Evening Club of Sunday evening, November 23 in the school auditorium. His subject will be "20,000 Years in Sing Sing."

Warden Lawes recently retired from Sing Sing after serving as Warden since Jan. 1, 1920, and is now giving his time to lecturing and writing.

Warden Lawes is a foe of capital punishment though it fell to him to direct 303 executions during his time in office. He says he found some prisoners to be very fine men. Warden Lawes introduced many notable reforms during his administration.

Illinois Alumni Will Celebrate 'Chicago Homecoming'

Following the Illinois-Northwestern football game to be held at Dych Stadium, Evanston, on November 22, alumni of the University of Illinois from all parts of the country will hold a "Chicago Homecoming" celebration at 6:30 p.m. that night in the Grand Ballroom at the Edgewater Beach Hotel. This is the fortieth annual celebration of this kind sponsored by the Illini Club of Chicago.

Governor Dwight H. Green will be the principal speaker of the evening. Guests of honor will include Presidents Franklin B. Snyder of Northwestern University and Arthur Cutts Willard of the University of Illinois, the football teams and athletic department staffs of both schools headed by Coaches Robert Zuppke and Lynn Waldorf.

George Woods, River Forest, will be the toastmaster for the banquet. The dinner will be informal and for the first time in several years the affair will be open to wives of guests and members.

Prominent Chicago alumni of the University who will serve as members of the reception committee include: Robert Z. Hickman, Walter C. Stutman, Thomas Cemy, Edward L. Berleman, Allan E. Bulley, James M. Cleary, Chester R. Davis, Frank A. Rokusek, Richard G. Finn, Russell J. Turney, Waldo B. Ames, Scott Greene, Robert F. Carr, Ralph Chapman, Harold E. "Red" Grange, George Halas, Benjamin Wham, Bernard A. Schroeder, and Deneen A. Watson.

Assisting the Illini Club of Chicago with arrangements for the affair are the Chicago Illinae Club headed by Mrs. W. I. Brockson, Oak Park, president; Dr. M. K. Hine, president of the U. of I. Dental Alumni Association; Frank Maher, president of the Chicago Pharmacy Alumni Association; and Dr. M. H. Streicher, secretary of the U. of I. Medical School alumni.

Officers of the Illini Club of Chicago are: Devereux L. Bowly, president; Gerald J. Koerner, vice president and general chairman of the event; William T. McNeill, treasurer, and William A. Marsteller, secretary. Tickets for the affair may be had by contacting Russell J. Turney, 39 South La Salle street, telephone Franklin 2411.

Chicago Commercial Club Sees 40th CA Brigade In Action

The 40th Coast Artillery (Anti-Aircraft) Brigade of Fort Sheridan, Ill., presented a demonstration Wednesday evening, November 12, 1941 for the Commercial Club of Chicago. The Commercial Club is an organization composed of prominent Chicago business men, the majority of whom have, at sometime, been members of the armed forces of the nation. Lieutenant Ralph Blanchard was in charge of the arrangements for the demonstration on the post.

The guests were driven to the Post in government trucks from the Old Elm Country club and taken for an inspection tour of field kitchens, battery day rooms, and personal field equipment. At 6:00 p.m. the club members were served dinner at the Recruit Reception Center with enlisted men of that unit.

At 7:30 p.m. an anti-aircraft firing demonstration took place at Gordon Johnston Field. Soldiers fired .50 caliber machine guns and .37 millimeter anti-aircraft guns at a sleeve target towed by an airplane.

The membership of the Commercial Club reads like the "Who's Who of American Business." Its active membership is represented in the present national emergency by such famous personages as Brigadier General Charles Haffner Jr., 58th Field Artillery Brigade, 33rd Division; Frank Knox, Secretary of the Navy; Ralph A. Bard of the Navy Department; Donald M. Nelson, Director of Priorities, and Frederick A. Preston, Chief of the Chicago Ordnance District.

Most of the living members were active in the last war. Two of these were General Robert E. Wood, president head of Sears, Roebuck and Company, and General Charles G. Dawes, former vice president of the United States. The members who are now in their late "40's" or early "50's" were all junior officers in the last war.

The Commercial Club is reported to have been responsible for the founding of the military post at Fort Sheridan. The club, founded in 1877 in Chicago, wanted an army post closer to the city than Fort Laramie, Wyoming, or Fort Riley, Kansas. Taking action upon the only speech Marshall Field ever made to the club, the members purchased 632 acres on the North Shore and presented it to the government of the United States in 1886. Since that time Fort Sheridan has grown to be one of the leading Army training stations in the interior of the United States.

NOT content with having a very promising film career, Susan Hayward has turned actors' agent. Dining at a New Orleans hotel, she was impressed by the young singer and trumpet player with Chuck Foster's band; he stopped the show at every performance. So when he was brought over to meet her she questioned him. Why wasn't he in films? Nobody'd asked him to be. Where did he come from? Los Angeles, but he'd never been able to get near a film studio there!

