Alpha Gamma Deltas To Sew Xmas Stockings

Miss Frances Allworth, vice-president and program chairman, of the Alpha Gamma Delta Alumnae chapter has arranged for the members to sew Christmas stockings for the Y.W.C.A., at their Christmas meeting, Monday evening, December 8th, at the chapter house. The meeting will be in the form of a Christmas party with Mrs. Kevan Booty of Evanston, president of the Lambda Alumnae of Alpha Gamma Delta presiding. The entertainment for the evening will be provided for by the Alpha Gamma Delta pledges of the undergraduate chapter. Refreshments appropriate to the season have been planned by the social chairman, Miss Betty Jane Bergstrom.

Hold Cat Show December 6-7

The Beresford Cat Club of America will hold its 32nd Championship Cat Show at the Skyline Athletic Club, 188 W. Randolph St., Chicago, on Saturday and Sunday, December 6 and 7. Conforming to a custom established several years ago, the show will be given for the benefit of the Anti-Cruelty Society.

The cream of feline aristocracy will be shipped from the Atlantic seaboard and the middle west to vie for the impressive array of awards that will be donated to the owners of the finest cats. Even more important than the cups and ribbons are the "points" that will be awarded by the show's judge, Mrs. Robert J. Pardee, under the rulings of the American Cat Association.

Mrs. George D. Kessler has been president of this oldest cat club in America for the past twenty-six years.

Twilight Chamber Music Series Sunday Afternoon

The Twilight Chamber Music Series Sunday afternoon at 5:30, December 7th, presents its second series of concerts of the Fine Arts String Quartet, Leonard Sorkin, Bernard Senescu, Sheppard Lehnhoff and George Soppin, at Fullerton Hall under the direction of Bertha Ott. The program consists of Quintet in E flat Major by Mozart, and Helen Kotas, First Horn Player of the Chicago Symphony Orchestra will be the associate artist. This work is being given in connection of work is being given in commemoration of the 105th anniversary of the death of Mozart. The remaining numbers of the program are Quartet No. 3 Op. 22 by Hindemith and Sextet in B flat Major Op. 18 by Brahms. Armand Roth and Jeneska Slesob are also associate artists.

Sunday Eve Club To Hear Dr. Nixon

The kind of faith that can carry us through the present crisis, will be discussed by Dr. Justin Wroe Nixon, Colgate-Rochester Divinity School, Rochester New York, in an address before the Chicago Sunday Evening Club in Orchestra Hall next Sunday at eight. "In the Midst of the Years" will be the subject of his talk.

There will be music by the Club's choir of 125 with Mark Love in the solo part. Clifford W. Barnes will preside and James F. Oates, Jr., a trustee of the Sunday Evening Club will read scripture.

At seven o'clock the Club presents a double feature program with an informal music program by the Moreland Lutheran A Cappella Choir, a group of 42 mixed voices under the direction of Edward A. Nelson. Dr. Ernest C. Colwell, University of Chicago Divinity School will talk briefly on an inspirational topic.

Rev. Michael Coleman To Address Bundles for Britain Group

The Rev. Michael Coleman, dynamic young vicar of All Hallows church in London, will return to Chicago to deliver an address for the benefit of Bundles for Britain at Orchestra Hall on Wednesday, December 10, at 8:00 p.m.

His subject will be "What Gives England the Courage to Endure." When his church was reduced to a heap of ruins, Mr. Coleman crossed the Atlantic to Canada to preach and lecture. Bundles for Britain's national president, Mrs. Wales Lathan, heard him speak, and influenced her executives to commit the organization to the rebuilding of the edifice after the war. Since that time, Mr. Coleman has been preaching and lecturing in the United States on behalf of Bundles for Britain.

Mrs. Lathan will journey from New York to Chicago to appear on the platform with Mr. Coleman next Wednesday, and she will introduce him.

Tickets for the lecture, are on sale at Bundles for Britain headquarters, 163 N. Michigan Ave., Chicago, and at the Orchestra Hall Box office.

Dog Obedience Trial Sunday, February 1 At Hotel Sherman

North Shore Dog Training Club's second annual all breed obedience trial, to be held Sunday, February 1st at Hotel Sherman, will be of even more than ordinary interest, because all net proceeds will go toward purchase of a Seeing Eye dog. Combining this added incentive with the fact that the show will be held at a time when exhibitors and dog lovers will have had about two months of inactivity, a large entry and attendance are confidently expected.

Mrs. Gerald Murphy, Glenview, Illinois, secretary of the club, will be happy to supply further information. Other officers are Oscar Franzen, Highland Park, president; Walter W. Schuett, Evanston, vice president; Elmer Anderson, Chicago, treasurer; Harry Lowenbach, Glenview, director; George Hendrickson, Wilmette, director; Miss Emily Schweitzer, Northbrook, chairman of the show committee; Miss Mona Kinney, Kenilworth, chairman of the trophy committee.

Alfred and Edgar Lustgarten, violinist and cellist, will be heard in the Brahms Concerto Opus 102 in A minor for violin, violoncello and orchestra, at the third concert of a series of four by the Woman's Symphony Orchestra of Chicago, Izler Solomon, conductor, Wednesday evening, December 17 at 8:15 at Orchestra Hall under the direction of Bertha Ott.

The complete program is as follows:
Overture to "The School for Scandal" Samuel Barber
Concerto for Violin, Violoncello and Orchestra, Opus 102 in A Minor Brahms
ALFRED AND EDGAR LUSTGARTEN
Symphony No. 6 (Pathétique) Tchaikowsky

Great Lakes Men To Be Heard on Ford Hour Sunday

An old piece of "radio business" will get a new twist Sunday, December 7, when the band, rhythm orchestra and men's chorus at the U. S. Naval Training Station at Great Lakes, Ill., take part in the Ford "Sunday Evening Hour". The new idea will not be apparent to Columbia's listening audience from coast-to-coast, but it will be to members of the studio audience of Great Lakes as they get their applause cues, Navy Style.

