48-HOUR FIGHT

The furious battle over the bill to suspend the 40-hour week in war plants caused a personal rift between two house leaders that may take a long time to heal.

When Rep. John McCormack, Massachusetts liberal, was elected Democratic floor leader, one of his strongest supporters was a colleague who had nothing in common with McCormack except friendship -anti-New Deal, anti-labor Rep. Gene Cox of Georgia.

It was with hushed astonishment, therefore, that the house listened to Cox's bitter attack against McCormack during the stormy debate over the anti-40 hour proposal. His voice strident in anger, Cox denounced McCormack on the ground that his opposition to abolishing the 40-hour week was "not good sportsmanship, and I wonder if it is good leadership."

"I have hoped," the Georgian thundered, "that at some time the gentleman from Massachusetts would come to a realization that he is supposed to speak for the majority of this house rather than for somebody else."

Friends rushed to McCormack's defense, but he made no reply. Next day, however, under McCormack's leadership, the bill was defeated 226 to 62-a tally which left no doubts about who spoke for the "majority."

Note: Two undercover factors were responsible for this vote, which probably did not reflect the general sentiment of the country. One was a tremendous pressure drive by the A. F. of L. and C.I.O. in the district of each congressman. This was particularly effective with Republicans, who, with their eyes on next fall's congressional elections, are very political-minded. Second, was the failure of the farm bloc to support the bill because it feared labor reprisals against the parity and other boodle grabs which the farm bloc is after The bloc has been counted on to kill the 40-hour week, but the laborites served blunt notice that if the bill was passed, labor would ax the farmers. Result, the farm bloc ran for cover and the bill went into the ashcan.

WHAT THE DOCTOR ORDERED

The other day Harry Hopkins had a visitor in the person of Aubrey Williams, head of the National Youth administration, who has been e closest friends for many years.

"Harry," said Williams, looking around the room in the naval hospital, "how many bottles of medicine have you got there?"

"About 18," replied the lend-lease administrator. "About 18 too many," commented the National Youth administrator. "And how many doctors have you Hopkins told him.

"Well, Harry, what's the use of your fooling around with all these doctors and all this medicine," said his friend. "You know that the more doctors you have the more this whole thing gets on your nerves. Now there's only one doctor who really knew what ailed you, and that's Andy Rivers out at Mayo's in Rochester. Why don't you have Dr. Rivers come East and get you fixed

Harry Hopkins acted on his old friend's advice, sent for Dr. Rivers, and now is out of the hospital.

He says he has forgotten about medicine and doctors, and feels better than he has in months. Furthermore, Dr. Rivers has told him that without any question he can recover entirely.

NEW G.O.P. CHAIRMAN? It's very shush-shush, but in certain inner Republican circles there have been secret pow-wows on replacing Rep. Joe Martin as national chairman.

The hard-working little Bay Stater wanted to quit last year, but party chiefs decided that the wisest course would be to persuade Martin to stay for the sake of harmony.

Now some of the strongest advoeates of his retention are after his scalp. The hostile fire is from two sources.

One is from Mid-West leaders, sour on Martin, (1) for his failure to give them recognition in national headquarters; (2) for his secret financial wooing of Pennsylvania oil millionaire Joseph Pew and Pennsylvania steel millionaire Ernest Weir. In the farm belt the two big-money contributors are political dynamite and the Mid-West G.O.P. chiefs can't understand why Martin is palling around with them. So they feel the time has come for one of their group to be named either national chairman or executive director.

FRENCH PROBLEM When you get them out of official earshot, exiled members of the old French cabinet now in Washington, are very suspicious of what the Vichy government is doing in Marique and Guadeloupe Gundeloupe is a less French island near Martinique, and eertain coded messages have been intercepted indicating pro-German netivities on both islands. Suspi-tion is strong that Guadeloupe is beog used as a submarine refuell ase for Nazi submarines operating in the Caribbean.

BONDS-WHICH?

Illinois Boys Learn War Jobs

ORE than 1,100 young IVI men throughout Illinois -many of them in small towns-are receiving preliminary training in war industry jobs as part of a $15,-000,000 federal program be-ing supervised by the U.S. office of education. Industrial plants throughout the U. S. are cooperating in the project, as at Frankfort, Ky. (below), where youths are shown learning welding in the Schenley company's ma-chine shop under supervi-sion of plant technicians, who are donating their services.

Basic training is being offered in all types of metal work, including welding, tempering, drilling and machinery repairs, and in electricity and woodworking. According to John W. Studebaker, (right) U. S. commissioner of education, the program will help materially to supply millions of new workers needed in war industry this year to meet President Roosevelt's new production schedule for airplanes, tanks and guns.

PECAN STRAWS

DELICIOUS COOKIE that A is sparing of Mrs. America's precious store of sugar has a special place in a wartime recipe file. Pecan Straws, a flaky, pastry type of cookie, fills this need beautifully. Only one-half cup of sugar is all that this recipe calls for, and it makes three dozen dainty, crisp cookies.

Pecan Straws are grand for Victory Lunch Pails. Besides adding that sweet touch to "carry menus" for hard-working men, these cookies contribute their share of B-vitamins and iron to help keep up the war workers' vitality. Children who trudge off to school carrying their lunch on rainy April days will also enjoy Pecan Straws as a noon-time dessert, or with a glass of milk or a cup of cocos after school.

Pass a tray of Pecan Straws when serving your favorite fruit salad. Their crispness will enhance the delicate flavor of fruit.

PECAN STRAWS 2 cups sifted flour 4 cup sugar 1/2 teaspoon baking powder 14 teaspoon salt 1/2 cup shortening 14 cup cold water

2 tablespoons milk

1/2 cup nuts

1/4 cup sugar

Sift flour, sugar, baking powder and salt together. Cut or rub in shortening. Best egg and add to cold water. Add to flour, and stir only until flour is moistened. Roll out 14 inch thick. Brush over with milk and sprinkle with mixture of sugar and nuts. Cut into strips 1" x 3". Place on greased baking sheet. Bake in moderate oven (875° F.) about 15 minutes.

Yield: 3 dozen 1° x 3° cookies.

CHURCH SERVICES

NORTH SHORE CONGREGATION ISRAEL

Glences, Hi
Rabbi Charles E. Shulman

"Will This War End Wars?" is the timely question to be discussed by Rabbi Charles E. Shulman for the regular Sunday morning services on March 22, 11 o'clock, at North Shore Congregation Israel, Lincoln and Vernon avenues, Glencoe.

Rabbi Shulman will consider the possibilities and the limitations of the Atlantic Charter, which has posited some idea of the conditions under which the world may live in security in the future. He will dwell on the magnitude of the task before us in preparing for peace and will discuss means of putting the machinery for peace and concord into effect throughout the world.
