Womens Club To Hear "From Sheba To Selassie"

"From sheba to Selassie" will be the subject of the lecture and moving pictures to be given at the Highland Park Woman's Club on the afternoon of Tuesday, March 17, by Count Byron de Prorok. De Prorok is the youngest of our outstanding explorers and archaeologists and the first to use airplanes and moving pictures for this work. He has always been haunted by old tales and legends—to him the lost Atlantis the gold of Ophir, King Solomon's Gold Mines, and lost Temple of Jupiter. Ammon, tale of Queen Sheba, were not merely catch phrases but things to find out and explore.

Hunts Sheba
Count de Prorok has headed expeditions, under the auspices of several governments, to the lost civilizations of three continents, by special planes, camel caravans, and diver's equipment. He has explored dead cities half buried by the desert sands, and even under the sea. He has trailed the Queen of Sheba across Africa, Ethiopia, and finally into Arabia. His films will show long buried desert cities, ancient caravan trails, gold trails, slave trails, as well as the land where now history is being made—Libya, Abyssinia, Egypt, Aden and Somaliland.

From 1936 to 1940 Count de Prorok was delving into those very regions in Africa where the struggle for Empire has been taking place—out where New Rome has been battling Britain for dominion. Those great leaders Selassie, Weygand, Wavell, Graziani,

Major Glubb, Major Bagnold, Norman Hiller and Mussolini well known to him while General Balbo was his friend and about whose mysterious end he has something to say.

Book Review
This is an especially interesting day at the club as there is also a meeting of the membership at 11:00 o'clock in the morning to hear Mrs. Milton D. Youngren of Glencoe review John Gunther's book "Inside Latin America". Mrs. Youngren is the wife of the comic artist who does "Lew Loyal" in the Sunday Comic Book of the Chicago Tribune. She appeared before the club last year. Mrs. Youngren spent her childhood in the Panama Canal region and knows the people well. She thinks some people have criticized John Gunther's book as being harsh and thus angered some Latin Americans but Mrs. Youngren thinks that he only wanted to help us understand our neighbors. This past summer she and her family took a trip on a banana boat down through this same region to recall her childhood experiences.

Luncheon Served
Luncheon will be served at 12:30 under the supervision of Mrs. Robert Pease and Mrs. G. S. McSweeney. Hostesses for the day under the vice-chairman of the Social Committee, Mrs. Robert Morris will be Mrs. Louis W. Sherwin, Mrs. George Pick, Mrs. Joseph W. Maple and Mrs. Griffin Wells Baker. At the tea tables at four o'clock will be Mrs. Clinton Fritch, Mrs. DeForest Colburn, Mrs. William Heiser and Mrs. Kendall Clough.

The Younger Set

Greta Lundstrom, 4 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Lundstrom, 1010 Oak Street, Highland Park. Greta is an only child.

W. R. Fosbender, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Fosbender, Sr., 6063 Vine Avenue. "Rosy" as he is called by his family is 2.

H. P. Civilian Defense Sponsors One Day Consumers Conference

Miss Leone Ann Heuer, textile and clothing authority, will tell Highland Park women how to plan their clothes budgets more efficiently for economy as well as style at the afternoon session of the one-day Consumers' Conference Wednesday, March 25, at the Y.W.C.A. sponsored by the local Civilian Defense Council education committee.

Care of clothing, the government program for standardizing sizes and simplifying colors, new fibers and fabrics which will be available for clothing, and substitutes for materials we new use but which are vitally needed in the war program will all be considered by Miss Heuer, who is Textile and Home Furnishings editor in the Research Department of Household Finance Corporation.

National recognition has been won by Miss Heuer, a graduate of the University of Wisconsin, for her knowledge and experience in the field of textiles. Active in local, state, and national sections of the American Home Economics Association and also in constant touch with consumers and their problems, she is in a position to offer assistance and advice to all those who are interested in making the most of what they have on hand.

Consumer buying and nutrition will be the subjects of the 10:30 a.m. session, while the session at 1:30 p.m. will take up food labelling and grading as well as textiles and clothes buying. Dr. Harold Spears is chairman of the education committee of Civilian Defense Council and plans for this one day conference are being made by Mrs. Leonard Rieser and Mrs. Lee Supple. The meetings are open to the public.