So Susan placed him under contract, and arranged for his Hollywood debut at a cafe there. His name? Ray Robbins, professionally; in real life, it's Foster.

A new romantic duo makes its debut in RKO's comedy, "Obliging Young Lady," in the persons of Edmond O'Brien and Ruth Warrick.

RUTH WARRICK

He recently scored in "A Girl, a Guy and a Gob" and "Parachute Battalion." She made her film bow as Orson Welles' first wife in "Citizen Kane," the picture that's been a springboard to motion picture contracts for so many actors and actresses.

Robert Taylor has an exceptionally tough beard, and while he's being shaved talks about show horses, like his Arabian stallion; Clark Gable chats about guns and fish and venison, under the same conditions, and he also has a tough beard. Spencer Tracy yells wisecracks at everybody while he's in the barber's chair. Bob Young makes a few remarks about his riding horses. Jimmy Stewart sits and says nothing. All this information from Jim Adamson, major domo of Metro's barber shop, who began snipping locks and news from movie stars way back in the days of Inceville—he's been at it for 2 1/2 decades, and has his own Hollywood Who's Who.

Miss Joy Browee has returned home from a three week vacation on the west coast.

Mrs. H. T. Adamson and Gordon Adamson, 301 Egandale road are in New York.

Chicago Show Will Break Past Records

A final tally of entries for the individual live stock classes of the 1941 International Live Stock Exposition and Horse Show, to be held at the Chicago Stock Yards November 29 to December 6, discloses a huge increase in the total number of animals listed over a year ago, the management reports.

According to officials of the show, entry figures in 12 of the 26 breeds that will be featured this year are higher than for the corresponding breeds at the 1940 show.

An all-time record entry for the three breeds of beef cattle, that are the main source of supply of the nation's finest meats, has been registered by the leading breeders and feeders of this country and Canada, says B. H. Heide, secretary-manager of the Exposition.

There will also be a big increase of swine exhibits, with six of the eight breeds in this division showing large advances over 1940, and the total is the highest in many years. The draft horse entry of approximately 400 head, and the sheep entry of nearly 1000 head, compares closely with the showing in these two departments at the 1940 exposition.

Fidel Ghini Heads Sportsman's Club

Fidel Ghini was elected president of the Highwood Sportsman's club at an election held Saturday. Other officers are Frank Caretta, vice president; Harold Snavelly, secretary; Robert Robert Saicelli, treasurer and Jerome Bartoldo, sergeant at arms. The club has 35 members.

Lutheran Ladies to Hold Annual Bazaar

The Ladies Aid Society of the Redeemer Lutheran church will hold its annual bazaar December 4 in the assembly room of the church. Doors will open at 10 a. m. Various handiwork will be on sale as Christmas gifts. Lunch will be served from 11:30 until 1:00 o'clock. The public is invited.

We're told that Ines Cooper, a Hollywood new comer, looks so much like Hedy Lamarr that experts can't tell them apart. Miss Cooper has worked in "Unholy Partners" and "The Shadow of the Thin Man"; she's now appearing in "Mr. and Mrs. North," and is slated for a role in "I Married an Angel." None of these pictures have yet been released, yet she's already had a flourishing screen career.

People whose memories go way, way back will remember Harold Lockwood, one of the big stars of his time. His widow died recently, after having been a member of Paramount's make-up department for nine years. Today's movie stars are more foresighted financially than were those old-timers. For example—Joel McCrea is listed by the government not as an actor (though he's been making pictures for 11 years) but as a good producer, thanks to the annual profit of approximately $5,000 which he makes from his ranch.

Madeline Lee, who's "Genevieve Blue" on the "Amos and Andy" broadcasts, has found herself turning into a hat designer. She entered a hat designing class on a dare, found that she not only liked it but was good at it; now she makes all her own hats, and her friends beseege her to turn out little numbers for them.

Correction: Last week's item about "The Chocolate Soldier" was partly wrong; Metro's picture by that name includes only music from the operetta so known; the story is the one you're familiar with under the title of "The Guardsman."

ODDS AND ENDS—RKO has signed St. Brendan's Boys' choir of 20 boys for church sequences in "Joan of Paris," which will star Michele Morgan, the new French star, and Paul Henreid. . . Bud Abbott and Lou Costello will play the leading comedy roles, and Kathryn Grayson and John Carroll will have the romantic singing leads in the new movie version of "Rio Rita" . . . Walter Pidgeon returns to his first career, that of a singer, in "Design for Scandal," which he has just completed with the newly wed Rosalind Russell. They sing "A Bicycle Built for Two" . . . Clive Brook's daughter Faith, makes her film debut in "Suspicion."