Everyone who has witnessed a radio broadcast is familiar with the cues given to studio guests, signals for "on the air", "silence", applause, "ready", and "we're off the air".

But when the Navy takes over during the Ford hour Dec. 7, salty signals will regulate the studio audience so the show will run smoothly and get off the air on a split-second schedule.

"Sing out" will be the cue for applause and "pipe down" should be obvious even to civilians as the cue for silence. When the moment nears for the pickup from Great Lakes, the audience will be told to "stand by to show off", which in radio means "get ready to go on the air".

And, at the end of the show, guests at the Naval Station will be told to "Lay aft and carry on". This is the Navy way of telling them that the show is off the air and that everyone can relax.

Soldiers Entertained At Week-end Parties

Elmhurst, Ill., and Winnetka, Ill., opened their doors over week-end to 110 soldiers of Fort Sheridan in mass demonstrations of home hospitality. The group idea of entertainment was originated in the Chicago area, October 5, when 23 families in the 4400 block of North 25th Street, Milwaukee, had 46 soldiers as their guests.

Elmhurst played host to 76 Fort Sheridan men Saturday, November 29, sending busses to pick up the soldiers at 1 o'clock. Upon arrival at the Community Center in Elmhurst, the men were met by 38 families, each of which took two to their homes for dinner. After the meals, the men were entertained with a dance at the Center. Dr. Stephen S. French, 567 Swain Avenue, had charge of arrangements.

The Soldiers and Sailors committee of the Winnetka Community Council entertained 34 men Sunday, November 30. The soldiers left Fort Sheridan at 12:25 p.m. by North Shore railroad and reported to the Winnetka Community House. There they were met by their hosts, each of whom took three home for dinner. A party in the Community House followed. Walter H. Klauke, chairman of the program committee for the Winnetka Lions Club, heads the group in charge.

Another group of 30 soldiers were guests of Northwestern University co-eds at a tea dance at 2:30 o'clock, Saturday, November 29, in Harris Hall.

Party arrangements for the soldiers of Fort Sheridan are under the direction of Mrs. Gertrude Taugher, chief hostess for the Post.

Soldiers Attend Tilden-Leo Football Game

One thousand soldiers of Fort Sheridan traveled in a convoy of 75 trucks to the Chicago championship football game between Tilden Technical High School, public title holder, and Leo High School, winner of the Catholic crown, in Soldiers' Field, Saturday afternoon, November 29.

The first serial division of the convoy, consisting of 36 trucks, left the Post at 9:30 a.m. The second serial of trucks followed 10 minutes after the first has cleared the gate. They traveled down Skokie boulevard to Foster avenue and then to the Outer drive.

The Fort Sheridan soldiers entered Soldiers' Field at 12:45 p.m., joining others from Camp Grant and sailors from the Great Lakes Naval Training Station for a ceremony paying respect to the flag and the national anthem.

FIRST EXCLUSIVE NORTH SHORE SHOWING

THE MOST TALKED-ABOUT FILM OF THE DECADE!

DR. BROADWAY opens with a scene on a narrow ledge, supposedly 40 feet above the real Broadway. A girl, played by Jean Phillips, is pretending to be crazy, and is about to commit suicide. A man, played by Macdonald Carey, pretends that he also is crazy, in order to get her off the ledge. In the middle of the scene each discovers that the other is sane. And when Miss Phillips and Mr. Carey met for the first time, on the ledge, with cameras pointed at them, they discovered that they both hail from Sioux City, Iowa.

The story of the men in the army air service who operate the secret bomb sights and actually drop the bombs on targets far RKO Radio, with the co-operation of the United States army, it will be called "Bombardier."

Like the elephant, Richard Arlen never forgets. About five years ago he and Mary Carlisle made pictures together, and took daily turns buying the entire cast and crew ice cream. The other day they began work with Jean Parker and Phil Terry in "Torpedo Boat," at Paramount. When the ice cream man came around Arlen tapped Mary on the shoulder. "It's your turn to buy," said he. "Remember, I bought the last time, five years ago." And Mary remembered, and treated.

Thanks to Barbara Stanwyck, Gene Krupa and his orchestra are featured in Samuel Goldwyn's "Ball of Fire." The Krupa band is her favorite one, so when she was asked to select one for her night club singing sequences, Krupa got the vote.

Ever wonder where film companies get their ideas for shorts? Hal Peary, who's radio's "The Great Gildersleeve," did a hit song routine in a recent broadcast. A Columbia Pictures executive heard him, liked the stunt—and it will be a "Screen Snapshot."

Betty Hutton went to Hollywood, fresh from Broadway's "Panama Hattie," to make her screen debut in "The Fleet's In." Bob Hope booked her for a guest appearance on his radio program—probably you heard it—and first thing she knew, she was on it for keeps!

Rudy Vallee will have the second male lead in "The Palm Beach Story," the Preston Sturges picture starring Claudette Colbert and Joel McCrea, with no singing for Vallee.

New Orleans is certainly having its day in the movies! "Flame of New Orleans," "Lady From Louisiana," "Birth of the Blues," "Blues in the Night," "Louisiana Purchase"—and before long Edna Ferber's new story, "Saratoga Trunk!"

One of the war-time campaigns that has spread like wildfire is the "Shaves for the Boys" drive to obtain free minor necessities for the boys in the defense training camps. Constance Bennett is head of the movie stars' committee, which includes Dorothy Lamour, Joan Fontaine, Maureen O'Hara, Joan Blondell, Claire Trevor, Joan Bennett, Linda Darnell and Brenda Joyce.