"Stunts Free For All" At Hi-School March 14

"Stunts Free For All" is the theme of the 1942 "Student Stunts" which will be given Saturday evening, March 14, at 8:15 o'clock at the Highland Park High School auditorium.

Judging from the progress and enthusiasm of rehearsals, this year's "Stunts" promises to be the best ever. Stirring patriotic music will be present throughout the show together with an outstanding mixed chorus of 48 boys and girls.

Tickets are now on sale in the auditorium of the High School for 65c, 50c, and 30c. The time and date of the show is 8:15 p.m. on March 14. "Student Stunts" is sponsored by the P.T.A. for the benefit of the Richard L. Sandwick memorial fund.

"Stunts" is being directed by Miss Elyse Rinckenberger, and the new "Bandesta Group", which will furnish parts of the music, is under the direction of Harold Finch. The cast of 120 is as follows: Arline Abernathy, Holly Baker, Charles Bates, Marion Berg, Dottie Boem, Lois Bolle, Diana Cabonargi, Juul Cabonargi, Thelma Christenson, Jim Clark, Pat Cole, Betty Coleman, Sue Curtis, Jacquelyn Day, Delver Dever, Lillian Dinelli, Dave Dubin, Katherine Einbecker, Carol Ellis, Margaret Elmore, Bob Fiochi, Tom Fordham, Wina Fuchs, Bernice Flanagan, Jean Gatewood, Pat Goodreds, Esther Hayes, Nonie Heed, Walter Hiller, Judy Hodges, Carol Johnson, Don Johnson, Mona Johnson,

Girl Scouts Celebrate Anniversary

This week the Girl Scouts all over America are celebrating their 30th Anniversary, as more than 400 Girl Scouts in Highland Park. In this connection, a message from Mrs. C. Eugene Pfister, Commissioner, is timely and important.

"Twice in the history of Girl Scouting we have celebrated our anniversary under war conditions. The first time was in 1917. The second time is now, when we are about to mark the thirtieth birthday of a movement which has grown in three decades from a membership of 24 to over half a million.

"Even in the short five years between the first meeting of Girl Scouts and the outbreak of the first World War, the Girl Scouts were prepared. When war came they were ready and eager to help. Girl Scouts of 1917 aided the Red Cross, the Food Conservation Campaign, Liberty Loan drives and cooperated with their families and communities in doing odd jobs which release adults for important defense work.

"Today, as well as 25 years ago, women are rushing into all kinds of voluntary services. I think it is our primary responsibility to bring home to them the fact that Girl Scouting needs them, too, today as well as tomorrow when the war is won and we all have to buckle down to making a world peace a guarantee instead of an ideal. It is natural and proper for all of us to do everything possible to help our country. The danger is that we may relax on the job of Girl Scouting in favor of services which seem more immediate and tangible, let alone more glamorous. It's as though housewives were to stop the eternal routine of feeding their families to run hither and yon to help put out fires. Women know, that whatever happens, children must be cared for and the home kept running somehow. Girl Scouting is like that.

"So, on this thirtieth anniversary of the founding of the Girl Scout movement in this country, let us dedicate ourselves to averting war's greatest danger—Neglect of the very thing for which the nation is fighting—our children and their future."

Dr. Josselyn To Speak On Delinquency

Possibilities for the Prevention and Treatment of Delinquency in Lake County will be the subject under discussion at the League of Women Voters meeting on Wednesday, March 18, at 1:15, at the Y.W.C.A. Dr. Irene Josselyn, psychiatrist in private practice here, has consented to handle this discussion, which is being planned by the Department of Government and Social Welfare, of which Mrs. Douglas Boyd is Chairman.

Dr. Josselyn is consulting psychiatrist on the staff of many social agencies such as the Association for Family Living, Sunset Camp, Church Mission of Health, and the Mary Club. Formerly, she was connected with the institute for Juvenile Research in Chicago. In spite of such a formidable array of interests outside this community, Dr. Josselyn finds time, and probably prefers to work in the town in which she lives. She is a member of the School Board, District No. 107, and has been used as resource person by many private and public agencies in Lake County. She is thoroughly familiar with the boys and girls in this county. Dr. Josselyn's talk before the League should interest many people not in the habit of attending these meetings.

