

Great Lakes Men Participate In Ford's Radio Hour

The Ford "Sunday Evening Hour" will "go to sea" Sunday, December 7th, when the Great Lakes Naval Training Station Band, rhythm orchestra and men's chorus join the regular musical cast of the popular Columbia network show.

The occasion will be the presentation of a new and completely equipped recreation hall to the U. S. Navy Service School at Dearborn, Mich., by Henry Ford, founder of the Ford Motor Company. The school annually gives 5,000 sailors practical training in selected trade studies.

The program will open in Detroit, where the Ford Orchestra will be conducted by Eugene Ormandy. Following the presentation of the recreation hall to the Navy, the program will be switched to Great Lakes, where the acceptance address will be made by Rear Admiral John Downes, U. S. N., Commandant of the Ninth Naval District.

Opening the musical portion of the program from Great Lakes will be the combined Naval Training Station Band and Men's chorus—200 strong—offering "Anchors Aweigh" and Romberg's "Stout Hearted Men." The band also will present "We're All Americans," a stirring number by James T. Mangin, who was a Bluejacket at Great Lakes during World War I.

A highlight of the Navy portion of the show will be two numbers by the conductor of the Naval Training Station Band, Lt. Cdr. E. E. Peabody—better known to radio listeners and theater-goers as Eddie Peabody, the "King of the Banjo." He will play a medley of Stephen Foster airs and will be assisted by the rhythm orchestra in "Some of These Days." The Rhythm Orchestra is conducted by Lt. Alfred Kvale, assistant to Mr. Peabody and a musical star in his own right. He is known to thousands in the midwest as Al Kvale, for years conductor of theater bands in the Chicago area. Both Mr. Kvale and Mr. Peabody now are on duty at Great Lakes.

The program will close with its customary sacred note as the 100-voice men's chorus and audience of officers and enlisted men join with the Great Lakes Naval Training Station Band in presenting Dykes' "Eternal Father, Strong to Save." The chorus will be directed by Chaplain Hjalmar Hanson.

'Fight Infantile Paralysis' To Start Jan. 30

President Roosevelt's coming birthday on January 30th, 1942, on which day the President will be sixty years of age, has been declared his Diamond Jubilee Birthday Celebration.

The President, in a letter to Keith Morgan, National Chairman of the Committee for the Celebration of the President's Birthday for the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, again gave the use of his birthday for the ninth consecutive year to raise funds for the nation-wide fight against Infantile Paralysis.

Mr. Morgan announced that in preparation for the "Fight Infantile Paralysis" campaign, a meeting of all of the State Chairmen will be held in Washington on Tuesday, December 2. President Roosevelt will receive the Chairmen at the White House on that day.

The last three years have been the three worst years in the epidemic history of Infantile Paralysis in the United States.

He pointed out that the epidemics of the last three years have produced over 25,000 new cases. Analysis of the average cost of treatment for the first year after the onslaught of this disease shows that it costs over $1,000 for just one year's treatment per case.

It had been decided to call all of the 48 State Chairmen to an executive meeting in Washington on Tuesday, December 2nd. Plans for the coming Celebration will be fully completed at that time.

The President will receive the Chairmen at the White House in the late afternoon. In the evening a dinner will be given by the National Committee to the State Chairmen and many distinguished guests who will participate in making the Celebration of the President's Diamond Jubilee Birthday an outstanding success.

"Topper" Chooses Moraine Hotel

"Topper," the brisk, 2½-years old Welsh terrier belonging to the Robert H. Pulvers, 242 Park avenue, Highland Park, is leading a gay life these days.

Nearly every morning he runs away from home and appears for a romp about the grounds of Hotel Moraine On-the-Lake, 801 North Sheridan rd., Highland Park, where he finds children look forward to his visits for he likes to explore. Grownup guests and hotel attaches as well as the children look forward to his visits for he has become a general favorite.

About four o'clock in the afternoon, a cab is called, "Topper" hops in and goes riding home in state.

Mr. Pulver, sales representative of H. Kohnstamm and Co., Inc., 11 East Illinois street, Chicago, "Topper's" master, is wondering how to break the dog of his runaway habits.