Another feature of this meeting is the fact that the County Survey, which was completed a year ago this time, will be corrected to include recent changes. This very comprehensive survey was made by 32 conscientious Leagueurs, and the findings published in booklet form. Each year a resume of all changes will be presented, as is planned for this meeting, with the entire book republished every four years.

As has been customary this year, a tea time will follow the business meeting, with Mrs. Edward Knox in charge.

WILSON'S Weekly RECIPES

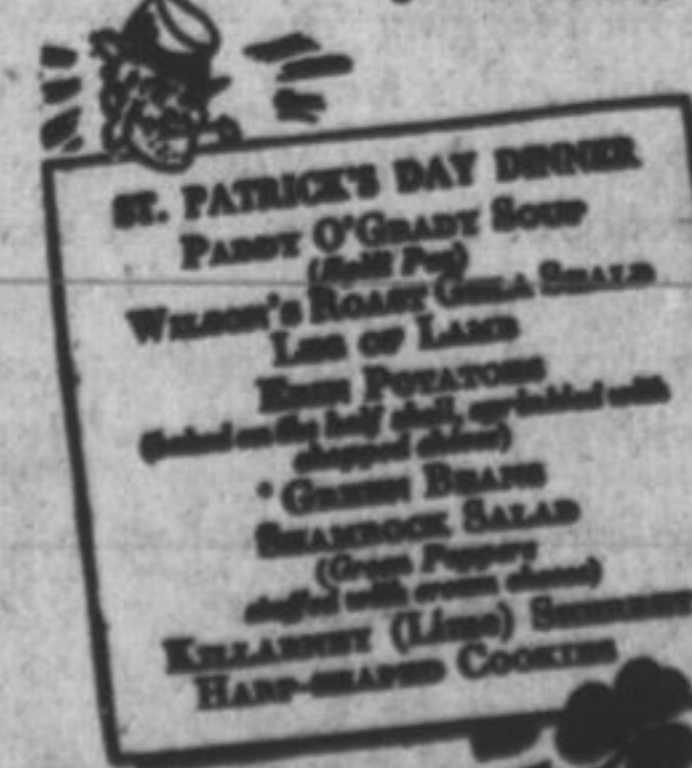

Simple, everyday things! America is coming back to a new appreciation of them. Family ties have become more precious. Thrift, long forgotten virtue, is with us again. Homey foods fill kitchens with heartening smells. And speaking of foods that make folks glad, read the big news below!

George Rector
Food Consultant to Wilson & Co.

No more wasteful evaporation of precious meat juices. No more flavor losses. That thin, clear coat of sparkling gelatine on the fresh beef, lamb and veal you see at your dealer's keeps out dust, and keeps in the juices that spell "flavor."

It's Wilson's Gelatin fresh Beef, Lamb and Veal. You can get it in any cut, from roasts to steaks. Look for the clear, sparkling gelatine coating.

ST. PATRICK'S DAY DINNER
PASTY O'GRANDY SOUP (with Pot)
WILSON'S ROAST CORNED BEEF
LAMB OF LAMB
GREEN PEAS
GREEN BEANS
SHRIMP SALAD
CRAISIE POTATO
KILBENNY (LAMB) SAUSAGE
HAND-MADE COOKIES

Allow a Wilson's Gelatin leg of lamb to come to room temperature. Place it on a rack in an open roasting pan, skin side down. Roast from 300° F. to 325° F. 35 minutes per pound. When half done, season with salt and pepper, turn, season on the other side and continue cooking till done. Make gravy with pan drippings.

TO STRETCH MEAT MONEY
Why not cut food costs with sausage dinners? Yes, a pound of Wilson's Certified Pure Pork Sausage Links (regular size) serves 4 generously.

And there's something about the wonderful fragrance of these choice sausages as they sizzle in the pan that seems to build up the morale of the whole family.

Economy with Gelatin
Fry sausage lightly and lay them spoke fashion on top a casserole of cooked macaroni in white sauce. (Make the white sauce with sausage drippings.) Bake in a 350° F. oven till sausage are done (about 30 minutes).

Rector Recommends...
For Lent, asparagus with Hollandaise sauce. (Made with Clear Brook Butter and Eggs.) Don't have the water in the bottom of the double boiler touch the top part. Result—the Hollandaise will not separate from being cooked too rapidly. And so, till next week, good-by, G. R.
